TO THE MEMBERS
OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOUTH.

WE esteem it our duty and privilege most earnestly to recommend to you, as members of our Church, our FORM OF DISCIPLINE, which has been founded on the experience of a long series of years.

We wish to see this little publication in the house of every Methodist; and the more so, as it contains the Articles of Religion maintained more or less, in part or in whole, by every reformed Church in the world.

Far from wishing you to be ignorant of any of our doctrines, or any part of our discipline, we desire you to read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest the whole. You ought, next to the Word of God, to procure the articles and canons of the Church to which you belong.

We remain your very affectionate brethren and pastors, who labor night and day, both in public and in private, for your good.

THE ADDRESS OF THE BISHOPS ON WORLDLINESS.

(Prepared and published by order of the General Conference.)

It has been the custom of the bishops, in watching over the souls of those for whom they must give an account, to warn against the insidious influence of worldliness, which is one of the most subtle and relentless foes of spirituality. It is the spirit of the world in opposition to the spirit of Christ. It is this against which the beloved disciple warned the early Christians when he said: "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." The apostle had in mind the same harmful worldliness when instantiating the foes of faith he summed them all up in one, and declared: "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."

Imagine a state of society where all were dominated by the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, and where all the customs of society were determined by such low standards, and it is evident that the conditions are absolutely opposed to a life of faith. Only Christianity could stop the brutal and inhuman ferocity of the gladiatorial shows and other forms of amusement which long dominated and brutalized the Roman populace. The indecencies of the stage can be checked by the same divine influence at work in society, as the obscenities and gross improprieties of the printed page, whether of the drama or the novel or the sensual poem, have been outlawed by the spirit of Christ that cleansed the temple of those who profaned it by unholy customs. Custom cannot make right. Custom is too often the unbridled spirit of worldliness, as in the days before Christianity exercised any restraint whatever. It is the mission of Christianity to change the customs of the world until they conform to the spirit of Christ.

The one law of the Church is to avoid what we know is not for the glory of God. This forbids the taking such diversions as cannot be used in the name of Christ, the singing those songs or reading those books which do not tend to the knowledge or love of God, and those forms of needless self-indulgence that unfit the believer for communion with God or for faithful and effective service for man. The law of expediency has the grip of moral duty when we abstain even from what is doubtful for the sake of others. To go to no place of amusement where we cannot invite our Lord to go with us, and to engage in no recreation on which we cannot invoke his blessing, is a safe rule of conduct toward God and man. This leaves to the Christian the safeguards of a divine presence in all things. Our Lord knew well the value of relaxation from a too strenuous life when he said to his disciples, "Come apart into a desert [or uninhabited] place, and rest awhile"; and he looked with complacency upon the sports of children as he noted their very language when at play in the streets of Jerusalem; but it was "the Lord in the midst" who gave to such recreation the sanction of his presence and blessing.

The family altar, with its sanctities; the right observance of the Sabbath made for man; the avoidance of all that would secularize its sacred hours; the faithful attendance upon all its means of grace; and the cheerful coöperation with all who are aiding in the religious instruction of our children—must make the home the beneficent agency for good in forming and maintaining those lofty ideals of right living for which Christianity has ever stood. Thus the spirit which was in Christ must be in us also, and as many as are led by the spirit of Christ show themselves the sons of their Father. If we would be the children of our Father in heaven, we must adopt the rules of heaven for life on earth. In vain do we pray the model prayer if we do not seek to do his will on earth as it is done in heaven. Thus alone can his kingdom come.

The true mission of Christ is both to save and to leaven—to destroy the works of the devil, and to impart the power as well as the spirit of right living. Because the spirit that now rules among the children of disobedience is a spirit of worldliness, making men lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, making self rather than Christ the center of life and thought, bidding men live without God in the world, the avowed aim of Christianity is to enthrone the Lord Jesus Christ in the heart and to make no provision for fulfilling the lusts of the flesh. The expulsive power of a new and holy affection has ever been needed to keep the life of God in the soul of man. If Methodism has often seemed strenuous in insisting on abstaining from every form of evil, she has found her justification in the blessing of her Lord in influencing the lives of men. God forbid that she should ever fall so low as to throw down all barriers about the flock of Christ and, in her lust for numbers, admit to her communion those who have no supreme desire to flee from the wrath to come and to be saved from their sins, and who do not show this desire by the fruits of holy living. A passion for the souls of others, born of this desire, as well as the desire to please Him who has called us to be soldiers, will best prevent becoming entangled in the affairs of this life inconsistent with the discipline of holy living. With the battle lines drawn against the devil, the world, and the flesh (the sworn and cruel foes of the soul), this is no time to relax our vigilance.

• “There is no surcease in that war.”

Finally, brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day; and having done all, to stand. Stand, therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith where-with ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God. Thus was our Lord equipped and armed in his temptations when he was tempted in all points as we are, yet without sin; for there is no temptation that overtaketh you but that there is provided a way of escape. Satan ever desires to have us that he may sift us as wheat. Our hope, O Lord, is in thee, who dost ever pray for us that our faith fail not.

DOCTRINES AND DISCIPLINE.

CHAPTER I.

ARTICLES OF RELIGION AND GENERAL RULES.

SECTION I.

ARTICLES OF RELIGION.

I. Of Faith in the Holy Trinity.

¶ 1. There is but one living and true God, everlasting, without body or parts; of infinite power, wisdom, and goodness; the Maker and Preserver of all things, both visible and invisible. And in unity of this Godhead, there are three persons of one substance, power, and eternity; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

II. Of the Word, or Son of God, who was made very Man.

¶ 2. The Son, who is the Word of the Father, the very and eternal God, of one substance with the Father, took man's nature in the womb of the blessed Virgin; so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say, the Godhead and manhood, were joined together in one person, never to be divided, whereof is one Christ, very God and very man, who truly suffered, was crucified, dead, and buried, to reconcile his Father to us, and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for actual sins of men.

III. Of the Resurrection of Christ.

¶ 3. Christ did truly rise again from the dead, and took again his body, with all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith he ascended into heaven, and there sitteth until he return to judge all men at the last day.

IV. Of the Holy Ghost.

¶ 4. The Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one substance, majesty, and glory, with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.

V. Of the Sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures for Salvation.

¶ 5. Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation; so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of the faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation. In the name of the Holy Scripture, we do understand those canonical books of the Old and New Testament, of whose authority was never any doubt in the Church.

Of the Names of the Canonical Books.

Genesis,

Exodus,

Leviticus,

Numbers,

Deuteronomy,

Joshua,

Judges,

Ruth,

The First Book of Samuel,

The Second Book of Samuel,

The First Book of Kings,

The Second Book of Kings,

The First Book of Chronicles,

The Second Book of Chronicles,

The Book of Ezra,

The Book of Nehemiah,

The Book of Esther,

The Book of Job,

The Psalms,

The Proverbs,

Ecclesiastes, or the Preacher,

Cantica, or Songs of Solomon,

Four Prophets the greater,

Twelve Prophets the less.

All the Books of the New Testament, as they are commonly received, we do receive and account canonical.

VI. Of the Old Testament.

¶ 6. The Old Testament is not contrary to the New; for both in the Old and New Testament everlasting life is offered to mankind by Christ, who is the only Mediator between God and man, being both God and man. Wherefore they are not to be heard, who feign that the old fathers did look only for transitory promises. Although the law given from God by Moses, as touching ceremonies and rites, doth not bind Christians, nor ought the civil precepts thereof of necessity to be received in any commonwealth; yet, notwithstanding, no Christian whatsoever is free from the obedience of the commandments which are called moral.

VII. Of Original or Birth Sin.

¶ 7. Original sin standeth not in the following of Adam (as the Pelagians do vainly talk), but it is the corruption of the nature of every man, that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam, whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and of his own nature inclined to evil, and that continually.

VIII. Of Free-Will.

¶ 8. The condition of man after the fall of Adam is such, that he cannot turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith, and calling upon God ; wherefore we have no power to do good works, pleasant and acceptable to God, without the grace of God by Christ preventing us, that we may have a good will, and working with us, when we have that good will.

IX. Of the Justification of Man.

¶ 9. We are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by faith, and not for our own works or deservings ; wherefore, that we are justified by faith only, is a most wholesome doctrine, and very full of comfort.

X. Of Good Works.

¶ 10. Although good works, which are the fruits of faith, and follow after justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure the severity of God's judgment ; yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and spring out of a true and lively faith, insomuch that by them a lively faith may be as evidently known, as a tree discerned by its fruit.

XI. Of Works of Supererogation.

¶ 11. Voluntary works, besides, over and above God's commandments, which they call works of supererogation, cannot be taught without arrogance and impiety. For by them men do declare,

That they do not only render unto God as much as they are bound to do, but that they do more for his sake than of bounden duty is required: whereas Christ saith plainly, When ye have done all that is commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants.

XII. Of Sin after Justification.

¶ 12. Not every sin, willingly committed after justification, is the sin against the Holy Ghost, and unpardonable. Wherefore the grant of repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after justification: after we have received the Holy Ghost, we may depart from grace given, and fall into sin, and by the grace of God rise again, and amend our lives. And therefore they are to be condemned who say they can no more sin as long as they live here, or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent.

XIII. Of the Church.

¶ 13. The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men, in the which the pure word of God is preached, and the sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same.

XIV. Of Purgatory.

¶ 14. The Romish doctrine concerning purgatory, pardons, worshipping, and adoration, as well of images as of relics, and also invocation of saints, is a fond thing vainly invented, and grounded upon no warrant of Scripture, but repugnant to the word of God.

XV. Of speaking in the Congregation in such a Tongue as the People understand.

¶ 15. It is a thing plainly repugnant to the word of God, and the custom of the Primitive Church, to have public prayer in the Church, or to minister the sacraments in a tongue not understood by the people.

XVI. Of the Sacraments.

¶ 16. Sacraments ordained of Christ, are not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession; but rather they are certain signs of grace, and God's good will towards us, by the which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm our faith in him.

There are two sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord in the Gospel; that is to say, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord.

Those five commonly called sacraments; that is to say, Confirmation, Penance, Orders, Matrimony, and extreme Unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel, being such as have partly grown out of the corrupt following of the apostles, and partly are states of life allowed in the Scriptures, but yet have not the like nature of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, because they have not any visible sign or ceremony ordained of God.

The sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about; but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily receive the same, they have a wholesome effect or operation; but they that receive them unworthily, purchase to themselves condemnation, as St. Paul saith.

XVII. Of Baptism.

¶ 17. Baptism is not only a sign of profession, and mark of difference, whereby Christians are distinguished from others that are not baptized; but it is also a sign of regeneration, or the new birth. The baptism of young children is to be retained in the Church.

XVIII. Of the Lord's Supper.

¶ 18. The Supper of the Lord is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another, but rather is a sacrament of our redemption by Christ's death: insomuch, that to such as rightly, worthily, and with faith receive the same, the bread which we break is a partaking of the body of Christ; and likewise the cup of blessing is a partaking of the blood of Christ.

Transubstantiation, or the change of the substance of bread and wine in the Supper of the Lord, cannot be proved by Holy Writ; but is repugnant to the plain words of Scripture, overthroweth the nature of a sacrament, and hath given occasion to many superstitions.

The body of Christ is given, taken, and eaten in the Supper, only after an heavenly and spiritual manner. And the mean whereby the body of Christ is received and eaten in the Supper, is faith.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was not by Christ's ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worshipped.

XIX. Of both Kinds.

¶ 19. The cup of the Lord is not to be denied to the lay-people; for both the parts of the Lord's Supper, by Christ's ordinance and commandment, ought to be administered to all Christians alike.

XX. Of the One Oblation of Christ, finished upon the Cross.

¶ 20. The offering of Christ once made, is that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual; and there is none other satisfaction for sin but that alone. Wherefore, the sacrifice of masses, in the which it is commonly said that the priest doth offer Christ for the quick and the dead, to have remission of pain or guilt, is a blasphemous fable, and dangerous deceit.

XXI. Of the Marriage of Ministers.

¶ 21. The ministers of Christ are not commanded by God's law either to vow the estate of single life, or to abstain from marriage; therefore it is lawful for them, as for all other Christians, to marry at their own discretion, as they shall judge the same to serve best to godliness.

XXII. Of the Rites and Ceremonies of Churches.

¶ 22. It is not necessary that rites and ceremonies should in all places be the same, or exactly alike; for they have been always different, and may be changed according to the diversity of countries, times, and men's manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's word. Whosoever, through his private judgment, willingly and purposely doth openly break the rites and ceremonies of the Church to which he belongs, which are not repugnant to the word of God, and are ordained and approved by common authority, ought to be rebuked openly, that others may fear to do the like, as one that offendeth against the common order of the Church, and woundeth the consciences of weak brethren.

Every particular Church may ordain, change, or abolish rites and ceremonies, so that all things may be done to edification.

XXIII. Of the Rulers of the United States of America.

¶ 23. The president, the congress, the general assemblies, the governors, and the councils of state, as the delegates of the people, are the rulers of the United States of America, according to the division of power made to them by the constitution of the United States, and by the constitutions of their respective states. And the said states are a sovereign and independent nation, and ought not to be subject to any foreign jurisdiction.¹

XXIV. Of Christian Men's Goods.

¶ 24. The riches and goods of Christians are not common as touching the right, title, and possession of the same, as some do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every man ought, of such things as he possesseth, liberally to give alms to the poor according to his ability.

¹As far as it respects civil affairs, we believe it the duty of Christians, and especially all Christian ministers, to be subject to the supreme authority of the country where they may reside, and to use all laudable means to enjoin obedience to the powers that be; and, therefore, it is expected that all our preachers and people will behave themselves as peaceable and orderly subjects.

XXV. Of a Christian Man's Oath.

¶ 25. As we confess that vain and rash swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord Jesus Christ and James his apostle; so we judge that the Christian religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the magistrate requireth, in a cause of faith and charity, so it be done according to the prophet's teaching, in justice, judgment, and truth.

SECTION II.

THE GENERAL RULES.

¶ 26. In the latter end of the year 1739, eight or ten persons came to Mr. Wesley in London, who appeared to be deeply convinced of sin, and earnestly groaning for redemption. They desired (as did two or three more the next day) that he would spend some time with them in prayer, and advise them how to flee from the wrath to come; which they saw continually hanging over their heads. That they might have more time for this great work, he appointed a day when they might all come together, which from thenceforward they did every week, namely, on Thursday, in the evening. To these, and as many more as desired to join with them (for their number increased daily), he gave those advices from time to time which he judged most needful for them; and they always concluded their meeting with prayer suited to their several necessities.

¶ 27. This was the rise of the UNITED SOCIETY, first in Europe, and then in America. Such a society is no other than “a company of men having the form and seeking the power of godliness, united in order to pray together, to receive the word of exhortation, and to watch over one another in love, that they may help each other to work out their salvation.”

¶ 28. There is only one condition previously required of those who desire admission into these societies, a “desire to flee from the wrath to come, and to be saved from their sins.” But wherever this is really fixed in the soul, it will be shown by its fruits. It is therefore expected of all who continue therein that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation,

First, By doing no harm, by avoiding evil of every kind, especially that which is most generally practiced: such as,

The taking of the name of God in vain;

The profaning the day of the Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein, or by buying or selling;

Drunkenness, or drinking spirituous liquors unless in cases of necessity;

Fighting, quarreling, brawling; brother going to law with brother; returning evil for evil, or railing for railing; the using many words in buying or selling;

The buying or selling goods that have not paid the duty;

The giving or taking things on usury, i. e., unlawful interest; -

Uncharitable or unprofitable conversation, particularly speaking evil of magistrates or ministers;

Doing to others as we would not they should do unto us;

Doing what we know is not for the glory of God: as,

The putting on of gold and costly apparel;

The taking such diversions as cannot be used in the name of the Lord Jesus;

The singing those songs, or reading those books, which do not tend to the knowledge or love of God;

Softness or needless self-indulgence;

Laying up treasures upon earth;

Borrowing without a probability of paying, or taking up goods without a probability of paying for them.

¶ 29. It is expected of all who continue in these societies that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation,

Secondly, By doing good, by being in every kind merciful after their power, as they have opportunity, doing good of every possible sort, and, as far as possible, to all men :

To their bodies, of the ability which God giveth, by giving food to the hungry, by clothing the naked, by visiting or helping them that are sick or in prison ;

To their souls, by instructing, reproving, or exhorting all we have any intercourse with; trampling under foot that enthusiastic doctrine that “we are not to do good unless our hearts be free to it.”

By doing good, especially to them that are of the household of faith, or groaning so to be; employing them preferably to others, buying one of another, helping each other in business; and so much the more because the world will love its own; and them only.

By all possible diligence and frugality, that the gospel be not blamed.

By running with patience the race which it set before them, denying themselves, and taking up their cross daily; submitting to bear the reproach of Christ, to be as the filth and offscouring of the world; and looking that men should say all manner of evil of them falsely for the Lord's sake.

¶ 30. It is expected of all who desire to continue in these societies that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation, Thirdly, By attending upon all the ordinances of God: such are,

The public worship of God;

The ministry of the word, either read or expounded;

The Supper of the Lord;

Family and private prayer;

Searching the Scriptures; and Fasting or abstinence.

¶ 31. These are the General Rules of our societies; all of which we are taught of God to observe, even in his written word, which is the only rule, and the sufficient rule, both of our faith and practice. And all these we know his Spirit writes on truly awakened hearts. If there be any among us who observe them not, who habitually break any of them, let it be known unto them who watch over that soul, as they who must give an account. We will admonish him of the error of his ways; we will bear with him for a season; but if then he repent not, he hath no more place among us; we have delivered our own souls.

CHAPTER II.

- (2) They shall not allow of more than one representative for every eighteen members of the Annual Conference, nor allow of a less number than one for every sixty: provided, nevertheless, that when there shall be in any Annual Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Annual Conference shall be entitled to an additional delegate for such fraction: and provided, also, that no Conference shall be denied the privilege of two delegates, one clerical and one lay.

- (3) They shall not change or alter any part or rule of our government, so as to do away episcopacy, or destroy the plan of our itinerant general superintendency.
- (4) They shall not revoke or change the General Rules of the United Societies.

upon the joint recommendation of all the Annual Conferences by a majority of two-thirds of the General Conference succeeding; and also, whenever such alteration or alterations shall have been first recommended by two-thirds of the General Conference, so soon as three-fourths of the members of all the Annual Conferences shall have concurred as aforesaid, such alteration or alterations shall take effect: provided, that when any rule or regulation is adopted by the General Conference, which, in the opinion of the Bishops, is unconstitutional, the Bishops may present to the Conference which passed said rule or regulation their objections thereto, with their reasons, in writing; and if then the General Conference shall, by a two-thirds vote, adhere to its action on said rule or regulation, it shall then take the course prescribed for altering a Restrictive Rule, and if thus passed upon affirmatively, the Bishops shall announce that such rule or regulation takes effect from that time.

SECTION VII.

OF THE CHURCH CONFERENCES.

Question. What directions are given concerning Church Conferences?

¶ 109. Ans. 1. All the members of the Church, and resident members of the Annual Conference, shall come together once a month, or on circuits at least every three months, at every appointment, to hold a Church Conference, over which the preacher in charge shall preside. It may be held at any time most convenient for assembling the greatest number of members; but if on the Sabbath, it should not interfere with the morning public worship.

¶ 110. Ans. 2. A Secretary shall be elected annually, at the first meeting after the session of the Annual Conference. He shall make a record of the proceedings, and shall keep in a book, and return to the Quarterly Conference, all the statistics which the Discipline requires to be reported to an Annual Conference. He shall enter in chronological order, in a permanent register, the full names of all who shall join the Church, with the time and manner of the reception, and disposal of each, distinguishing between local elders, deacons, and preachers; white persons, colored persons, and Indians; and shall make a permanent record of all the baptisms and marriages within the congregation; and shall furnish the pastor with an alphabetical roll of the Church; and shall make a written report to the Quarterly Conference.

¶ 111. Ans. 3. The roll of members shall be called at every meeting, unless otherwise ordered, and the Conference may strike off the name of any who, on account of removal or other cause, have been lost sight of for twelve months: provided, however, that if such member appear and claim membership, he may be restored by a vote of the meeting.

¶ 112. Ans. 4. The following is suggested as the general order of business:

I. Receive reports,

1st. From the preachers, of their labors since the last meeting.

2d. From the class leaders.

3d. From the Sunday schools.

4th. From the steward or stewards of that Church.

5th. From Epworth Leagues.

6th. From the Committee on Laymen's Activities.

II. The Conference shall inquire,

1st. What is doing for the relief of the poor of the Church?

2d. Is the Church here doing its duty for the cause of Missions, Church Extension, and other enterprises, and for the collections ordered by the Annual Conference?

3d. Is our Christian literature circulated and read?

4th. Can the Church extend its work by establishing additional prayer meetings, Sunday schools, or in any other way?

5th. Can anything more be done to strengthen and build up the Church in the community, and to advance the cause of Christ?

¶ 113. Ans. 5. Before the session of the Annual Conference, the Church Conference shall elect a Church Lay Leader, a Missionary Committee, an Evangelistic Committee, and a Social Service Committee.

¶ 114. Ans. 6. If the observance of this order of business is likely to protract the session beyond a reasonable limit, the President may, from time to time, select the most important matters and bring them forward.

¶ 115. Ans. 7. Let the Church Conference be opened and closed with religious service and conducted in a devout and prayerful spirit.

¶ 116. Ans. 8. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Church Conference to present his Church Register, and the Records of Church Conferences, to the third Quarterly Conference for inspection.

CHAPTER III.

MINISTERS AND CHURCH OFFICERS.

SECTION I.

OF THE TRIAL OF THOSE WHO THINK THEY ARE MOVED BY THE HOLY GHOST TO PREACH.

Question. How shall we try those who profess to be moved by the Holy Ghost to preach?

¶ 117. Ans. Let the following questions be asked, namely:

1. Do they know God as a pardoning God? Have they the love of God abiding in them? Do they desire nothing but God? And are they holy in all manner of conversation?

2. Have they gifts (as well as grace) for the work? Have they (in some tolerable degree) a clear, sound understanding, a right judgment in the things of God, a just conception of salvation by faith? Do they speak justly, readily, clearly?

3. Have they fruit? Are any truly convinced of sin and converted to God by their preaching?

As long as these three marks concur in any one, we believe he is called of God to preach. These we receive as sufficient proof that he is moved by the Holy Ghost.

SECTION II.

OF THE ELECTION AND CONSECRATION OF BISHOPS, AND
OF THEIR DUTY.

Question 1. How is a Bishop to be constituted?

¶ 118. Ans. By the election of the General Conference, and the laying on of the hands of three Bishops, or at least of one Bishop and two elders.

Ques. 2. If by death, expulsion, or otherwise, there be no Bishop remaining in our Church, what shall we do?

¶ 119. Ans. The General Conference shall elect a Bishop; and the elders, or any three of them, who shall be appointed by the General Conference for that purpose shall ordain him according to our form of ordination.

Ques. 3. What are the duties of a Bishop?

¶ 120. Ans. 1. To preside in the General, Annual, and District Conferences.

¶ 121. Ans. 2. To fix the appointments of the preachers in the Annual Conferences: provided, that he shall announce to the open cabinet, before the minute question answering the appointments of the preachers is officially announced, all the appointments made by him except those made during the interim of the sessions of an Annual Conference: and provided, further, that he shall not allow any preacher to remain in the same circuit or station more than four years successively (but an unexpired term of less than six months shall not be counted), except the connectional officers, the supernumerary and superannuated preachers, missionaries among the Indians, and on foreign stations, or in the employ of the Annual Conference Board of Missions, chaplains to the state-prisons and military posts, those preachers that may be appointed to labor for the especial benefit of seamen, for the American Bible Society, for the Sunday League of America, for any institution having the care of orphan and homeless children, and the presidents, principals, or teachers of seminaries under our superintendence; and, when requested by an Annual Conference, to appoint a preacher for a longer time than four years to any seminary of learning not under our care; also a Sunday School Field Secretary to travel within the bounds of such Conference for the purpose of establishing and aiding Sunday schools; and an agent or agents for the benefit of our literary and benevolent institutions; a general colportage agent or general colporter, and the editors of Annual Conference organs. A Bishop may appoint a preacher on trial, or a member of an Annual Conference, to engage in temperance work, or as Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, to service in the Army or Navy of the United States, or as a student in any of our institutions of learning, or in any university for strictly university work, when requested to do so by the Annual Conference: provided, however, that the time thus spent in school shall not count on the time required for trial in the Annual Conference: provided, further, that where a Quarterly Conference shall request and a majority of the Presiding Elders shall concur by ballot, the Bishop may appoint a preacher to a pastoral charge for more than four consecutive years.

¶ 122. Ans. 3. To choose the Presiding Elders, fix their stations, and change them when he judges it necessary: provided, that he shall not allow any elder to preside in the same district more than four years successively: and provided, further, that time given in filling out an unexpired term of less than six months shall not be counted.

¶ 123. Ans. 4. To change, receive, and suspend preachers in the intervals of the Conferences, as necessity may require, and as the Discipline directs.

¶ 124. Ans. 5. To ordain Bishops, elders, and deacons; and to see that the names of the persons ordained by him be entered on the journals of the Conference.

¶ 125. Ans. 6. To decide all questions of law coming before him in the regular business of an Annual or District Conference: provided, that such questions be presented in writing, and, with his decisions, be recorded on the journals of the Conference. When the Bishop shall have decided a question of law, the Conference shall have the right to determine how far the law thus decided or interpreted is applicable to the case then pending. An Annual or District Conference shall have the right to appeal from such decision to the College of Bishops, whose decision in such case shall be final. No Episcopal decision shall be authoritative, except in the case pending, until it shall have been passed upon by the College of Bishops. The College of Bishops shall hold semiannual meetings of not less than three days' time and as much longer as the work may require; to survey and consider all of the work of the Church at large; to plan and suggest new and needed enterprises in any part of the field; to provide, as far as possible, a uniform policy of administration, in order to the exercise of the functions of true Church leadership. At the close of each meeting they shall publish the results of their deliberations, as far as they may deem necessary for the interests of the Church, in the official organ of the Church and in the various organs of the Annual Conferences. Each Bishop shall at such meetings report in writing all his decisions of law, with a syllabus of each case, made during the year. The College of Bishops shall review these decisions, record its conclusions in a permanent form, and publish semi-annually in the Christian Advocate, and in such other form as the College shall agree to adopt, its conclusions in each case, together with the syllabus; and these conclusions, when published, shall be authoritative constructions of law.

¶ 126. Ans. 7. When presiding in Annual Conference, to hear and decide appeals from the decision of the President of a Quarterly or District Conference on questions of law; and the questions contained in the appeal, together with the Bishop's decision, shall be recorded on the journal of the Conference.

¶ 127. Ans. 8. To see that the Districts be formed according to his judgment: provided, that no District shall contain more than forty appointments.

¶ 128. Ans. 9. To divide a circuit, station, or mission into two or more, or unite two or more circuits or stations and appoint one pastor for the united congregation, when he judges it necessary.

¶ 129. Ans. 10. To travel during the year, as far as practicable, through the Presiding Elders' Districts which may be included in his Episcopal District, in order to preach and to oversee the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church.

Ques. 4. Shall a Bishop have power to employ as a supply a preacher who has been rejected, discontinued, or located, at the previous session of any Annual Conference?

¶ 130. Ans. He shall not employ any preacher who has been rejected as an applicant, or who has been discontinued or located, except at his own request, unless the Conference shall, at the time of such rejection, discontinuance, or location, give such liberty.

¶ 135. Ans. 5. To decide all questions of law which may come up in the regular business of the Quarterly or District Conference, when submitted to him in writing, subject to an appeal to the President of the next Annual Conference; but in all cases the application of law shall be with the Quarterly or District Conference, which shall record in its journals all such questions and decisions.

¶ 136. Ans. 6. To take care that every part of the Discipline be enforced in his District; to promote, by all proper means, the cause of Missions and Sunday schools, and the publication, at our own press, of tracts and Sunday school books; to inquire carefully, at each Quarterly Conference, whether the rules respecting the instruction of children and the supplying of our books and periodicals have been faithfully observed; whether the preacher in charge administers the sacraments, holds Church Conferences, enforces moral discipline, and attends to the collections assessed to his charge; and to report to the Annual Conference the names of all the delinquent traveling preachers within his District.

¶ 137. Ans. 7. To attend the Bishops when present in his District, and to give them, when absent, all necessary information, by letter, of the state of his District.

¶ 138. Ans. 8. In connection with the Examining Committees, to direct the Conference undergraduates in those studies prescribed for them by the Bishops; and, in connection with the preacher in charge, to encourage local preachers and candidates for the ministry in their studies, ¶ 139. Ans. 9. To procure full statistics from every charge, to be reported at the Annual Conference, in case the preacher in charge fails to make his report, and to have the records of his District Conferences at the Annual Conference for examination. He shall also furnish to the Chairman of the Sunday School Board at each Annual Conference session a complete list of the superintendents in his District, with their post-office addresses.

¶ 140. Ans. 10. If any preacher absent himself from his charge, the Presiding Elder shall, as far as possible, fill his place with another preacher.

Ques. 2. Shall the Presiding Elder have power to employ a preacher who has been rejected, discontinued, or located, at the previous session of any Annual Conference?

¶ 141. Ans. He shall not employ any preacher who has been rejected as an applicant, or who has been discontinued or located, except at his own request, unless the Conference shall, at the time of such rejection, discontinuance, or location, give such liberty.

SECTION IV.

OF PREACHERS IN CHARGE OF CIRCUITS, STATIONS, OR MISSIONS.

Question. What are the duties of a preacher who has the charge of a circuit, station, or mission?

¶ 142. Ans. 1. To preach the gospel; to celebrate the rite of matrimony, provided it does not conflict with civil laws; in the absence of an elder or Bishop, to administer baptism; and in the absence of the Presiding Elder or Bishop, to control the appointment of all services to be held in the Churches in his charge, with the understanding that no permanent powers of ordination are conferred until the same shall be granted by the laying on of hands after he shall have met the disciplinary requirements. ¶ 143. Ans. 2. To receive, try, and expel members, according to the provisions of the Discipline.

¶ 144. Ans. 3. To appoint all the leaders annually, and change them when he sees it necessary. The preacher in charge may publicly install all elective officers of the Church on a day appointed. The officers to be installed (Sunday School Superintendents, Stewards, Lay Leader, etc.) may be installed before the chancel, briefly addressed by the preacher in charge, or by some one appointed by him for that purpose, as to the dignity and usefulness of an officer in the Church of God, and be commended to the Church for sympathy and co-operation. In token of such willingness to help, the Church members present may engage in covenant prayer to this end, the preacher leading.

¶ 149. Ans. 8. To report to each Quarterly Conference the names of all who have been received into the Church, and of all who have died, removed, withdrawn, or been excluded from it during the preceding quarter, and to give a statement of the general condition of his station, circuit, or mission.

¶ 150. Ans. 9. To give an account of his charge every quarter to his Presiding Elder.

In charges containing more than one organized congregation, the names of the members shall be arranged under the name of the Church or appointment to which they belong.

The bearer hereof, —, has been an acceptable member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in —, C. Station (Circuit or Mission), — Conference.

(When this certificate is presented to and accepted by another Church, notice of the same, according to the attached form, shall be sent to the undersigned. The person to whom this certificate is issued shall remain a member of this Church until such notice is received or until otherwise dismissed.)

Void after one year from this date.

(Signed) —, Pastor.

The return notice to be attached to a certificate shall be in the following form:

The certificate of membership of —, from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in —, is hereby acknowledged. He (or she) has been duly received as a member of this Church, and thereby ceases to be a member of the Church issuing said certificate.

Notice of the removal of a member shall be sent to the pastor of the charge, or the Presiding Elder of the District, into which said member shall remove. Such notice shall be in the following form, and shall be printed with and detachable from the blank certificate:

¶ 162. Ans. 21. The ministers of our Church shall be prohibited from solemnizing the rites of matrimony between divorced persons, except in case of innocent parties who have been divorced for the one scriptural cause.

SECTION V.

OF ADMITTING PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Question. How is a preacher to be admitted on trial into the traveling connection?

¶ 163. Ans. 1. By the Annual Conference. In the interval of the Conference he may be received and employed in the work by a Bishop, or the Presiding Elder of the District, until the sitting of the Conference.

¶ 164. Ans. 2. No one shall be admitted on trial unless he first procure a recommendation from the District Conference of his circuit, station, or mission, or from the Licensing Committee of the District Conference; nor shall a vote be taken upon the admission of any candidate who has not passed an approved examination upon the Course of Study prescribed by the Bishops, before a committee appointed by the Conference for that purpose.

¶ 165. Ans. 3. The Annual Conference may then admit him as a probationer, by a vote of the majority. Observe!—This relation of being on trial embraces the requisites of a competent pastorate, and must apply as well to proper administrative qualifications as to acceptable preaching ability. One on trial may be discontinued for want of efficiency in either of these respects, without doing him any wrong; otherwise, it would be no trial at all.

¶ 166. Ans. 4. The Committee on Admission shall require all applicants for admission on trial to agree to abstain from the use of tobacco.

SECTION VI.

OF ADMITTING PREACHERS INTO FULL CONNECTION.

Question 1. Who shall be admitted into the Conference in full connection.

¶ 167. Ans. 1. No one except a preacher who has been employed at least two years in the regular itinerant work (which is to commence from his being admitted on trial at the Annual Conference), and who has passed the examinations on our prescribed Course of Study, and who is approved by the Annual Conference.

¶ 168. Ans. 2. Before any preacher is admitted into full connection, he shall pass an approved examination upon the Course of Study prescribed by the Bishops for candidates for the ministry; and in no case shall a vote be taken to admit any one until he is recommended by the Examining Committee.

¶ 169. Ans. 3. A missionary employed on a foreign mission may be admitted into full connection, if recommended by the superintendent of the mission where he labors, without being present at the Annual Conference for examination.

Ques. 2. What method do we use in admitting a preacher into full connection at the Conference?

¶ 170. Ans. After solemn fasting and prayer, every person proposed shall then be asked, before the Conference, the following questions (with any others that may be thought necessary), namely: Have you faith in Christ? Are you going on to perfection? Do you expect to be made perfect in love in this life? Are you groaning after it? Are you resolved to devote yourself wholly to God and his work? Are you willing to conform to the Discipline of the Church? Will you diligently instruct the children in every place? Will you visit from house to house? Will you recommend fasting and abstinence, both by precept and example? Are you in debt so as to embarrass you?

Will you especially observe the following directions?

1. Be diligent. Never be unemployed. Never be triflingly employed. Never trifle away time; neither spend any more time at any place than is strictly necessary.

2. Be punctual. Do everything exactly at the time. And do not mend our rules, but keep them; not for wrath, but for conscience sake.

3. Act in all things not according to your own will, but as a son in the gospel. It is therefore your duty to employ your time in the manner which we direct; in preaching, meeting the classes, visiting from house to house, and especially visiting the sick; in reading, meditation, and prayer.

Above all, if you labor with us in the Lord's vineyard, it is needful you should do that part of the work which we advise, at those times and places which we judge most for his glory.

If he give satisfactory answers to these questions, the Conference, by a vote of the majority, may admit him into full connection.

SECTION VII.

OF TRAVELING DEACONS.

Question 1. How is a deacon constituted?

¶ 171. Ans. 1. By the election of a majority of the Annual Conference, and the laying on of the hands of a Bishop.

¶ 172. Ans. 2. Before any traveling preacher is ordained deacon, he shall pass an approved examination upon the Course of Study prescribed by the Bishops for candidates for the ministry; and in no case shall a vote be taken to elect any one to deacon's orders until he is recommended by the Examining Committee, except such as may be selected as chaplains in the Army or Navy, or in other war service requiring ordination, when our Bishops shall have authority to ordain such without vote of the Annual Conference, upon notice of the selection of a local or traveling preacher approved by the committee of our Church for the selection of chaplains, such ordination not to release from the prescribed Course of Study.

Ques. 2. What shall be the time of probation of a traveling preacher for the office of deacon?

¶ 173. Ans. No one shall be so elected and ordained who has not been two years in the regular itinerant work, except such as may be selected by the Bishop for the missionary work, when the Annual Conference shall have authority to elect to the deacon's office sooner, if the Conference judge it expedient.

Ques. 3. What are the duties of a traveling deacon?

¶ 174. Ans. 1. To administer baptism and to solemnize the rite of matrimony in the absence of the elder.

¶ 175. Ans. 2. To assist the elder in administering the Lord's Supper.

¶ 176. Ans. 3. To perform all the duties of a traveling preacher. —

SECTION VIII.

OF TRAVELING ELDERS.

Question 1. How is an elder constituted?

¶ 177. Ans. 1. By the election of a majority of the Annual Conference, and the laying on of the hands of a Bishop and some of the elders that are present.

¶ 178. Ans. 2. Before any traveling preacher is ordained elder he shall pass an approved examination upon the Course of Study prescribed by the Bishops for candidates for the ministry ; and in no case shall a vote be taken to elect any one to elder's orders until he is recommended by the Examining Committee, except such as may be selected as chaplains in the Army or Navy, or in other war service requiring ordination, when our Bishops shall have authority to ordain such without vote of the Annual Conference upon notice of the selection of a local or traveling preacher, approved by the committee of our Church for the selection of chaplains, such ordination not to release from the prescribed Course of Study.

Ques. 2. What shall be the time of probation of a traveling deacon for the office of elder?

¶ 179. Ans. Every traveling deacon shall exercise that office for two years, before he be eligible to the office of elder ; except in the case of missionaries, when the Annual Conference shall have authority to elect to the elder's office sooner, if the Conference judge it expedient : provided, always, that when a preacher has passed his examination, and has been elected to deacon's orders, but fails of his ordination through the absence of a Bishop, his eligibility to the office of elder shall run from the time of his election to the office of deacon.

Ques. 3. What are the duties of a traveling elder?

¶ 180. Ans. 1. To administer baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to solemnize the rite of matrimony, and to perform all parts of divine worship.

¶ 181. Ans. 2. To perform all the duties of a traveling preacher.

Ques. 4. What shall be done in the case of missionaries and native preachers in foreign lands where there is no Annual Conference?

¶ 182. Ans. The Bishop in charge of the mission shall have authority to ordain to the office of deacon and elder on the recommendation of the superintendent and resident missionaries; or, if there be none, at his discretion.

SECTION IX.

• OF MISSION TRAVELING PREACHERS.

Question. What directions are given concerning Mission traveling preachers?

¶ 183. Ans. A Mission traveling preacher, deacon or elder, is one who is a member of a Mission Annual Conference without being a member of an Annual Conference. In the election of Mission traveling deacons and elders the Mission Annual Conference shall require of all applicants the conditions and qualifications demanded of traveling deacons and elders by an Annual Conference. The duties, responsibilities, rights, and privileges of traveling deacons and elders shall be the same as those of traveling deacons and elders, except that their membership is confined to a Mission Annual Conference.

SECTION X.

OF SUPERNUMERARY PREACHERS.

Question. What is a supernumerary preacher?

¶ 184. Ans. 1. A supernumerary preacher is one who is so disabled by affliction as to be unable to preach constantly, but who is willing to do any work in the ministry which the Bishop may direct, and he may be able to perform.

¶ 185. Ans. 2. A supernumerary relation shall not be granted by an Annual Conference, except on the recommendation of a Committee on Conference Relations, consisting of not less than seven members, to be appointed by the Conference, to whom such application shall have been referred. Nor shall said committee, in making up their decision, take into consideration anything else than the personal disability of the applicant: provided, however, that in case said committee report adversely, the Conference, by a vote of not less than three-fourths of the members present, may grant said application. It shall annually pay to the Board superintending the Epworth Leagues, as a cultivation fund for the development of missionary liberality in the Epworth Leagues, a sum equal to ten per cent of the amounts contributed by the Epworth Leagues for missionary specials. It shall also publish annually a statement of its transactions, naming the missions supported by it and the amount appropriated and paid to each, and lay before the General Conference a report of its operations, including the location and value of property held by the Board.

¶ 273. ART. V. The General Secretary shall preside at a meeting of all the Secretaries of the Board to be held monthly for the consideration of the interests under their care. He shall supervise the inauguration of new policies, and negotiations looking to coöperation with other denominations, and shall look after the legal and other general business of the Board. He shall have oversight of the affairs of the Board in all its departments, and shall be responsible to the Board for the execution of its policies.

‘ 274. ART. VI. The Department of Foreign Missions shall administer all missions of the Church in foreign lands and the funds appropriated for the same, and shall supervise the work of the foreign missionaries on the field, who shall be subject to appointment by the Bishop in charge. This work shall be directed by the Secretaries for the Department of Foreign Missions.

‘ 275. ART. VII. (a) The Department of Home Missions shall administer the home mission enterprises of the Church: provided, that the Annual Conference Boards shall have charge of all missions they may establish and provide for within their bounds. Candidates for mission work under this department shall be accepted by the Committee on Candidates on the basis of candidates for foreign work, as to fitness and tenure of service. When accepted, such candidates shall be nominated for appointment to the Bishop in charge of the Conference in which they are to work: provided, further, that this paragraph shall not be construed as forbidding Annual Conference Boards of Missions employing other than such candidates. The office and work of deaconess shall be under the direction of the department of Woman's Work.

(b) The office of deaconess is hereby authorized. A deaconess shall be a single woman or a widow not less than twenty-three years of age, nor more than fifty, when accepted for service. She must be a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. She must be in good standing, and must have shown a fitness for this work by active service in some line of Christian work. She must have good health, and must have had a high-school education and two years of college work or its equivalent.

No person shall be consecrated to the office of a deaconess without having successfully completed the prescribed course of study in an accredited Bible Training School and having served a probation of two years of continuous service. She shall be recommended for consecration by the Quarterly Conference. She shall wear the uniform prescribed by the Council.

The duties of the deaconess shall be to engage in Christian social service, and, relinquishing all other pursuits, she shall devote herself to such work as the Church may determine. No vows of life service shall be exacted of a deaconess, but any one applying for a recommendation from a Quarterly Conference shall have considered this step carefully, and shall believe herself called of God to this work. A deaconess desiring to retire from the work shall be permitted to do so at the close of the term of her appointment, when she shall surrender her certificate and cease to wear the uniform. If found unsuited to the work and calling of a deaconess, she shall be retired and her certificate revoked.

While engaged in this voluntary service, support shall be provided, covering a monthly stipend and living expenses. Necessary regulations for effectuating the foregoing provisions shall be prescribed by the Woman's Missionary Council.

¶ 276. ART. VIII. The Educational Secretaries shall provide suggestive plans and policies for the missionary education of the Church with special reference to the Sunday School, the Epworth League, the schools and colleges of the Church, the Laymen's Missionary Movement, the Woman's Missionary Societies, and other agencies of the Church.

It shall be their duty to keep a permanent record of the proceedings of the Board, and to publish an abstract of them in the Church papers; to conduct its correspondence; to attend to its legal business; to prepare the annual report, and to publish monthly (either in a missionary paper or in the Church papers, as the Board shall direct) statements of the condition, needs, and prospects of the various missions, and to discharge such other duties as the Board may direct. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be fixed by the Board, and all their necessary traveling expenses shall be allowed.

¶ 278. ART. X. The Secretaries of the Board, together with three members of the Board, one of whom shall be the President of the Woman's Missionary Council, shall be a Committee on Estimates, of which the General Secretary shall be chairman. This committee shall consider the work and needs of the different fields, mission stations, and enterprises, at home and abroad, the number of persons to be employed in each, and the amount of money needed for the same, and for the expenses of the Board, submitting a full report of the same to the Board for its adoption in annual session. •

¶ 279. ART. XI. The Board shall meet annually to determine what fields shall be occupied as missions, the number of persons to be employed in each, and to estimate the amount that may be necessary for the support of the missions under its charge, and to apportion the same to the several Annual Conferences.

• 280. ART. XII. Eleven members shall constitute a quorum at an annual meeting of the Board, and nine at a called meeting.

¶ 281. ART. XIII. There shall be an Executive Committee of the Board, consisting of nine members, three of whom shall be women, which shall meet quarterly and hear reports from the fields, consider and decide all questions that may arise from time to time, excepting such questions as they may deem necessary to refer to the Board. This committee shall keep a record of all its proceedings, to be reviewed by the Board.

¶ 282. ART. XIV. The Board shall employ only effective missionaries for its work, and shall require each one to make a quarterly report to the Secretaries concerning the state and prospects of the work in charge.

¶ 283. ART. XV. The revenue of the Board shall be derived from apportionments to be distributed to the several Annual Conferences for collection in every congregation; from the Woman's Missionary Societies, provided that the funds raised by the Woman's Missionary Societies shall be appropriated to the work established by them, or hereafter to be inaugurated under these provisions; from the Sunday School and Epworth League; and from such other plans as may be adopted by the Board or congregations; from special collections by the Secretaries and the Bishops, and from donations, annuities, and legacies.

¶ 284. ART. XVI. The Treasurer shall hold the funds in safe deposit in the name of the Board of Missions, subject to the drafts of one of the Secretaries designated by the Board, payable when countersigned by the Treasurer. He shall also furnish an annual report, to be published with that of the Secretaries, and perform such other duties as the Board shall direct. The salary of the Treasurer and of the Assistant Treasurer shall be fixed by the Board, and each shall give bond to the Board in such sum and upon such conditions as the Board may fix. The accounts of the Board shall be examined at least annually by an expert accountant, and a report of the same made to the Board.

¶ 285. ART. XVII. The Department of Home Missions shall, through a Committee on Evangelism appointed by the Board, promote and supervise the evangelistic work of the Church. It shall promote revivals throughout the Church; inspire and train the ministry for earnest pastoral and personal evangelism; develop the evangelistic spirit and method among Church members; coöperate with Presiding Elders, pastors, City Boards, and the Conference Committee on Evangelism in evangelistic campaigns when needed; assist in prosecuting evangelistic work in universities, colleges, and secondary schools; make available trained and competent accredited evangelists. The Board may authorize the Committee on Evangelism to conduct a Bureau of Evangelism, and it may also appoint and maintain a Superintendent of Evangelism to labor under the direction of the Committee on Evangelism and the Secretary of the Department of Home Missions. The Annual Conference Board of Missions shall nominate for election by the Conference a Committee on Evangelism (a majority of whom shall be members of that Board), which shall be auxiliary to the General Committee on Evangelism, and shall promote revival work throughout the Conference.

¶ 286. The General Committee and the Conference Committee shall be authorized to indorse, recommend, and employ evangelists and direct their labors, whether they are itinerant or local preachers, in accordance with the policies of their respective Boards and in harmony with the Presiding Elder and preachers in charge in the fields in which the evangelists are to labor. All preachers, local or itinerant, who engage in evangelistic work as a calling shall be required to secure annually the approval of the General Committee on Evangelism or of the Committee on Evangelism of the Conference within whose territory they reside. Upon the recommendation of the General Committee the Bishop in charge may appoint members of an Annual Conference general evangelists; and upon recommendation of the Conference Committee on Evangelism and the request of the Conference Board, he may appoint members of an Annual Conference to the office of Conference evangelist. Local preachers who are not appointed by the General Committee as general evangelists, nor by a Conference Committee as Conference evangelists, may be listed as approved evangelists after being indorsed by some Committee on Evangelism. Conference evangelists are men appointed principally for evangelistic services within their Conference territory, and shall be required to labor some defined part of each year in the pastoral charges of their Conferences: and they may not accept invitations to assist in revivals outside their Conference territory unless the privilege is granted by their Conference Board of Missions upon the recommendation of their Conference Committee on Evangelism. Members of an Annual Conference may not be given appointments which are nominal in order that they may do the work of evangelists independent of the Committee on Evangelism and the Board of Missions, and they may not be given the appointment of Conference evangelists when it is known to be virtually nominal. General evangelists, approved evangelists, and Conference evangelists shall make reports of their work, the results of their labors, and their financial receipts to their respective committees as often as they may be required. Pastors who require the assistance of evangelists in their revival work shall, as far as possible, use the evangelists who are indorsed by the General or Conference Committees on Evangelism.

¶ 287. ART. XVIII. Each Annual Conference shall organize a Board of Missions, auxiliary to the General Board, to which it shall report annually. It shall consist of one layman from each District, and an equal number of clerical members, provided each Annual Conference shall be entitled to at least eight members, who shall be elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference at the first session after the General Conference, together with the Conference Lay Leader, who shall be a member, ex officio, of the Annual Conference Board of Missions. Said Board shall in all its actions be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference, except in the election of its officers and in the appropriations it may make to the missions which, with the consent of the President of the Conference, it shall establish. This provision shall not be construed so as to interfere with the acts and work of the Board in the intervals of the Annual Conference sessions.

¶ 288. ART. XIX. The Conference Board shall hold an anniversary at each session of the Conference, and shall prepare a program and secure speakers long enough before the session for thorough preparation, and by promoting practical plans for the missionary education of the Church, and by such other means as it may choose, shall disseminate missionary intelligence among the people, providing for this and other necessary expenses. It shall publish a full report, and it shall estimate annually the amount that may be necessary for the support of Conference missions, and report the same to the Conference Commission on Finance for their consideration and direction in fixing the percentages of the various Conference interests. It shall hold a mid-year meeting whenever practicable and provide for the expense of the same.

¶ 289. ART. XX. Each Annual Conference Board of Missions shall nominate for appointment by the President of the Conference a Secretary, who shall be, ex officio, a member of the Conference Board, to travel in the interest of its own missions and the work of the Board of Missions. The Secretary, thus appointed, shall perform these services in addition to his regular pastoral work, unless his support is provided for by the Conference Board. Annual Conference Boards of Missions shall instruct their Conference Missionary Secretaries to add the circulation of evangelistic as well as missionary literature to their other duties and to co-operate with the Secretaries of the Board of Missions in their work.

¶ 290. ART. XXI. There shall be held annually a meeting of the Conference Missionary Secretaries (if any Secretary be unable to attend, the Conference Board of Missions may send a representative). The Secretary of the General Board shall fix the date and place of this meeting; choose suitable topics and speakers; arrange for the program, and be responsible for other details. The necessary expenses of each Secretary or representative in attending this Conference shall be met by his Board.

¶ 291. ART. XXII. The Annual Conference Board of Missions may employ suitable persons to conduct missionary work under the direction of the Board, subject to the approval of the Annual Conference and the appointment of the Bishop; may provide for their support out of the funds under control of the Board, and may authorize said persons to hold evangelistic services, to make missionary addresses, and to take collections for the support of the work of the Board at places designated by the Board. In case the Board should desire to employ a traveling preacher for such work, it shall nominate him for the same at the Annual Conference, and, should the Conference so request, the President of the Conference may appoint him to said work.

¶ 292. ART. XXIII. Any Annual Conference, District, Church, Sunday School, Epworth League, or person, may assume, in whole or in part, the support of a missionary, or mission or mission school, approved or established by the Board of Missions. Their contributions shall be applied to the support of such object, provided the funds be sent through the Treasurer of the Board. The Conference in whose territory such moneys may be given shall have credit for the same in settling the apportionment of the Board of Missions, provided the object is covered by appropriation.

¶ 293. ART. XXIV. The Treasurer of the Conference Board of Missions shall give bond in such sums as the Board may require, said bond to be approved by the executive officers of the Board. He shall transmit to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, on the first day of each month, all amounts contributed by Sunday schools, a separate account of which shall be kept. His accounts shall be audited annually by a committee appointed by the Annual Conference Board. The Annual Conference Treasurers of the Woman's Missionary Societies shall transmit quarterly to the Assistant Treasurer of the Board of Missions all the moneys they may have on hand for the general missionary fund.

¶ 294. ART. XXV. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elder to preach on the subject of missions annually in each charge in the District; to see that efficient and well-defined plans be adopted for the missionary education of the Church and for raising missionary funds; to conduct with his preachers a missionary institute early in the Conference year; to urge, in his institutes, in his visitation to the Sunday schools, and especially under the missionary question in the Quarterly Conference, that every Sunday school on his District be organized for missions by appointing a missionary committee and observing Missionary Day; to see that they hold missionary mass meetings, and to encourage the organization and foster the work of Woman's Missionary Societies.

¶ 295. ART. XXVI. It shall be the duty of the preacher in charge to preach frequently on the subject of missions, to organize a missionary committee, and to hold missionary mass meetings annually in every church in his charge; to see that a canvass is made of every member early in the Conference year for a missionary contribution; to see that a missionary committee is appointed in each Sunday school, that one Sunday in the month is observed as Missionary Day, and that the entire missionary offering of the Sunday school goes to the General Board of Missions, and that this offering shall be designated, forwarded, and reported, as expressly directed in ¶ 320 of the Discipline; to see that each League holds a monthly meeting and studies the subject of missions; to circulate missionary literature, and to seek in every way the education and inspiration of his people concerning the evangelization of the world; and to see that Woman's Missionary Societies are organized in every church where at all practicable. (See ¶ 388.)

odist Episcopal Church, South, are hereby authorized to organize and conduct missionary societies among women and children in the Annual Conferences and in the churches, in the interest of home and foreign missions. These societies shall promote missionary intelligence and activity and secure missionary funds by means of membership dues, life and honorary membership fees, from devises, annuities, bequests, voluntary offerings, and collections at meetings appointed in behalf of the society.

¶ 297. ART. XXVIII. There shall be a delegated body to be known as the Woman's Missionary Council. It shall be composed of a President, one or more Vice Presidents, two or more Secretaries, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of Bureaus, a Corresponding Secretary or alternate, the President or alternate of the Woman's Missionary Society of each Annual Conference Society, and the President and Secretary of the Deaconess Workers' Conference. The Secretaries of the Board of Missions, both men and women, the Assistant Treasurer, and the women who are members of the Board of Missions, shall be, ex officio, members of the Woman's Missionary Council.

¶ 297-A. The Council shall hold annual meetings to hear reports from the fields, home and foreign, and from the societies; to consider the fields, lines of work, the various enterprises and the amount needed for the same, and make recommendations to the Board of Missions through the Committee on Estimates to be considered with other estimates of the Board for final determination, and to consecrate the women who have been accepted for service. It shall make recommendation to the Board of Missions for employment and support of deaconesses.

¶ 297-B. The Council shall enact its own by-laws and provide a constitution and by-laws for the Conference and auxiliary societies, all of which shall be in harmony with the Constitution of the Board of Missions. The Council shall plan to enlarge the membership of the societies, to increase the income from them, and to further the work of missionary education among women and children.

¶ 297-C. At its annual session preceding the General Conference, the Council shall elect its officers by ballot, without nomination, and in the same way shall be authorized to choose the women who are to be nominated as officers and members of the Board of Missions, as provided for in Article II. All property hereafter acquired by the Woman's Missionary Societies through devises, bequests, annuities, gifts, or purchase, shall be held by the Board of Missions for the use and benefit of the Woman's Work.

¶ 298. ART. XXIX. The Laymen's Missionary Movement is recognized as a providential movement among Christian men, and is welcomed as a pledge of a closer alignment of the men of the Church with the great awakening of the Church of God to-day. The laymen of the Church are authorized to coöperate with their pastors in a more aggressive evangelism, to develop missionary interest and intelligence, and to promote lay activity and liberality in coöperation with the regularly constituted Boards of the Church.

CHAPTER VIII.

¶ 304. Any vacancies in the Board occurring during the interval between General Conferences shall be filled by the Board, the member or members so elected to serve until the close of the next General Conference; except that a vacancy in the Presidency of the Board shall be filled by the College of Bishops, and a vacancy in the Sunday School Editorship shall be filled by the Book Committee with the concurrence of the College of Bishops.

¶ 305. The General Conference shall elect quadrennially a Sunday School Editor and General Secretary, whose duty it shall be to recommend to the Sunday School Board and the Book Committee such books and periodicals as the Sunday school work of the Church may require, to edit all Sunday school books and periodicals issued by our Publishing House, to have general oversight of the Sunday school work of the Church, and to report to the General Conference and to the General Sunday School Board as to its condition and needs. The Book Committee shall pay his salary and furnish him with all necessary editorial and clerical assistance.

¶ 306. The Board shall elect a Corresponding Secretary, who, in addition to his duties as Corresponding Secretary of the Board, shall, under such rules as the Board may adopt, supervise and direct the work of all Field Secretaries employed by the Board. The Corresponding Secretary shall be furnished such assistance as the work may require, and the expense of his office shall be met in the same way as is that of the office of the Sunday School Editor and General Secretary.

¶ 307. In order to prepare our Sunday school officers and teachers for more effective work, and also that our pastors may have the benefit of special courses in religious pedagogy and Sunday school methods, the Board shall maintain a De-

Conference, and State Wesley Bible Class Federations.

¶ 310. The Board shall create a Department of Elementary Work, a Department of Senior-Intermediate Work, and a Department of Adult and Young People's Work, and shall elect a Superintendent of the Elementary Department, a Superintendent of the Senior-Intermediate Department, and a Superintendent of the Adult and Young People's Department, whose duties it shall be, under such rules as the Board may adopt, to supervise and direct their respective departments of work throughout the Church. The salaries of these Superintendents shall be fixed by the Board, and they shall be furnished such assistance as their work may require. The expense of each of these offices shall be met in the same way as is that of the Sunday School Editor and General Secretary: provided, (1) that this arrangement shall not become effective except upon the joint agreement of the Book Committee and the General Sunday School Board, and (2) that in case the funds provided for in ¶ 314 shall prove sufficient for the work of the General Sunday School Board, the support of one or more of these offices shall be assumed by the Board.

SECTION II.

THE CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

¶ 312. The Board shall have power, under the provisions of this Chapter, to determine the scope of its operations, and shall annually estimate the amount that may be required for the support of the work under its charge and report the same to the Commission on Finance.

¶ 313. Each Annual Conference shall organize a Conference Sunday School Board, composed of one layman from each District and an equal number of traveling preachers, to be selected regardless of District lines. Its officers shall be a Chairman, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall together constitute the Executive Committee of the Board. The Chairman shall furnish to the General Sunday School Board annually a complete list of the Sunday school superintendents of his Conference, with their post-office addresses and the names of the charges and Sunday schools with which they are connected. To this end the Board shall distribute such literature as it may deem necessary; conduct, with the counsel and coöperation of the Presiding Elder, Sunday School Conferences and Institutes in each District; and wherever possible provide for the holding of a Sunday School Institute and Anniversary during the session of the Conference. The Board shall make an annual report to the Conference.

¶ 315. The Conference Sunday School Board is authorized to employ a Conference Field Secretary or such other worker as may be deemed necessary, and to provide for his salary and traveling expenses either through the Sunday schools or by such other means as the Conference may devise. The Field Secretary or other worker shall be under the direction of the Board, and shall make monthly reports to the Chairman of the Board and quarterly reports to the General Sunday School Board. In case collections are taken by him, they shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Conference Board.

SECTION III.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

¶ 316. A Sunday school shall be organized in every congregation where ten persons can be collected for that purpose, and mission Sunday schools shall be organized wherever practicable.

¶ 317. Let all Sunday schools connected with our congregations be under the control of our own Church and use our own literature.

¶ 318. The Quarterly Conference of each circuit and station shall be a Board of Managers, having charge of all Sunday schools within its bounds. It shall elect at its fourth session each year, on nomination of the preacher in charge, a superintendent of each Sunday school under its care, and, on nomination of the superintendent, all necessary assistant superintendents: provided, that when a vacancy occurs in the superintendency of any school during the interim of the Quarterly Conference, the preacher in charge shall appoint a superintendent to serve until its next session: and provided, that the preacher in charge shall appoint a superintendent for any new school that may be organized between the meetings of the Quarterly Conference. (b) Let the General Sunday School Board and the Board of Missions prepare for use in the Sunday school such suggestive policies and literature as they may agree upon and as may be necessary for the missionary and social program of the Sunday school.

(c) Let one Sunday in each month, preferably the fourth, be observed as Missionary and Service Day, and let the collection taken on this day, as the Workers' Council may elect in advance, be a special for missions or for other of the general or Conference benevolences.

¶ 321. Let every Sunday school observe with appropriate services the last Sunday in April, or as near thereto as practicable, as Sunday School Day, and take an offering for Sunday school work, the same to be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Conference Sunday School Board. Fifty per cent of this offering shall be retained by the Conference Sunday School Board, to be used in its work. The remaining fifty per cent shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the General Sunday School Board: provided, that when an Annual-Conference employs a Field Secretary, seventy-five per cent of the offering shall be retained by the Annual Conference Board during the period of his service.

The Epworth Leagues of an Annual Conference may be organized into a Conference Epworth League, the membership of which shall be composed of all the recognized young people's societies within the bounds of the Annual Conference. Where desired, the several Conferences within a State may combine in one Epworth League Conference. The objects of these larger organizations shall be to hold instructional and inspirational meetings annually, to press the formation of Epworth Leagues within the bounds of the Conference, to undertake large missionary operations, and in general to direct the policy of the Leagues within their territory. The President and Secretary of the Conference Epworth League Board shall be, ex officio, members of the Conference Epworth League Cabinet.

¶ 400. For the training of leaders and the more intensive study of methods of Christian work and missions, groups of Conferences may organize Assemblies for the holding of summer sessions longer than the sessions of the Epworth League Conferences. These Assemblies may be self-governing; but they are advised to admit to membership in their Cabinets the Presidents and Secretaries of the Conference Boards in the territory in which they operate. The Assembly at Lake Junaluska shall be under the direct control of the Central Office, and shall be known as "The Southern Epworth League Assembly."

¶ 401. ART. XIV. Any League Conference or Conferences may secure property or grounds and improve the same as a permanent place of meeting for religious, intellectual, and social culture. Such trustees shall be elected by the League Conferences and confirmed by the Annual Conferences within whose bounds such League Conferences are situated. All vacancies in the Board of Trustees shall be filled by the Annual Conferences on nomination of the Board. The Board of Trustees shall also constitute a Board of Control, with power to make rules and regulations and raise funds for the use and maintenance of the property, subject to the approval of the League Conferences and a majority of the patronizing Annual Conferences; and, at least once a year, shall report their acts to all the patronizing Conferences concerned.

¶ 402. ART. XV. Each Annual Conference shall elect quadrennially an Epworth League Board com-

¶ 403. The Conference Board shall be organized by the election of a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall hold office for four years. The Board shall have authority to make nominations to the Conference to fill vacancies. It shall meet annually at the time and place of meeting of the Annual Conference. It shall act as a Committee on Epworth Leagues and other young people's societies, and shall in connection with the Conference Committee of Public Worship arrange for the holding of an anniversary in the interest of its work at each session of the Conference.

¶ 404. The Conference Boards shall be related to the Central Office in the following way: They shall promote the observance of Anniversary Day by appropriate service in every pastoral charge in which there is an Epworth League, and shall urge the making of an Anniversary Day Offering; in pastoral charges in which there are no Epworth Leagues, they shall endeavor to secure the recognition of Anniversary Day as Young People's Day, thereby leading up to the organization of Epworth Leagues. They shall diligently coöperate with the Central Office and the Conference Epworth League in the encouragement of Epworth League organization and activity within their several Annual Conferences.

¶ 405. The Conference Board shall be related to the Conference Epworth League in the following way, namely: (1) They shall make appropriations out of the Anniversary Day funds in their hands to aid in defraying the expense of carrying on the organization. (2) They shall constitute an Advisory Council to aid the Conference Epworth League, and in case there should be no Conference Epworth League organization, they are to bring about such organization and arrange for the holding of its first annual meeting. (3) The President and Secretary of the Conference Board shall be, ex officio, members of the Cabinet of the Conference Epworth League. (4) The President of the Conference Epworth League shall make a report annually to the Conference Epworth League Board of the policy and activities of the Conference organization.

¶ 406. Relations to other League organizations. The Board shall forward Epworth League work, especially by aiding in the formation of local societies, District Institutes, and City Unions. For this purpose the several members of the Board shall be especially appointed to care for the work in the several Districts of the Annual Conference, and shall report their work at the annual meetings of the Board. They shall by pen and voice advocate the young people's work, and shall assist the Presiding Elders in the District Conference function of inquiring into the number and general condition of Epworth Leagues.

In case they choose to employ a traveling preacher, they shall nominate him subject to appointment by the Bishop on recommendation by the Annual Conference: provided, however, that during the interim between two sessions of an Annual Conference the Bishop may make such appointment on recommendation of the Book Committee.

¶ 413. Ans. 2. In cases of drunkenness let the Discipline be administered as in case of immorality; drunkenness being a crime expressly forbidden in the word of God. In cases of drinking, except in cases of necessity, let the Discipline be administered as for imprudent or improper conduct.

¶ 414. Ans. 3. Let all our preachers and members abstain from the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage, from signing petitions for such sale, from becoming bondsmen for any person as a condition for obtaining a license, from acting as a dispenser or voluntarily accepting an appointment or election as such under the laws of any State in which there is a dispensary law authorizing the sale of intoxicating ¶ 415. Ans. 4. Each Annual Conference shall organize a Quadrennial Board on Temperance and Social Service, composed of one layman from each District and an equal number of traveling preachers.

SECTION II.

COMMISSION ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE.

¶ 416. There shall be established a Commission of seven, to be known as the "Commission on Temperance and Social Service of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South," to be composed of seven members, one Bishop, three traveling preachers, and three laymen, to be nominated by the Committee on Temperance and Social Service and elected by the General Conference.

¶ 417. It shall be the function of this Commission to consider the demands of Temperance and Social Service upon our Church and our people, to formulate plans for the correlation of the various agencies of the Church in any way charged with these interests, and to plan for the more thorough instruction of our people and the direction and development of their activities.

¶ 418. The Commission shall assemble within ninety days after the adjournment of this General Conference, at the call of the Bishop who is a member or on call of three members of the Commission, and organize at its first session, and undertake such work as it may deem advisable and raise such funds by voluntary contribution as it may judge necessary: provided, that the traveling expenses of the members of this Commission shall be met in the way provided for the expenses of Commissions ordered by the General Conference.

¶ 419. The Commission shall meet at least annually. It shall have the power to fill any vacancies occurring by sickness, death, resignation, or removal.

¶ 421. This Commission is instructed to coöperate with the Annual Conference Boards of Temperance and Social Service, and to receive reports from them as to the work in the various Conferences.

CHAPTER XIV.

BOARD OF ASSESSMENTS.

¶ 422. The General Conference shall elect at each session, upon the nomination of the Committee on Finance, a Board to be known as the "Board of Assessments," composed of five Bishops, five preachers, and five laymen, who shall hold office for four years. They shall meet at the time and place of the General Conference, and at such other times as the Board itself may determine, annually, and all such expenses shall be apportioned among the various Boards according to their relative assessments. After inquiry into the needs of the various agencies having claims upon the Church, they shall recommend to the General Conference for its action a yearly sum for each Board which shall be apportioned among the various Annual Conferences upon the basis laid down in the Discipline in ¶ 424. The amount and the apportionment may be changed from year to year, in exact accordance with the changes in the Church in membership and ministerial support: provided, that in case of emergency, the College of Bishops recommending and the Board of Assessments agreeing, the assessments may be changed among the various Boards, or the assessments upon the whole Church changed.

¶ 423. Each Annual Conference shall elect at its session next following the General Conference a Board of Assessments, to be composed of five presiding elders, five clerical and five lay members, who shall hold office for four years. They shall consider the claims of all the Boards of that body, and shall recommend to the Annual Conference for its action at each session a sum for each Board, which shall be apportioned among the Districts by such methods as the Annual Conference may direct.

CHAPTER XV.

BOARD OF APPORTIONMENT.

¶ 424. The Secretary of the College of Bishops, or, in his absence, a Bishop, the Secretary of the Board of Missions, the Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, the Secretary of the Board of Education, and the Book Editor, shall together constitute the Board of Apportionment. The Bishop shall be the Chairman and the Book Editor shall be the Secretary of the Board. It shall be the duty of the Board to meet at Nashville in the month of June following each session of the General Conference, and proceed to fix a ratio for the apportionment among the several Annual Conferences of the general connectional assessments. Such ratios shall be expressed in decimals of four figures, and shall be determined in the following manner, to wit: An apportionment shall be made according to the number of members in the several Annual Conferences, and another according to the amounts contributed therein during the preceding quadrennium for the support of Presiding Elders and preachers in charge, not counting missionary collections or appropriations. The average of the two fractions thus obtained for any Annual Conference shall constitute the fractional part of each of the several assessments upon the Church at large to be apportioned to such Conference. The Board shall take into consideration any changes that may have taken place in Conference boundaries, and adjust the ratios according to statistical returns from the territory affected by such changes. The ratios so determined shall continue in force until the next quadrennial meeting of the Board: provided, that for sufficient reasons, of which they shall be the judges, the Board of Missions, the Board of Church Extension, and the Board of Education shall each have the power to reduce the amount apportioned for its benefit to any Annual Conference; but the amount thus taken off any such Annual Conference shall not be added to the apportionment of any other Conference or Conferences.

CHAPTER XVI.

BOARD OF FINANCE.

¶ 425. The support of the Conference claimants of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, formerly administered by the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Joint Boards of Finance of the several Annual Conferences, shall hereafter be conducted under the following provisions and regulations:

¶ 426. ARTICLE I. There shall be a Board of Finance, consisting of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and fifteen Managers, composed of three Bishops, six traveling preachers, and six laymen, to be elected quadrennially by the General Conference on nomination of the Committee on Finance, excepting the Secretary, who shall be elected by ballot as are the other connectional officers; and to continue in office until their successors are elected and accept. The Board shall fill all vacancies that may occur during the intervals of the General Conference. It shall be the duty of the Board to require good and sufficient bond of all officers responsible for its funds.

¶ 427. ART. II. Said Board shall be incorporated and organized under the name and style of "The Board of Finance of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South," under the laws of the State of Missouri, with its principal office at St. Louis, and be subject to such amendments to its charter as may from time to time be adopted under the sanction of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; subject, however, to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the General Conference not contrary to said charter nor in excess of the powers that may be thereunder lawfully exercised, and to be subject to the rules and regulations, usages and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, now existing or hereafter to be created.

¶ 428. ART. III. The Secretary shall be the executive officer of the Board, conducting its correspondence under its direction, and shall be subject to the authority and control of the Board, by whom his salary shall be fixed and paid. He may be a member of any Annual Conference, but shall reside where the Board is located.

¶ 429. ART. IV. The Board shall be located in the city of St. Louis, Missouri, and shall meet annually, and at such other times as the Board or the President and Secretary may appoint. Eleven shall constitute a quorum. The fiscal year of the Board shall close on March 31.

¶ 430. ART. V. The Board shall have authority to regulate its own proceedings; to determine what amount the Church shall be asked to raise by collection for the use of the Board during the ensuing year; to appropriate money to pay incidental expenses; to determine the amount to distribute to the several claimants on this Fund, as may hereinafter be provided; and to do such other business as may be legitimate and proper for it to do: provided, however, that no money shall be appropriated for other purposes than the support of Conference claimants.

¶ 431. ART. VI. The Board shall have authority to raise, receive from the Publishing Agents, the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and other proper sources, and invest funds, on adequate security to be determined by the Board, the interest from which shall be paid annually to the Conference claimants of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as hereinafter provided; to receive and hold in trust, in the interest of said Conference claimants of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, real or personal property, and to sell and convey the same for the uses herein declared. Said corporation is further authorized to receive from any Annual Conference or Annual Conference Board of Finance or Board of Trustees for Superannuated Preachers, or from any other person, body, or organization of the Church, any funds in its hands belonging to or constituting Superannuate Endowment Funds, as above specified, and to hold, invest, administer, and disburse the same upon the same terms and trust as were applicable to them in the hands of the person, Conference, or body originally holding them. These provisions shall apply to all Superannuate Endowment Funds now in the hands of said Board of Trustees or other bodies hereinabove specified, or which shall hereafter come into their hands.

¶ 432. ART. VII. It shall be lawful for said Board to accept contributions to its funds from any person or persons capable of making the same, subject to annuities, payable to the order of the person or persons making such donations; but all amounts so received shall be loaned on adequate security or securities, and the aggregate amount of the annuities that the Board shall assume to pay shall never be allowed to exceed one-half of the interest receivable by said Board.

¶ 432-A. To further provide for the enlargement of this Fund, an assessment shall be made on all Annual Conferences of a sum not less than one per cent of the amount paid for ministerial support. Collections on this assessment shall be reported to the Annual Conference by the preacher in charge, and paid to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Finance, who shall forward the same to the Treasurer of the Board of Finance, St. Louis, Missouri.

¶ 433. ART. VIII. This Board shall have authority to establish coöperative, participating, annuity, or other plans, for the use of the traveling preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, looking to better provision for their old age and for their families: provided, that it shall not place in jeopardy the permanent or endowment funds of the Board.

¶ 434. ART. IX. Funds available for appropriation annually by this Board shall be distributed to the claimants of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as follows:

(1) To the superannuated preachers of said Church, on the basis of years of service.

(2) To the widows of deceased preachers, on the basis of the number of years that they have been the wives of effective traveling preachers; and the amount shall be two-thirds of that paid to the superannuated preachers for a like number of effective years of service.

¶ 435. ART. X. This Board shall be authorized to receive from and invest for Conference Boards of Finance funds and properties, and pay the income from the same to the said Conference Boards of Finance in the interest of its claimants.

¶ 436. ART. XI. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of each Annual Conference to certify to the Secretary of this Board the names and years of active service of the Conference claimants of the Annual Conference.

¶ 437. ART. XII. Each Annual Conference shall organize a Conference Board of Finance, composed of one layman from each District, and an equal number of clerical members, which shall be auxiliary to the Board of Finance and shall have charge of all the interests and work of providing for the Conference claimants. Said Conference Board of Finance shall estimate the amount that will probably be necessary to meet the claims of the superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphaned children of deceased members of the Conference; apportion the same, together with the assessment of the Board of Finance, to the several Presiding Elders' Districts for the ensuing year, as are other funds assessed upon the Annual Conference; the receipts from the total assessment to be divided between the Board of Finance and the Conference Board of Finance, according to the ratio of the assessment of each of these Boards.

¶ 438. ART. XIII. It shall be the duty of the Conference Board of Finance to distribute the moneys received on assessment and otherwise to the superannuated preachers, and widows and orphans of the deceased members of the Conference, according to their several necessities: provided, however, that in case of equal necessity the Board may take into account the time of active service rendered by the claimants; and provided, further, that when a preacher breaks down in the work, and is placed on the superannuate list, his claim shall begin with the time at which he ceased to receive any support from his last charge.

¶ 439. ART. XIV. The members of the Conference Board of Finance shall collect such authentic information in regard to the financial circumstances of the claimants on the Board as shall facilitate the business of the Board at its annual meeting.

¶ 440. ART. XV. The Conference Board shall make a report to the Annual Conference, which shall have power to approve, recommit, or amend the report.

¶ 441. ART. XVI. It shall be the duty of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Conference Board of Finance to make full report of business transacted to the General Board of Finance, immediately following the session of the Annual Conference; and the Treasurer shall remit to the General Board of Finance the proportionate amount due from collections on assessment, as provided in Article XII.

CHAPTER XVII.

¶ 446. ART. IV. The Commission on Finance shall determine what percentage of the total sum assessed and of the receipts therefrom shall be allotted to each of the interests included in the assessments: provided, that any pastoral charge which has paid its assessment in full shall have the privilege of directing any surplus paid by it to any of the benevolences it may choose. All amounts collected on the total assessment shall be sent to the Conference Treasurer, who shall distribute the same monthly, according to the allotment made by the Commission on Finance, to the Treasurers of the various Boards and for the various causes. This amount shall be apportioned to the several Districts according to such plan as the Conference may adopt, or as the Commission may adopt in case the Conference fails to act. The District Stewards shall distribute the amounts asked of their several Districts to the pastoral charges.

¶ 449. ART. VII. ¶ 464. They shall publish only the books and tracts of whose publication the Book Editor shall approve, and any difference of opinion as to publication between the Publishing Agents and Book Editor shall be settled by the Book Committee. They shall supply, as far as practicable, the demands of the Church for books, tracts, and periodicals, availing themselves of all the facilities of other establishments for their publication at the cheapest rates; and in all their investments for the manufacture of books they shall be governed strictly by the principles of economy. They shall, with the consent of the Book Committee, and in coöperation with the Board of Missions, translate and publish the books contained in the course of study for our preachers in any of our foreign mission fields, and the books, tracts, and periodicals necessary for the dissemination of religious knowledge in those countries.

¶ 465. They shall sell the books for cash or its equivalent.

¶ 466. They shall make no investments in grounds, houses, or permanent fixtures, without the consent of the Book Committee.

III. DUTIES OF THE BOOK COMMITTEE.

¶ 467. The Book Committee shall be composed of thirteen members of our Church, six clerical and seven lay, five only of which committee shall be residents of Nashville; the remaining eight to be taken from the Church at large, provided that no one of them shall reside within the bounds of the Tennessee Conference. They shall have power:

¶ 468. (1) To prescribe regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter, for the government of the Publishing Agents; and in all such regulations, as well as in their entire management, both the Book Committee and Publishing Agents shall keep in view the object for which the Publishing House is established, and shall strive to accomplish this object in the most efficient and economical manner.

¶ 469. (2) To require said Publishing Agents to report to them at least once a month the state of the current business of the House during that period.

¶ 470. (3) To settle with the existing and any former Publishing Agents according to the principles which govern the relations of principal and agent, including the individual transactions of said Publishing Agents with the Publishing House, provided the settlement with said Publishing Agents shall be made at least once a year, and the result of said settlements reported to the several Annual Conferences, and also to the General Conference.

¶ 471. (4) To suspend the Publishing Agents in the intervals of the General Conference for misconduct or inefficiency in office.

¶ 472. (5) To provide a sinking fund of such interest-bearing securities, equal in amount to the bonds of the Publishing House not yet accounted for, with which to pay such bonds when presented.

¶ 473. The Book Committee shall fix the salaries of the following officers: The Publishing Agents, the Book Editor and Editor of the Review, the Editor of the Christian Advocate, the Editor of Sunday School Literature, the General Secretary and Editor of the Epworth League, the Assistant Secretary and Assistant Editor of the Epworth League Board. During the intervals of the General Conference, if there shall be complaints against any Editor elected by the General Conference, of misconduct or inefficiency in his office, the Book Committee, and one or more of the Bishops, shall proceed in the following manner: 1. They shall determine whether a trial be necessary; or if in their judgment a promise to correct the matters complained of will promote the interests of the Church, they may receive from the Editor complained of a written statement, signed by said Editor, promising amendment, which statement may, if necessary, be published. 2. If they judge a trial necessary, they shall at once suspend said Editor, and take charge of his work until the issue of said trial is determined; and the Bishop or Bishops who act with the Book Committee shall appoint a member or members of said Book Committee to formulate a bill of charges and specifications, and to prosecute the case, and shall, as speedily as practicable, call together not less than three nor more than five traveling elders, none of whom shall reside in Nashville or its vicinity, whose sole function it shall be to determine from the facts in the case the guilt or innocence of the Editor complained of. The Bishop or Bishops presiding shall decide all questions of law growing out of the case, and shall appoint a secretary who shall make a full record of all the proceedings connected with the trial, which record shall be signed by said secretary, and also by the Bishop or Bishops presiding. The record of the trial shall be placed in the custody of the Book Committee. The Editor complained of shall have ten days' notice of the time of trial, and be furnished with a copy of the complaint. He shall have the right to challenge any member of the trial committee for cause, and the validity of the cause shall be determined by the Bishop or Bishops presiding. If the complaint be sustained by a majority of the trial committee, the Bishop or Bishops presiding shall declare the office of the said Editor vacant.

¶ 474. (7) If any Editor or officer mentioned in this chapter be under report of immorality, or accused thereof in writing signed by a minister or member of our Church, there shall be a speedy investigation, according to Chapter XXI. If the committee of investigation judge a trial necessary, the Book Committee shall immediately suspend the accused from office, and take charge of his work until the issue of the trial is determined; and if the accused be found guilty, the Book Committee shall declare the office vacant.

¶ 475. (8) The Book Committee, with the concurrence of a majority of the Bishops, shall have authority to fill vacancies occurring during the intervals of the General Conference in any of the offices mentioned in this chapter.

¶ 476. (9) The said Book Committee shall at all times have free access to the books, accounts, and papers of said House for purposes of examination, and shall keep a faithful record of their proceedings, and make a full quadrennial report thereof to the General Conference.

¶ 477. (10) The Book Committee shall hold an annual meeting, and the members of said committee who reside in Nashville shall meet at least once a month. A majority of the members of said committee who reside in Nashville shall have authority to call a meeting of the full committee at such time and place as may be necessary. No business shall be transacted at the annual or a called meeting of the full committee unless a majority be present, nor shall any business be transacted at other meetings unless a majority of the members who reside in Nashville be present.

¶ 478. (11) The Book Committee and Publishing Agents shall have authority to extend the business of the Publishing House as they may judge to be for the best interests of the Church; but neither the Publishing Agents nor the Book Committee shall have authority to involve the Publishing House in debt.

IV. GENERAL CONFERENCE EDITORS AND THEIR WORK.

¶ 479. The General Conference shall elect an Editor of the Christian Advocate, a weekly journal, which shall be published by the Publishing Agents.

¶ 480. The General Conference shall elect a Book Editor and Editor of the Review, who shall edit The Methodist Quarterly Review, and all the books of our publication, except the Sunday school books.

¶ 481. The Editor of Sunday School Literature shall edit The Sunday School Magazine, the Lesson Papers, The Visitor, Our Little People, and such other Sunday school publications as the Book Committee and Publishing Agents, on the recommendation of the Sunday School Board, shall judge to be necessary, all of which literature shall be published by the Publishing Agents.

¶ 482. The General Secretary and Editor of the Epworth League shall edit all the periodicals of the Epworth League, all of which periodicals shall be published by the Publishing Agents. No literature of any of the Boards shall be published if, in the judgment of the Book Committee and the Publishing Agents, the cost be greater than the Publishing House can reasonably bear.

¶ 483. The Book Committee and Publishing Agents shall have authority by concurrent action, during the intervals of the General Conference, to furnish necessary assistance to the Editor of the Christian Advocate, to the Book Editor and Editor of the Review, and to the Editor of the Epworth Era.

V. PROCEEDS OF THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

¶ 484. The proceeds of the Publishing House shall be appropriated to no other purpose than its own legitimate business.

VI. CONFERENCE RELATIONS OF THE AGENTS AND EDITORS.

¶ 485. Each of the officers named in this chapter, if he be a traveling preacher, shall, with the approval of the Bishops, be a member of such Annual Conference as he may elect.

CHAPTER XX.

CHURCHES AND CHURCH PROPERTY.

SECTION I.

OF BUILDING CHURCHES.

Question. What shall be done in regard to building churches, and for the security of our preaching houses, parsonages, and other Church property, and the premises belonging thereto?

¶ 486. Ans. 1. Let all churches be plain and decent, and with free seats, as far as practicable.

¶ 487. Ans. 2. In order more effectually to prevent our people from contracting debts which they are not able to discharge, it shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conference of every circuit and station, where it is contemplated to build a house or houses of worship, to secure the ground or lot on which such house or houses are to be built, according to our deed of setlement, which deed must be legally executed; and also said Quarterly Conference shall appoint a judicious committee of at least three members of our Church, who shall form an estimate of the amount necessary to build; and three-fourths of the money, according to such estimate, shall be secured before any such building shall be commenced: provided, however, that no house of worship shall be built unless the authority of the Quarterly Conference shall first have been obtained; and provided, further, that no business involving the purchase, sale, creating liens on, or otherwise disposing of Church property, shall be transacted unless at least ten days' notice of the meeting of the Quarterly Conference shall have been given, and that five members of the Quarterly Conference shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such business.

¶ 488. Ans. 3. In all cases where debts for building houses of worship have been or may be incurred contrary to or in disregard of the above recommendation, our members and friends are requested to discountenance, by declining pecuniary aid to all agents who shall travel abroad beyond their own circuits or Districts, for the collection of funds for the discharge of such debts, except in such peculiar cases as may be approved by an Annual Conference.

¶ 489. Ans. 4. In future we will admit no charter, devise, deed, or conveyance, for any house of worship to be used by us, unless it contains the "Trust Clause," or be in conformity thereto. Each Annual Conference is authorized to make such modification in the deeds as it may find the different usages and customs of law require in the different States and Territories, so as to secure the property firmly by deed, and permanently in fee simple, to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; but in all conveyances of ground for the building of houses of worship, or upon which they may have been already built, let the "Trust Clause" be inserted at the proper place.

¶ 490. Ans. 5. The "Trust Clause" shall be as follows: "In trust, that said premises shall be used, kept, maintained, and disposed of, as a place of divine worship for the use of the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; subject to the discipline, usage, and ministerial appointments of said Church, as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Conference of said Church, and by the Annual Conference within whose bounds the said premises are situated."

SECTION II.

OF BUILDING PARSONAGES.

Question. What advice or direction is given concerning the building of dwelling houses for the use of married traveling preachers?

¶ 491. Ans. 1. It is recommended to our friends, in general, to purchase a lot of ground in each pastoral charge, and to build a preacher's house thereon, and to furnish it with at least heavy furniture, and to settle the same on trustees appointed by the Quarterly Conference, according to our deed of settlement.

¶ 492. Ans. 2. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders and preachers to use their influence to carry into effect the above rules respecting building houses for the accommodation of preachers and their families. In order to do this, each Quarterly Conference shall appoint a committee (unless other measures have been adopted), who, with the advice and aid of the preachers and Presiding Elder, shall devise such means as may seem fit to raise money for that purpose. And it is recommended to the Annual Conferences to make a special inquiry of their members respecting this part of their duty.

¶ 493. Ans. 3. Likewise, in all conveyances of ground for the building of dwelling houses for the use of the preachers, or upon which they may have been already built, let the following clause be inserted at the proper place: "In trust, that such premises shall be held, kept, maintained, and disposed of, as a place of residence for the use and occupancy of the preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who may from time to time be appointed in said place; subject to the usage and discipline of said Church, as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Conference of said Church, and by the Annual Conference within whose bounds the said premises are situated."

¶ 494. Ans. 4. In all States and Territories where the laws thereof will permit, let the society secure a charter of incorporation, and let all real estate and other property now owned, or hereafter to be acquired for church, parsonage, or other purposes, be deeded directly to the society in its corporate name. The secular affairs of such corporation shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Trustees, which shall be elected and organized according to the direction of the Discipline, with power in the corporation to acquire, hold, sell, and convey the property, both real and personal. In all such cases, and in States or Territories where church property is required to be held by trustees (and not permitted to be held by corporations), let all deeds or other conveyances, under which the Church acquires property for any purpose, contain the appropriate Trust Clause set out in ¶ 490 or ¶ 493, as the case may be; and the Board of Church Extension shall have forms of deeds suitable to each State or Territory prepared for free distribution.

SECTION III.

OF THE DIVISION, TRANSFER, OR SALE OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

¶ 495. When any circuit, station, or mission shall be divided into two or more charges, each separate charge may constitute a new board or boards of trustees: and the church property held by the trustees of the original charge shall be conveyed to the new boards thus created, and the former board or boards shall be freed from all pecuniary liabilities, such being transferred to the new boards respectively. And when any division is made of a circuit, station, or District, having parsonage property, in order to adjust the rights and equities of the subdivisions of any such charge in such parsonage property, the Quarterly Conferences of the respective subdivisions, or the District Conference (in case of the division of a District), shall each select an arbitrator, and these arbitrators an umpire, who together shall constitute a board of reference, to which shall be referred the question of adjusting the rights of the respective parties interested in such parsonage property; and the decision of the board of reference in any such case shall be acquiesced in and carried into effect by the parties concerned. And if any Quarterly or District Conference shall fail, after written notice, to appoint such arbitrator within one year after such division, this shall work a forfeiture of the claim of such Conference in the property.

¶ 496. The trustees, with the consent of the preacher in charge and the Quarterly Conference, or if a District parsonage, then of the Presiding Elder and the District Conference, shall have power to sell any church or parsonage property, which has gone out of use, or which should be removed to another place, the proceeds of which shall be invested in other church property under the direction of the Quarterly or District Conference.

SECTION IV.

OF CREATING LIENS UPON CHURCH PROPERTY.

¶ 497. No person, or persons, or board of trustees, shall have authority to make or create any mortgage, or other contract lien, upon church property: provided, nevertheless, that if the said trustees, or any of them, or their successors, have advanced, or shall advance, any sum or sums of money, or are, or shall be, responsible for any sum or sums of money on account of church property, and they, the said trustees, or their successors, be obliged to pay the said sum or sums of money, they, or a majority of them, shall be authorized to raise the said sum or sums of money by a mortgage on the said property, or by selling the said property, after notice given the preacher in charge, or the Presiding Elder of the District, if the money due be not paid to the said trustees, or their successors, within one year after such notice has been given; and if such sale take place, the said trustees, or their successors, after paying the debt and other expenses which are due, from the money arising from such sale, shall pay over the remainder of the money produced by the said sale to the steward or stewards of the circuit, station, or mission; which surplus of the produce of said sale shall be forwarded by the said steward or stewards to the Quarterly Conference within whose bounds it is situated, at its next session; which said Quarterly Conference shall dispose of the said money, by a vote of the majority, for the use of said circuit, station, or mission.

¶ 498. Provided, further, that the trustees of any house of worship or parsonage, or other property held for the benefit of the Church, a majority of them uniting therein, by the consent and authority of the Quarterly Conference, or of the District Conference, or two-thirds of the District Stewards, if it be a District parsonage, may borrow money from the Board of Church Extension or any person or corporation, and secure the repayment thereof by mortgage upon any property held in trust by said trustees, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the contracting parties.

¶ 499. Provided, further, that such trustees, when duly authorized, as provided in ¶ 498, shall also have power to create a lien upon such property conditioned for the repayment to said Board of Church Extension of any conditional donation made in aid of such house of worship or parsonage by said Board, in the event that such property shall ever thereafter be aliened from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, or cease to be used for, or be devoted to, other uses than the purposes authorized by the trust clauses in our deeds, as prescribed by the Discipline. In the event of a sale under any mortgage, provided for in this or the preceding paragraph, the surplus money arising therefrom shall be disposed of as provided in ¶ 497. Money received under the provisions of this or the preceding paragraph shall be used by the trustees for the exclusive purpose of purchasing, paying debts upon, or improving, church or parsonage property. Whenever any property upon which such conditional mortgages have been placed shall be sold by the trustees for the purpose of purchasing property elsewhere, to be used for like purposes, it shall be the duty of the officers of the Board of Church Extension to release said lien, provided equal security be given by mortgage on the new site.

CHAPTER XXI.

ADMINISTRATION OF DISCIPLINE.

SECTION I.

OF THE TRIAL OF A BISHOP.

Question 1. To whom is a Bishop amenable for his conduct?

¶ 500. Ans. To the General Conference, which has power to try him for improper conduct, and to acquit, to suspend, or to expel him.

Ques. 2. What provision is made for the trial of a Bishop, if he should be accused of immorality in the interval of the General Conference?

¶ 501. Ans. When a Bishop shall be under report, or be accused, of immorality, three traveling elders shall, after notice to him, carefully inquire into the case, and if they believe an investigation necessary, they shall report the matter to another Bishop; and it shall be his duty to call together at some convenient place not less than twelve traveling elders, and also the witnesses by whom the accusation is expected to be established; and the said elders shall be a committee for the investigation of the charge against the Bishop. If two-thirds of them believe a trial necessary, they shall suspend him till the next session of the General Conference. The presiding Bishop shall cause an exact record of the investigation, signed by the president and secretary, to be transmitted to the General Conference. By this record, and such other testimony as may be obtained, the case shall be considered and determined by the General Conference without the intervention of another committee.

Ques. 3. What provision is made for the trial of a Bishop if he should be accused during the session of the General Conference?

¶ 502. Ans. 1. An accusation preferred during the session of the General Conference shall be referred for investigation to a committee of twenty-five members of the General Conference, to be selected by the president in the chair, and the committee shall report to the General Conference whether or not a trial is necessary. If the committee of investigation decide that a trial is necessary, they shall formulate charges and specifications, conforming them to the grade of offense involved in the accusation, and shall appoint one or more of their number to prosecute the case. The bill of charges and specifications shall be a part of the report of the committee to the General Conference. Every case to be tried under this process shall, upon the finding of a bill of charges, be referred to the Committee on Episcopacy, who shall have full power to try the case, and whose decision shall be final, save as to the right of appeal. The said committee shall make a written report to the General Conference and deliver to the secretary the whole record of the case, with the decision rendered.

¶ 503. Ans. 2. A Bishop who shall be found guilty by the Committee on Episcopacy shall have a right to appeal to the General Conference then in session, which shall finally determine the case.

¶ 504. Ans. 3. No charge against a Bishop shall be tried unless it be made in writing with specifications signed by the accusers; and a copy of the charge, with the specifications, shall be delivered to the accused a sufficient length of time before the trial to enable him to make all necessary preparation for his defense.

SECTION II.

OF THE TRIAL OF A TRAVELING PREACHER.

Question 1. To whom is a traveling preacher amenable for his conduct?

¶ 505. Ans. To the Annual Conference, which shall have power to try, and to acquit, to suspend, or to expel him.

Ques. 2. What shall be done when a traveling preacher is accused of immorality?

¶ 506. Ans. 1. If a traveling preacher be under report of immorality, or accused thereof in writing signed by a minister or a member of our Church, if it be in the interval of the Annual Conference of which he is a member, in the absence of a Bishop the Presiding Elder shall call together at least three traveling preachers to investigate the report or accusation. If practicable, let him bring the accused and the accuser face to face before the committee. If the accused be an elder, the committee shall be composed of elders, and if a deacon, the committee shall be either elders or deacons.

¶ 507. Ans. 2. If the committee, after hearing the testimony, offered by both the accuser and the accused, judge a trial necessary, the accused shall be suspended until the next session of the Annual Conference of which he is a member, or until he shall have been acquitted by a trial committee as hereinafter provided for the trial of a traveling preacher in the interim of the sessions of the Annual Conference. The committee shall formulate a bill of charges and specifications against the accused, and shall present to him a copy of the same a sufficient length of time before the session of the Conference to enable him to make preparation for his trial. They shall also appoint some member of the Conference to prosecute the accused before the committee of trial.

¶ 508. Ans. 3. When a member of an Annual Conference has been suspended by a committee of investigation, this fact shall be certified to the Bishop having charge of the Annual Conference of which the accused is a member, and it shall be the duty of the Bishop, in not less than thirty nor more than sixty days, to appoint thirteen elders to try the case, whose decision shall be final save as to the right of appeal: provided, that the accused shall have the same right of challenge as is now provided, namely, the right of peremptory challenge of five in a committee of thirteen and of three in a committee of nine, besides the right of unlimited challenge for cause; and the validity of the cause shall be determined by the chairman of the committee of trial. The Bishop, when notified of the finding of the committee of investigation as above set forth, shall appoint the time and place for the trial, regard being had for sufficient time for the preparation of the case by the defense. The Bishop shall preside, or, in his absence, appoint an elder to preside in the trial, and a secretary, who shall keep a correct minute of the proceedings of the trial and forward the same to the Court of Appeals, and in case of appeal, the papers to be filed with that body; and he shall notify the Conference of which he is a member of the disposition of the case.

¶ 509. Ans. 4. In the absence of a Bishop the Presiding Elder shall preside over the committee of investigation; and in every case the chairman of the committee shall cause an exact record of the investigation, including the charges, evidence, and finding of the committee, signed by the president and secretary, to be transmitted to the Annual Conference. By this record, and such other testimony as may be obtained, the case shall be fully considered and determined by the Annual Conference without the intervention of another committee of investigation.

But should the committee of investigation in any case deem a trial unnecessary, the Conference, if it differ in judgment from the committee, may appoint another committee to inquire into the facts and report to the Conference.

¶ 510. Ans. 5. In case witnesses cannot be induced to attend the trial, the Presiding Elder shall appoint some preacher who shall take the written testimony of the witnesses, and give the parties notice allowing them the privilege of cross-examination. The testimony thus obtained shall be laid before the committee of trial as evidence in the case.

¶ 511. Ans. 6. If the accused be a Presiding Elder, any three traveling elders or deacons of his District may inquire into the case, and, if they deem it necessary, report to the Bishop, who shall appoint a committee of at least three elders from within the bounds of the Annual Conference of which the accused is a member, to investigate the report or accusation. A Bishop, or some traveling elder appointed by him, shall also preside at the investigation; and if the committee deem a trial necessary, the accused shall be suspended until the next session of the Annual Conference.

¶ 512. Ans. 7. If the accused evade an investigation, such evasion shall be received as presumptive proof of guilt; and he may be suspended. In that case also the Annual Conference shall consider and determine the whole matter.

¶ 513. Ans. 8. When the accusation is preferred during the session of the Annual Conference, it shall first be referred for investigation to a committee of three traveling elders, appointed by the president, which committee shall report to the Conference whether or not they deem a trial necessary. If they report a trial unnecessary, and the Conference differ in judgment from the committee, a second committee shall be appointed to inquire into the facts, and their report shall be final.

¶ 514. Ans. 9. The committee of investigation, reporting a case for trial, shall formulate a bill of charges, and shall appoint some member of the Conference to prosecute the case.

¶ 515. Ans. 10. Every case to be tried shall be referred to a committee of not less than nine nor more than thirteen, who, in the presence of a Bishop or a chairman, whom the president of the Conference shall appoint, and one or more of the secretaries of the Conference, shall have full power to try the case; and their decision shall be final, save as to the right of appeal: provided, that the accused shall be allowed the right of peremptory challenge of five in constituting a committee of thirteen and of three in a committee of nine, besides the right of unlimited challenge for cause; and the validity of the cause shall be determined by the chairman of the committee. The committee shall make a written report to the Conference, and deliver to the secretary the whole record of the case, with the decision rendered.

Ques. 3. What shall be done in case of improper tempers, words, or actions?

¶ 516. Ans. The preacher so offending shall be reprehended by his senior in office. Should there be a second transgression, one, two, or three preachers are to be taken as witnesses. If the offender be not then cured, accusation shall be preferred at the next session of the Annual Conference, and he shall be dealt with as in a case of immorality.

Ques. 4. What shall be done with those preachers who disseminate, publicly or privately, doctrines contrary to our Articles of Religion?

¶ 517. Ans. The same process shall be observed as in case of immorality; but if the preacher so offending solemnly engage not to disseminate such erroneous doctrines, in public or in private, he shall be borne with till his case be laid before the next Annual Conference, which shall determine the matter.

Ques. 5. What shall be done when a traveling preacher is complained of as being so unacceptable, inefficient, or secular as to be no longer useful in his work?

¶ 518. Ans. 1. The Conference to which he belongs shall investigate the case in open Conference or through a committee, as the Conference may elect, and if it appear that the complaint is well founded, and if he fail to give the Conference satisfactory assurance that he will amend, or voluntarily retire, the Conference may locate him, without his consent.

¶ 519. Ans. 2. He may defend himself before the Conference, in person or by representative; and if he be located in his absence, without having been previously notified of an intention thus to proceed against him, he may apply to the Conference at its next session to be heard in his defense, and the case shall be considered.

Ques. 6. What shall be done when a preacher refuses to attend to the work assigned him?

¶ 520. Ans. He shall be liable to suspension or deposition from the ministry, unless he have the consent of the Bishop who made the appointment, or is in charge of the work; and the final determination in all such cases shall be with the Annual Conference.

¶ 521. In all the above-mentioned cases of trial and conviction, an appeal to the ensuing General Conference shall be allowed, if the condemned person at the time of his condemnation, or as soon as he is officially informed thereof, signify to the president or secretary of the Conference his intention to appeal. . ———

SECTION III.

OF THE TRIAL OF A PROBATIONER.

Question. What shall be done when a preacher on trial is accused of immorality?

¶ 522. Ans. He shall be accountable to the Quarterly Conference of the charge that he serves. The Presiding Elder shall appoint a committee of investigation, and the same course of discipline shall be pursued that is provided for a local preacher under a like accusation: and provided, further, that a preacher on trial, appointed as a student, shall be assigned to a Quarterly Conference to which he shall be amenable for his moral character. ———

SECTION IV.

OF THE TRIAL OF A LOCAL PREACHER.

Question 1. To whom is a local preacher amenable for his conduct?

¶ 523. Ans. To the District Conference of the District within which he resides. But when a local preacher is under report of immorality, said report may be investigated and the case tried where the offense is alleged to have been committed, and by the authorities having jurisdiction there.

Ques. 2. What shall be done when a local preacher is accused of immorality?

¶ 524. Ans. 1. When a local preacher is under report of immorality, or accused thereof in writing signed by a member of our Church, the Presiding Elder shall appoint a committee of three local preachers, and if local preachers cannot be obtained he shall appoint three members of the Church, to investigate the report or accusation.

¶ 525. Ans. 2. If upon investigation this committee deem a trial necessary, they shall formulate a bill of charges and specifications, and shall appoint a local preacher or member of the Church to prosecute the case. A copy of the bill of charges and specifications shall be delivered to the accused a sufficient length of time before the trial to enable him to make the necessary preparation for his defense. The committee shall notify the Presiding Elder of their finding, and he shall notify the accused.

¶ 526. Ans. 3. A local preacher who has been notified by the Presiding Elder of a bill of charges and specifications thus found against him, shall not be allowed to exercise the functions of his office from the time of his notification until the case has been determined.

¶ 527. Ans. 4. When witnesses cannot be induced to attend the trial, the Presiding Elder shall appoint some discreet member of the Church to take the written testimony of the witnesses, as provided in ¶ 510.

¶ 528. Ans. 5. When notified that a trial is found necessary, the Presiding Elder shall call a committee of trial composed of not less than seven nor more than thirteen official members of our Church. The accused shall have the same right of challenge as has a traveling preacher. The Presiding Elder shall at the commencement of the trial appoint a secretary, who shall take down regular minutes of the evidence and proceedings. The minutes, when read and approved, shall be signed by the Presiding Elder, and also by the members of the committee, or by a majority of them; and the sentence of the committee shall be final, save as to the right of appeal.

Ques. 3. What shall be done in case of improper tempers, words, and actions?

¶ 529. Ans. The person so offending shall be reprehended by the preacher in charge. Should there be a second transgression, one, two, or three faithful friends are to be taken as witnesses. If the offender be not then cured, he shall be dealt with as in a case of immorality, and, if found guilty and impenitent, shall be expelled from the Church.

Ques. 4. What shall be done with those local preachers who disseminate, publicly or privately, doctrines contrary to our Articles of Religion?

¶ 530. Ans. The same process shall be observed as in case of immorality.

Ques. 5. What shall be done when a local elder or deacon is complained of as being so unacceptable or inefficient as to be no longer useful in his work, and the District Conference for that reason refuses to pass his character?

¶ 531. Ans. The District Conference shall proceed to investigate the case; and if it appear that the complaint is well founded, and if he fail to give the Conference satisfactory assurance that he will amend, or voluntarily surrender his credentials, the Conference may depose him from the ministry. He may defend himself before the Conference, in person or by representative. The President of the District Conference shall in this case comply with the requirements of ¶ 528.

¶ 532. In all the above-mentioned cases of trial and conviction, an appeal to the ensuing Annual Conference shall be allowed, if the condemned person signify at the time of his condemnation, or as soon as he is officially informed thereof, his intention to appeal.

SECTION V.

OF THE TRIAL OF A MEMBER.

Ques. 1. What shall be done when a member of the Church is accused of immorality?

¶ 533. Ans. 1. When a member of the Church is under report of immorality, or accused thereof in writing signed by a member of our Church, the preacher in charge shall appoint a committee of three discreet members of the Church, who shall investigate the report or accusation. If upon investigation they deem a trial necessary, they shall formulate a bill of charges and specifications, and shall appoint some member of the Church to prosecute the case.

¶ 534. Ans. 2. On the presentation of such bill of charges and specifications, the preacher in charge shall appoint a committee of not less than five nor more than thirteen members of the charge to which the accused belongs, before whom he shall be duly cited to appear, and who shall have full power to try the case; and if the accused be found guilty by a majority of the committee, the preacher in charge shall declare him suspended, or expelled, according to the verdict of the committee.

¶ 535. Ans. 3. A copy of the charge and specifications shall be delivered to the accused a sufficient length of time before the trial to enable him to make all the necessary preparations for his defense; he shall be allowed the right of unlimited challenge for cause, and the right to interrogate the committeemen to ascertain the cause; the sufficiency of the cause shall be determined by the presiding officer; and the accused shall also have the right of peremptory challenge of two in a committee of five, and in like ratio for any other number.

¶ 536. Ans. 4. The preacher in charge shall preside at the trial and decide all questions of law pertaining to the case. He shall at the commencement of the trial appoint a secretary, who shall take down regular minutes of the evidence and proceedings. The minutes, when read and approved, shall be signed by the president and the secretary.

¶ 537. Ans. 5. If after sufficient notice the accused evade trial by absenting himself, the trial shall proceed as though he were present. Witnesses from without shall not be rejected. If witnesses cannot be induced to attend the trial, the preacher in charge shall appoint some discreet member of the Church to take the written statements of the witnesses, as provided in ¶ 510.

Ques. 2. What shall be done in case of improper tempers, words, or actions, or disobedience to the order and discipline of the Church?

¶ 538. Ans. Let private reproof be given by the preacher in charge or by a leader; and if there be an acknowledgment of the fault, and promise of amendment, the person may be borne with; otherwise the preacher must take with him two or three faithful friends, who shall labor to bring the offender to proper repentance; but if he will not hear them, and there be no sign of amendment, the offender must be dealt with as in case of immorality.

Ques. 3. What shall be done when a member disseminates doctrines contrary to our Articles of Religion?

¶ 539. Ans. If a member of our Church endeavor to sow dissension in any of our societies by inveighing against either our doctrines or discipline, such person offending shall first be reprov'd by the preacher in charge; and if there be persistence in such practice, the offender shall be dealt with as in case of immorality.

Ques. 4. What shall be done in case of disputes between members of the Church?

¶ 540. Ans. 1. Should any dispute occur between two or more members of our Church concerning the payment of debts, or other matters, which disputes cannot be settled by the parties concerned, the preacher in charge shall inquire into the circumstances of the case, and shall recommend to the contending parties a reference to a committee of arbitration, consisting of members of our Church. One arbitrator shall be chosen by the plaintiff, another by the defendant, and the two arbitrators so chosen shall select a third.

¶ 541. Ans. 2. If one of the parties be dissatisfied with the judgment given, such party may apply to the Quarterly Conference for a second arbitration; and if that Conference see sufficient reason it shall grant a second arbitration, in which case each party shall choose two arbitrators, and the four arbitrators shall choose a fifth, the judgment of a majority of whom shall be final; and if either person refuse to abide by the judgment, such party shall be dealt with as in case of immorality.

¶ 542. Ans. 3. If any member of our Church shall refuse, in cases of debt or other disputes, to refer the matter to arbitration, when recommended by the preacher in charge, or shall enter into a lawsuit with another member before these measures are taken, he shall be dealt with as in case of immorality, unless the case be of such a nature as to require and justify a process at law.

¶ 543. In all cases of suspension or expulsion, the accused shall have the right of appeal to the ensuing Quarterly Conference: provided, that notice is given to the pastor at the time of the condemnation, or as soon as the party is officially informed thereof, of the intention to appeal.

¶ 544. Any traveling or local preacher, or layman, who shall hold public religious services within the bounds of any mission, circuit, or station, when requested by the preacher in charge not to hold such services, shall be deemed guilty of imprudent conduct, and shall be dealt with as the law provides in such cases.

CHAPTER XXII.

APPEALS.

SECTION I.

OF THE APPEAL OF A TRAVELING PREACHER.

¶ 545. There shall be a Committee of Appeals to review and determine all cases of appeals by traveling preachers. The committee shall be composed of one Bishop, to be selected by the College of Bishops, having regard to the accessibility of the Bishop of that year, and also four traveling ministers who are elders, and three laymen, to be elected by the General Conference on the nomination of the Committee on Itinerancy for a term expiring with the close of the succeeding General Conference.

¶ 546. The Bishop shall preside at all meetings of the committee, and a vote of four members of said committee concurring shall be sufficient to decide all questions.

¶ 547. No members of the committee shall sit at the hearing of a case in which he was a member of the trial committee or attorney for the accused or any person connected with the case nor in which he is personally interested.

¶ 548. If any member of the committee is challenged, he shall withdraw, and the remainder of the committee shall decide as to whether or not such a member is competent to sit in the case. The Bishop and four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

¶ 549. If a vacancy happens in the committee by death, resignation, or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled by the remainder of the committee by appointment until the next General Conference.

¶ 549-A. Such committee shall sit for the hearing of cases at the Publishing House in Nashville, Tennessee, on the call of the presiding Bishop, unless for good reasons the Bishop shall designate a different place.

¶ 550. A session of the Committee of Appeals shall be held once each year, unless there is no business before the committee, or unless such business is continued by agreement of the parties.

¶ 550-A. When a case is called for hearing, the appellant shall file a written statement of the errors complained of by him and of the reasons assigned by him, and upon which he relies, for a reversal of the decision. The appellant shall then, either in person or by his representative, state the grounds of his appeal, and he shall be permitted to make his argument without interruption, so long as his defense is within the record of the case.

¶ 550-B. The representative of the committee of trial of the Annual Conference from which the appeal is taken shall then be permitted to respond, and the appellant may reply thereto. At the conclusion of such argument, the committee shall consider the case privately and announce its decision to the respective parties. If necessary, the committee may take under advisement for such time as may be necessary to properly examine the same, and notify the parties of the decision by letter, if they are not present when the decision is rendered. If either party have no representative present, the committee shall appoint some representative for such party. The decision of such committee shall be final, and it shall report its decision to the next General Conference for record by that body.

¶ 550-C. The committee shall appoint one of its members secretary of the committee, and such secretary shall keep a complete record of the acts of the committee, and the same shall be left with the Agents of the Publishing House at Nashville, Tennessee, for safe keeping.

¶ 550-D. The secretary of the committee of trial, from which an appeal is taken, shall, as soon as practicable after adjournment of said committee of trial, send all records and documents relating to the trial of the appealed case in some secure manner to the Agents of the Publishing House, to be there securely kept for the use of the Committee of Appeals. And the said secretary of the committee of trial, from which said appeal is taken, shall also at once notify the presiding Bishop of the Committee of Appeals of the fact that such appeal has been taken and the record sent up.

¶ 550-E. If the presiding Bishop appointed be unable to sit, or if he is interested in the case, another Bishop shall be designated by the College of Bishops to sit in the case in hand, in which case the Bishop so designated shall have all the powers of the presiding Bishop.

¶ 550-F. If the judgment of the Committee of Appeals be that the appellant be expelled from the membership of the Church or from the ministry, he shall not be restored to the communion of the Church without giving satisfactory evidence of repentance of the offense for which he was expelled, unless the Annual Conference becomes convinced that he was innocent, in which case the Conference may restore him to his former standing by a vote of two-thirds of the Conference.

¶ 550-G. The Committee of Appeals may reverse the decision of the trial committee, in which case the accused minister shall by said decision be restored to the same position as if no trial had occurred. Or it may remand the case for a new trial. Or it may affirm the judgment of the lower court. In all cases the secretary of the Committee of Appeals shall notify the Annual Conference from which the appeal was taken of its decision, and if a written decision is filed, shall send a copy of the same therewith. If the case is remanded for a new trial, the secretary shall cause to be transmitted to the Annual Conference from which the appeal is taken all records and documents sent up with the appeal, to be used, if needed, on a new trial of the case.

¶ 551. The Committee of Appeals is hereby empowered and directed to sit as a Board of Conflict on the call of the President, or at other times when called together as hereinbefore provided, to consider and decide all cases of conflict in authority and administration arising in any of the General Boards of our Church, with any other Church authority, or within or between the Boards themselves, in the conduct of affairs either at home or in the foreign fields, whenever such cases of conflict shall be brought to the attention of the President in a written statement, signed by at least one Bishop, two preachers, and three laymen. When proceeding in such cases, the committee shall take testimony according to the methods pursued by our Church courts in general, and shall hear representatives of the various parties and Boards involved; after which it shall consider and decide the cause or causes at issue; and its decision shall be final.

¶ 552. The expense of the Committee, including the traveling and hotel expenses of the members thereof, shall be paid as are the expenses of the General Conference.

SECTION II.

OF THE APPEAL OF A LOCAL PREACHER.

¶ 553. When the appeal of a local preacher is made, the president shall appoint a committee of not less than nine nor more than thirteen, who shall have full power to try the case; and their decision shall be final.

¶ 554. No member of the committee that tried the case shall be appointed on this committee.

¶ 555. The records of the trial shall be laid before this committee, which records only shall be the evidence; and the said committee shall make a written report to the Annual Conference, and deliver to the secretary the whole record of the case, with the decision rendered.

¶ 556. The appellant, either in person or by his representative (who shall be a member of the Annual Conference), shall state the grounds of his appeal, and shall be permitted to make his defense without interruption. The representative of the trial committee from the decision of which the appeal is made shall then be permitted to respond in presence of the appellant, who shall have privilege of replying, and this shall close the arguments on both sides. The appellant and the representative of the trial committee shall then withdraw, and the committee shall decide.

¶ 557. No local preacher, after such form of trial and expulsion, shall be restored to the communion of the Church without giving satisfactory evidence of repentance of the offense for which he was expelled, unless the District Conference becomes convinced that he was innocent, in which case the Conference may restore him to his previous standing.

SECTION III.

OF THE APPEAL OF A MEMBER.

¶ 558. Any member who has been suspended or expelled shall be allowed an appeal to the next Quarterly Conference. The appeal being made, the preacher in charge shall present the record of the trial to the Quarterly Conference, from which record the case shall finally be determined.

¶ 559. No member of the committee of trial shall vote on the appeal.

¶ 560. The appellant, either in person or by his representative (who shall be a member of the Church), shall state the grounds of his appeal, and he shall be permitted to make his defense without interruption. The representatives of the committee from the decision of whom the appeal is made shall then be permitted to respond in presence of the appellant, who shall have privilege of replying, and this shall close the arguments on both sides. The appellant and the representatives of the committee shall then withdraw, and the majority of the members of the Quarterly Conference present shall finally determine the case.

¶ 561. No member, after such form of trial and expulsion, shall be restored to the communion of the Church without giving satisfactory evidence of repentance of the offense for which he was expelled, unless the Quarterly Conference became convinced that he was innocent, in which case he may be restored.

CHAPTER XXIII.

THE DEPRIVATION AND RESTORATION OF CREDENTIALS.

OF THE CREDENTIALS OF TRAVELING ELDERS OR DEACONS.

¶ 562. When any traveling elder or deacon is deprived of his credentials of ordination, by expulsion or otherwise, they shall be filed with the papers of the Annual Conference of which he was a member.

¶ 563. When a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall desire to surrender his credentials as a minister and retain his membership in the Church, he shall be permitted to do so, and to designate the Church in which he will hold membership; and the secretary of the Conference to which he surrenders his credentials shall issue to him a certificate of membership in the Church: provided, that no minister shall be permitted to take such action when charges involving his character have been made and sustained or are pending and not tried. However, when his character is involved in cases where the law permits final adjustment of the case by the surrender of credentials, the surrendering of the same shall carry with it the surrender of membership in the Church.

¶ 564. Should he at any future time give satisfactory evidence to said Conference of his amendment or innocence, and procure a certificate of the Quarterly Conference of the circuit or station where he resides, or of an Annual Conference which may have admitted him on trial, recommending to the Annual Conference of which he was formerly a member the restoration of his credentials, the said Conference may restore them.

SECTION II.

OF THE CREDENTIALS OF LOCAL ELDERS OR DEACONS.

¶ 565. When any local elder or deacon is deprived of his credentials of ordination, by expulsion or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Presiding Elder to require them of him, and to file them with the papers of the Annual Conference within the limits of which the said local preacher resides.

¶ 566. Should he, at any future time, produce to the Annual Conference a certificate of his restoration by the District Conference, signed by the president and secretary thereof, his credentials may be restored to him.

CHAPTER XXIV.

DECISIONS RENDERED BY THE COLLEGE OF BISHOPS.

¶ 567. SCOPE OF THE VOTE BY ORDERS.

A vote by lay and clerical members cannot be demanded, on seating members, nor in the organization of the General Conference by the election of officers, nor in any election, but only touching legislative acts. (1882.)

¶ 568. WHEN A LAW BECOMES OPERATIVE.

A law enacted by the General Conference does not become effective from the time of its passage, but from the adjournment of the General Conference. (1879.)

¶ 569. WHO ALONE CAN DETERMINE THE LEGALITY OF AN ACT OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE. WHEN THE GENERAL CONFERENCE DIRECTS AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO BE DIVIDED INTO TWO CONFERENCES AND MAKES IT THE DUTY OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO FIX THE LINE OF DIVISION, WHAT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE CAN DO.

The General Conference directed an Annual Conference to divide its territory into two Conferences, and made it "the duty of the Conference at its next session to choose the line of division." The legality of this action of the General Conference was questioned during the next session of the Annual Conference concerned. The presiding bishop decided and the College of Bishops concurred that the determination of the unconstitutionality of an act of the General Conference has been committed, not to the single bishop who is presiding either in the General or in the Annual Conference, but only to the College of Bishops; and that body presents, not to an Annual Conference, not even to any General Conference, but only to the General Conference which passed the rule or regulation, its written objections to the action of the General Conference, in which written objections the reasons for the objections are to be set forth.

The General Conference having made it the duty of a Conference to divide, it is competent for the Conference to order that no line of division shall be fixed except upon a separate and distinct vote on that line itself; that the division of the Conference does not take place till some proposed line of division shall secure a majority of the votes cast; and that should no proposed line of division secure a majority of the votes cast, the whole question must be referred to the next General Conference. (1915.)

¶ 570. CHANGE OF BOUNDARIES AND MEMBERSHIP IN ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

When the General Conference changes the boundaries of Annual Conferences, the traveling preachers concerned become members of that Conference in which their pastoral charges fall. (1883.)

¶ 571. MEMBERSHIP OF A TRAVELING PREACHER.

The membership of a traveling preacher is in the Annual Conference to which he belongs, and not in the pastoral charge to which he is appointed. (1883.)

¶ 572. WHAT TRAVELING PREACHERS CAN BE ELECTED DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The "four calendar years" a preacher must have traveled before he can be elected a delegate to the General Conference should be counted from the time of his reception on trial. (1914.)

¶ 573. A TEACHER A TRAVELING PREACHER.

A member of an Annual Conference, appointed by the bishop from year to year as a teacher, is a "traveling preacher" in the meaning of the Discipline. (1885.)

¶ 574. WHERE A TRANSFERRED PREACHER HAS HIS CHARACTER PASSED.

Every transfer of a traveling preacher is conditioned upon the passage of his character by the Conference from which he is transferred and to which he is amenable up to the time of its occurrence. (1885.)

¶ 575. TIME WHEN A TRANSFER TAKES EFFECT.

The official announcement that a preacher is transferred from one Conference to another changes his membership so that his rights and responsibilities in the Conference to which he goes begin from the date of his transfer by the bishop making it. (1905.)

¶ 576. A SUPPLY NOT CONNECTED WITH AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE CANNOT BE TRANSFERRED AS A PROBATIONER OR MEMBER.

A local preacher serving as a supply in one Annual Conference was recommended for admission on trial into another Annual Conference. He declined to be examined on the Course of Study, alleging that he had been announced as a transfer to the Annual Conference, and hence was already in connection with it.

The bishop decided: A preacher employed as a supply, but not otherwise connected with an Annual Conference, cannot become a probationer or a member of an Annual Conference by transfer, and can only be admitted in the manner prescribed in the Discipline. (1911.)

¶ 577. LAY MEMBERS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

The right to vote includes the right to speak, and the lay members of the Annual Conference can vote on the question, "What traveling preachers are elected elders?" (1902.)

¶ 578. ONLY A CONFERENCE CAN APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF A BISHOP.

The right of appeal from the decision of a bishop belongs only to the Conference over which he is at the time presiding, and cannot be claimed or exercised by any individual member thereof. (1891.)

¶ 579. EXAMINING COMMITTEE CAN ACCEPT OR REJECT EXAMINATIONS BY OUR INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING.

The law of the Church does not make it mandatory upon the Examining Committee of an Annual Conference to accept from an applicant for admission on trial into the traveling connection certificates of satisfactory examination from our institutions of learning in lieu of examination by the committee. (1903.)

¶ 580. EXAMINATION ON THE COURSE OF STUDY.

An Annual Conference Committee of Examination may accept from an undergraduate the certificate of an approved college for any part of the Course of Study that he has completed, even though several years have elapsed since the work was done, provided the committee is satisfied that the work was properly done; but the books used must be those prescribed in the Course of Study. (1913.)

¶ 581. APPOINTMENT OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES IN ANNUAL CONFERENCES.

The following resolution was offered in an Annual Conference:

“Resolved, That the standing rule of the Conference requiring nominations for boards and committees to be made by the presiding elders be changed by requiring said nominations to be made by a Committee on Nominations, said nominating committee to be composed of one member from each district, who shall be nominated annually by the presiding elder of that district.”

The bishop presiding decided that, “The resolution cannot apply to the Committees of Examination or to any of the quadrennial boards, but is valid in reference to committees appointed annually.” (1893.)

¶ 582. COMMITTEE OF PRESIDING ELDERS CAN NOMINATE FOR VACANCIES ON QUADRENNIAL BOARDS.

It is admissible for the presiding elders, acting as a Committee on Nominations, to make nominations to fill vacancies in the quadrennial boards, except in the case of boards touching which the Discipline makes other provision. (1906.)

¶ 583. WHAT STATISTICAL BLANKS AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE MAY USE.

The forms supplied by the Publishing House in conformity with the action of the General Conference must be used by every Annual Conference, but any Conference may employ such additional forms as it needs. (1887.)

¶ 584. GAIN OR LOSS OF MEMBERS, HOW DETERMINED.

The gain or loss of membership on the blank for report to an Annual Conference is to be determined by the records of the charge, and not by the statements or corrections of the last pastor. (1889.)

¶ 585. BAPTIZED INFANTS AND CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.

It is proper to keep a roll of the infants who are baptized, but they are not to be counted in reporting the number of Church members. (1913.)

¶ 586. WHO MAY BE APPOINTED A STUDENT IN ONE OF OUR SCHOOLS.

A preacher just admitted on trial may at that session be appointed a student in one of our schools. (1907.)

¶ 587. PRESIDING ELDER A MEMBER OF DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

The presiding elder of a district is a member of its District Conference. (1892.)

¶ 588. MEMBERSHIP OF THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

A connectional officer residing outside the territory of the Annual Conference to which he belongs is not a member of the District Conference including the place of his residence. (1911.)

¶ 589. A WOMAN MAY NOT BE A MEMBER OF THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

It is not in harmony with the spirit of our law that women be members of a District Conference. (1910.)

¶ 590. PRESIDENT OF A DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Where a District Conference elects its president, it must choose him from its own membership. (1873.)

¶ 591. WHO CAN VOTE FOR LAY DELEGATES TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

In the election of lay delegates to the Annual Conference "no member of the Annual Conference shall vote"; but every other member of the District Conference is entitled to a vote in this election; and preachers on trial having appointments in the district are members of the District Conference. (1912.)

¶ 592. ELIGIBILITY OF LOCAL PREACHERS TO MEMBERSHIP IN ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Local preachers and laymen are eligible to membership in the Annual Conference on precisely the same terms with respect to the qualifications of age and number of years of membership in the Church. (1910.)

¶ 593. A LAYMAN'S RIGHT TO ASSIST IN EXAMINING CANDIDATES FOR LICENSE TO PREACH.

A layman is entitled to serve on a committee of the District Conference to examine candidates for license to preach. (1903.)

¶ 594. THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE NEITHER PASSES THE CHARACTER NOR RENEWS THE LICENSE OF A PROBATIONER.

The passage of the character of a preacher on trial in an Annual Conference was brought up at a District Conference. The presiding elder was asked, "Do preachers on trial in an Annual Conference need to have their characters passed and their licenses renewed by the District Conference?", and he decided that it was necessary. An appeal was taken, and the bishop decided that the presiding elder was in error; that the character of a preacher on trial passes in the Annual Conference; that an admission on trial in an Annual Conference is a license to preach, and continuance on trial is a renewal of that license. (1911.)

¶ 595. WHEN A MAN MAY BE LICENSED TO PREACH IN HIS ABSENCE.

A District Conference may license a preacher in his absence, provided his examination is satisfactory to the Conference. (1900.)

¶ 596. WHEN THE LICENSE OF A LOCAL PREACHER DOES NOT EXPIRE.

A local preacher was tried and suspended till the next Quarterly Conference. In the meantime the District Conference met, and because of the suspension his license was not renewed. The bishop decided that the existing license was in force till the meeting of the next District Conference, otherwise a suspension would really be an expulsion from the ministry. (1897.)

¶ 597. LICENSE OF A PREACHER WHO IS DISCONTINUED.

The discontinuance by an Annual Conference of an unordained preacher on trial takes him out of the itinerancy, but his license to preach will continue in force till the meeting of the next District Conference, for the reason set forth in the immediately preceding paragraph. (1918.)

¶ 598. WHO CAN RECOMMEND FOR LICENSE TO PREACH, ADMISSION ON TRIAL, AND READMISSION.

A Quarterly Conference within one district can recommend a brother to the District Conference of another district for license to preach, admission on trial, or readmission into the traveling connection. ((1896.))

¶ 599. RECOMMENDATION FOR READMISSION.

A traveling preacher who withdraws from the ministry and membership of our Church, and afterwards reunites with the Church, may not be recommended for readmission into an Annual Conference, but must be relicensed and begin his ministry de novo. (1893.)

¶ 600. FAILURE OF LOCAL PREACHER TO REPORT IN WRITING TO DISTRICT CONFERENCE DOES NOT PREVENT THE PASSAGE OF HIS CHARACTER.

Our law of the Church requires a local preacher to report annually in writing the extent and result of his labors, and the District Conference may, on account of his failure to comply with the law, refuse to pass his character, but this failure does not prevent the District Conference from entering into the merits of his case and passing his character. (1907.)

¶ 601. RECOMMENDATION FOR ORDERS.

If the recommendation of a District Conference for orders in the local connection shall come for the first time before an Annual Conference, within a year from the date of its passage it may be considered, even though the District Conference granting it be not included within the boundaries of that Annual Conference. (1901.)

¶ 602. ALL MEMBERS OF LICENSING COMMITTEE MUST BE PRESENT AND UNANIMOUSLY APPROVE RECOMMENDATION FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL INTO THE TRAVELING CONNECTION.

The action of the Licensing Committee of a District Conference recommending an applicant for admission on trial into the traveling connection is irregular and invalid unless all the members of the committee be present when the case of the applicant is considered, and unanimously approve his recommendation. (1910.)

¶ 603. VOTE BY PROXY NOT ALLOWED IN QUARTERLY CONFERENCE ON AN APPEAL.

A member of a Quarterly Conference cannot vote by proxy in a case to be tried on appeal by that Conference. (1897.)

¶ 604. ONE QUARTERLY CONFERENCE CANNOT DEFY ANOTHER.

When a Quarterly Conference of one charge deposes a preacher, that of another charge cannot in defiance immediately relicense him, nor recommend him to an Annual Conference for the restoration of his credentials. (1887.)

¶ 605. WHO CAN APPEAL A LEGAL QUESTION, AND WHAT THE APPEAL MUST CONTAIN.

An appeal of a Quarterly Conference from the decision of the presiding elder should contain, not an independent history or statement of the matter, but a transcript from its journal. Except in trials, an appeal must be taken by the Quarterly Conference, or a majority of it, and not by an individual member of that body. (1871, 1886.)

¶ 606. APPEAL TO A QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Complaint against a presiding elder was made to an Annual Conference, because a Quarterly Conference over which he had presided had declined to entertain the appeal of an expelled member of the Church. The bishop presiding at the Annual Conference decided:

1. Can a Quarterly Conference or its president decide whether an appeal shall be entertained? Answer: For justifiable reasons a Quarterly Conference may decide not to entertain an appeal.

2. When a Quarterly Conference has decided not to entertain an appeal, has its president any recourse by which he can compel it to entertain the appeal? Answer: He has not. (1877.)

¶ 607. ARE THERE ANY COMPLAINTS?

In a Quarterly Conference, under the question, "Are there any complaints?", the pastor was complained of for neglect of certain duties, and record was made of it. The case coming before the bishop, he decided: The question, "Are there any complaints?", applies only to official members of the local charge, and the Quarterly Conference has no jurisdiction over any member of the Annual Conference. (1875.)

¶ 608. ON WHAT CLASS OF CASES THE COLLEGE OF BISHOPS CANNOT DELIVER AN OFFICIAL OPINION.

The College of Bishops, as a judicial body, cannot formally entertain nor deliver an official opinion on any question of law, unless it shall come up in regular order, as by appeal or for review. Hypothetical or supposed cases, however ingenious and interesting, can have no hearing here; but only those actually arising in the administration of Church law, and these must come up in the way prescribed. (1867.)

¶ 609. A BISHOP NEED NOT DECIDE A QUESTION ALREADY DECIDED.

A question of law that has been decided by the College of Bishops need not be decided by the bishop presiding, even though presented in due form. (1887.)

¶ 610. WHAT DECISIONS OF LAW ARE NOT BINDING.

No unrecorded decision of law is of any force. (1913.)

¶ 611. NO RIGHT TO DECLINE APPOINTMENT.

The law striking out a fixed sum for support to the preacher, and leaving the stewards to estimate the salary, does not give to the minister any right to decline to serve the work to which he is appointed, seeing that he had no such right before this action of the General Conference. (1867.)

¶ 612. PLAN OF THE WORK.

A preacher in charge has not the right, immediately after Conference, to change the plan of his work so as to leave a larger portion of it unsupplied. (1872.)

¶ 613. PASTOR NOT REQUIRED TO CONSULT TRUSTEES ABOUT SERVICES APPOINTED.

The preacher in charge is not required to secure the consent of trustees of church property before appointing a service in any of the churches in his charge, since the law makes it his duty "to control the appointment of all services to be held in those churches." (1896.)

¶ 614. WOMEN NOT PREACHERS, AND NOT TO BE SO RECOGNIZED.

Our Church does not recognize the employment of women as preachers, with authority to occupy the pulpit in reading the Holy Scriptures, and in preaching as ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ; nor does it authorize a preacher in charge to invite a woman claiming to be a minister of the Lord Jesus Christ to occupy our pulpits, to expound the Scriptures as a preacher. Such invitations given and services so rendered offend against the authority and order of our Church. (1896.)

¶ 615. RENTING PARSONAGE PROPERTY.

With the consent of the Quarterly Conference, a preacher in charge may rent the parsonage and occupy another residence. (1887.)

¶ 616. RENTAL OF PARSONAGES.

It is not in harmony with our Discipline to require rental from our preachers who use parsonages provided by the Church for their use and occupancy. (1901.)

¶ 617. PROBATION IN CONFERENCE (NOT CALENDAR)

A preacher who has traveled two Conference years, even though not twenty-four months, may be admitted into full connection. (1877.)

¶ 618. A PREACHER APPOINTED TO TEACH A PUBLIC SCHOOL.

A probationer appointed to teach a public school is entitled to have the time spent in that work to count on the time required for admission into full connection and for ordination. (1915.)

¶ 619. PRESENCE NECESSARY IN ORDER TO BE ADMITTED INTO FULL CONNECTION.

Except a missionary employed on a foreign mission, who may be admitted in his absence from the Annual Conference on the recommendation of the superintendent of the mission, those who ask to be received into full connection must be present, and must be approved by the Annual Conference. (1915.)

¶ 620. TIME LIMIT FOR ELDER'S ORDERS.

A deacon admitted on trial into an Annual Conference is not eligible, after a service of two years, to the office of elder, even though he may have completed the Course of Study for that office, and may have been admitted into full connection. (1891.)

¶ 621. WHO CAN BE MADE SUPERNUMERARY?

Only a preacher afflicted in his own person. (1859.)

¶ 622. REMUNERATION OF SUPERNUMERARIES.

A supernumerary is not entitled to any remuneration from the charge to which he is appointed, unless there be an express stipulation between him and the Board of Stewards. (1872.)

¶ 623. SUPERNUMERARIES NOT CLAIMANTS ON CONFERENCE COLLECTION.

A supernumerary has no claim on the fund in the hands of the Joint Board of Finance known as the Conference Collection. (1872.)

¶ 624. RIGHTS OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS LIVING IN TERRITORY TRANSFERRED TO ANOTHER CONFERENCE.

In equity, Conference claimants living in the bounds of territory ceded by the General Conference from one Annual Conference to another should be ceded with the territory; but legally they continue to be claimants on the Annual Conference from which the territory is ceded. (1903.)

¶ 625. WHERE IS THE CLAIM OF A SUPERANNUATE?

¶ 626. CLAIMANTS ON CONFERENCE COLLECTION.

Only to superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of itinerant preachers can funds collected for Conference claimants be appropriated. Location for any cause instantly cancels all claims on that fund both for the preacher and for his family; but the Conference can levy an assessment and make an appropriation for any charitable object, though not so as to divert the collections taken for Conference claimants. (1913.)

¶ 627. FAMILY CLAIMS CANNOT BE RENOUNCED.

The voluntary renunciation by a member of an Annual Conference of his own claim or that of his family upon the Conference funds does not abrogate the subsequent claim of his widow and orphans. (1870.)

¶ 628. SUPPORT OF SUPERANNUATES.

The disciplinary provision, "that when a preacher breaks down in his work, and is placed on the superannuate list, his claims should begin from the time he ceases to travel," applies only to those superannuates whose support was cut off in the midst of the year. (1899.)

¶ 629. ORPHAN CHILDREN OF DECEASED MEMBERS.

A daughter of a deceased traveling preacher, twenty-one years of age, sound in mind and body, is not a proper claimant on the funds of the Joint Board of Finance. (1893.)

¶ 630. EXAMINATION FOR LICENSE TO PREACH.

The right of a presiding elder to examine an applicant who cannot reach the District Conference, and to report the result of the examination to the Conference, does not include the right to examine him in the absence of the Licensing Committee and to report to that committee. Where the Licensing Committee is intended to be included it is specifically mentioned. (1915.)

¶ 631. APPLICATION FOR LICENSE TO PREACH OR FOR RENEWAL OF LICENSE.

An "application" for a license to preach or for the renewal of a license must be made by the applicant in person, or by letter, or by some one whom he has requested to act for him. (1915.)

¶ 632. LOCAL PREACHER'S CERTIFICATE.

A local preacher who holds an authentic certificate of membership and official status more than twelve months before he presents it to another Quarterly Conference, if he can satisfy the Conference that the delay was unavoidable, does not on this account forfeit his membership and official standing. (1899.)

¶ 633. LOCAL PREACHER UNDER ARREST TO DESIST FROM HIS MINISTRY.

If there be rumors affecting the moral and ministerial character of an ordained local preacher justifying the Quarterly Conference in refusing to pass his character, he is suspended from all ministerial functions till the case is judicially tried and settled. (1870.)

¶ 634. NOT ELIGIBLE TO ELDER'S ORDERS.

A deacon who has served two successive years before his reception on trial into the traveling connection, and has then traveled two years, cannot be elected to elder's orders under the proviso of the Discipline which says "that if he has been a deacon for three years successively, and on trial in the traveling ministry one year next following, he shall be eligible to the office of an elder on obtaining the approbation of the Annual Conference." (1893.)

¶ 635. WHEN A LOCAL PREACHER MAY BE ORDAINED WITHOUT A RECOMMENDATION FROM A DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

A local preacher who has preached four years consecutively from the time he received a license to preach, and one of those years has been a trial in the traveling connection, is eligible to deacon's orders without a recommendation of the District Conference. (1902.)

¶ 636. LOCAL PREACHERS TO PASS EXAMINATIONS.

A local deacon or elder who enters the itinerancy on trial must pass approved examinations on the whole Course of Study. (1870.)

¶ 637. CLASS LEADERS.

There can be no class leaders where there are no classes, since they must have been members of the class they are appointed to lead. (1899.)

¶ 638. STEWARDS.

A member of one pastoral charge may be elected steward of another pastoral charge. (1901.)

¶ 639. STEWARDS.

A person not a member of the Church cannot be elected a steward. (1914.)

¶ 640. WOMEN INELIGIBLE TO OFFICE OF STEWARD.

It is not lawful to elect a woman as steward. (1906.)

¶ 641. STEWARDS NOT UNDER CONTROL OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

An Annual Conference took this action.

“Resolved, That, the district stewards, in apportioning the claims of the presiding elder and the collections ordered by the Annual Conference, shall make the assessment against the various works in proportion to the claims of the preachers upon those works respectively."

The bishop was asked as to the legality of this action. His answer, concurred in, was in these words:

"The law empowering an Annual Conference to adopt its own method of raising money to pay those who, by the rules and usages of the Church, have claims upon it, has reference exclusively to the collections for superannuated preachers, widows and orphans of preachers, and for bishops. It follows that no Annual Conference has the right to pass mandatory resolutions, interfering with the rights and duties of district stewards, or the stewards of circuits and stations, as laid down in the Discipline on 'the support of the ministry.'" (1872.)

¶ 642. PRESIDING ELDER NOT BOUND TO CONTINUE NOMINATIONS TILL BOARD OF STEWARDS IS EXHAUSTED.

When a Quarterly Conference refuses to elect a person nominated by the presiding elder for district steward, the presiding elder is not bound to continue to make nominations until the entire Board of Stewards is exhausted. (1907.)

¶ 643. PRESIDING ELDER'S SALARY.

The district steward may fix the salary of the presiding elder at a certain percentage of the salaries fixed for the pastors on the several charges by their respective stewards. (1901.)

¶ 644. THE NUMBER OF TRUSTEES.

The law calling for nine trustees to hold church property refers, not to the number of trustees in a pastoral charge, but to the separate properties, so that it is proper to elect more than nine trustees in a charge to hold the several pieces of property in that charge. (1915.)

¶ 645. POWERS OF TRUSTEES.

Trustees of our houses of worship have no right, by virtue of their office, to permit such houses of worship to be used for schools, courthouses, or any other than Church purposes. (1869.)

¶ 646. A QUARTERLY CONFERENCE CAN REMOVE A TRUSTEE AND ELECT HIS SUCCESSOR, BUT A PRESIDING ELDER CANNOT DECLARE THE OFFICE OF A TRUSTEE VACANT.

A Quarterly Conference instructed the trustees to sell a piece of church property. Some of the trustees refused to obey the instructions and to execute the deed. At the next Quarterly Conference the presiding elder declared the office of the recalcitrant trustees vacant, and the Quarterly Conference filled the vacancies.

An appeal was taken from the decision of the presiding elder, and the action of the Quarterly Conference. The bishop decided that the presiding elder had no right to declare the office of a trustee vacant, but that the Quarterly Conference, having the power to remove a trustee at will, did legally remove from office the recalcitrant trustees and elect their successors. (1911.)

¶ 647. RELIEF OF TRUSTEES.

The resolution of a Quarterly Conference ordering trustees to mortgage parsonage property to relieve indebtedness for which they are responsible meets the disciplinary requirement of relief to such trustees before their removal from office; but they may demand reinstatement if their successors in office fail to consummate the transaction intended for their relief. (1896.)

¶ 648. RENTAL OF PARSONAGE, WHEN DUE TO LEGAL OCCUPANT.

Trustees, acting under the authority of the Quarterly Conference, may apply the rental of a parsonage to the benefit of a preacher or presiding elder who declines to occupy it for reasons they judge to be valid; but the rental cannot be claimed as a right by a preacher or presiding elder unless the parsonage be impracticable as a place of residence. (1896.)

¶ 649. AN EXPELLED MEMBER CANNOT, PENDING HIS APPEAL, JOIN OUR CHURCH AT ANOTHER CHARGE.

One who has been duly expelled from the Church, and has given proper notice of appeal to the Quarterly Conference, cannot, pending his appeal, be restored to membership. One who has taken an appeal is at liberty to abandon it, but such abandonment leaves him in the same attitude as if the Quarterly Conference had affirmed the decision of the Committee of Trial. (1876.)

¶ 650. UNLAWFUL CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP.

It is not lawful to give a certificate of membership to one who does not intend to move from the charge, and who declines to say what use he proposes to make of the certificate. (1860.)

¶ 651. SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

A member of another denomination may be elected a Sunday school superintendent in our Church, but such election does not make him a member of our Church, nor a member of the Quarterly Conference. (1887.)

¶ 652. A WOMAN MAY BE SUPERINTENDENT OF A SUNDAY SCHOOL, BUT NOT A MEMBER OF A QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

A woman may be elected a superintendent of a Sunday school, but is not thereby a member of a Quarterly Conference. (1898.)

¶ 653. ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENTS, HOW CREATED.

The Discipline does not contemplate the election of assistant superintendents of Sunday schools. If there be necessity for an assistant superintendent, the Quarterly Conference should make the election and not the Sunday school, inasmuch as the Discipline provides that the Quarterly Conference shall be a Board of Managers for the Sunday school. (1903.)

¶ 654. COLLECTIONS MADE ON CHILDREN'S DAY.

Collections made on Children's Day cannot be used for any other purpose than that designated by the General Conference. (1890.)

¶ 655. WHAT EPWORTH LEAGUE OFFICERS A QUARTERLY CONFERENCE CAN CONFIRM.

¶ 656. PRESIDING ELDER MUST USE DISCRETION BEFORE HE APPOINTS A COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION.

When rumors against the moral character of a traveling preacher come to a presiding elder, he must use discretion about appointing a Committee of Investigation, but he is answerable to the Annual Conference for the manner in which he discharges his duty. (1901.)

¶ 657. THE PRESIDING ELDER OF DISTRICT WHERE OFFENSE WAS COMMITTED CAN CONDUCT INVESTIGATION.

The presiding elder of a district within the bounds of which a local preacher is accused of having committed an immorality can conduct an investigation of the case, even though the local preacher in question has his membership in another district. (1906.)

¶ 658. DUTY OF A COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION.

If an impartial Committee of Investigation cannot be obtained in the class or society to which a member belongs, the pastor may select the committee from any other society. (1879.)

¶ 659. A COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION.

A Committee of Investigation is not to try a case, but to ascertain whether there is a case to be tried. An accused person, if allowed to appear before it to show that no trial is necessary, may not present any testimony in defense. (1879.)

¶ 660. SECRETARY OF AN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

The secretary of an Investigating Committee appointed in the interval of Annual Conference is to be appointed by the committee from its number. (1891.)

¶ 661. NO COUNSEL BEFORE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

Before a Committee of Investigation the accused is not entitled to counsel. (1889.)

DETERMINES PROCEEDINGS.

A majority of the Committee of Investigation, before which the accused member can introduce no evidence, may declare a trial necessary, frame a bill of charges and specifications, and appoint a prosecutor. (1897.)

¶ 663. BILL OF CHARGES. EX PARTE TESTIMONY. REFUSAL OF WITNESS TO ANSWER QUESTIONS. RIGHT TO ALTER TESTIMONY. INTRODUCTION OF TESTIMONY AFTER CLOSE OF ARGUMENT. RIGHT OF PRESIDENT OF COMMITTEE OF TRIAL TO REMAIN WITH THE COMMITTEE AND TAKE PART IN DELIBERATIONS.

The Discipline contains no form for a bill of charges. In drawing such bills, analogies from our law and obvious proprieties, as these have been recognized and established by usage, must be followed. The charge should be definite as to time, and place, and substance, and circumstance. This is necessary, (1) that the accused may understand the precise nature of the charge against him; (2) that the Committee of Trial may determine whether the facts constitute an offense, and thus graduate its guilt; (3) that the decision in the case may bar a future trial for the same offense. If, however, the parties in the case waive all objection to the form of the bill of charges, and agree to proceed with the trial, the Committee of Trial is under no obligation to interfere, unless to protect those who are too ignorant to know their rights. An accused person, preacher or layman, is entitled to the protection of all the rights which the laws and usage of the Church secure to him.

An agreement on both sides not to introduce ex parte testimony may be waived by mutual consent, and such testimony may be introduced subject to the decision of the president of the committee. An episcopal decision often quoted allows the introduction of ex parte testimony in certain cases, some of which it specifies. The records and usage of the Church everywhere justify ex parte testimony, provided the rights of all parties concerned are protected as far as is possible.

There is no power in the Church that can compel a witness to answer questions. The presiding officer in a Church trial may decide that a question is improper, and the witness with propriety may decline to answer. In Church trials a witness is not bound to reveal confidential communications made to him as an intimate friend, or as an adviser or representative.

A witness may at his own suggestion, or on demand of the president, or of any committeeman, explain testimony that has been misapprehended, and he may do this at any stage before the decision is reached.

Even after the argument has been closed, there may be peculiar circumstances that warrant the introduction of a new witness. In this case this was demanded by the affirmation of the accused, and if he were misinformed it may be necessary for the vindication of the accuser.

Our usage gives to the president of the committee the right and duty to remain with the committee while it is making up its decision, to take part in its deliberations, and to aid in reaching its decision. Our law gives no privilege to a preacher which it denies to a member. As a preacher is pastor of a particular charge, so is a presiding elder the pastor of his district. An administrator, in the absence of specific direction to the contrary, is not to be condemned who simply conforms to long-established usage. (1858.)

¶ 664. AFTER SUSPENSION BY A COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION, BILL OF CHARGES CANNOT BE WITHDRAWN.

A Committee of Investigation found a trial necessary and suspended a traveling preacher. It is not lawful to have a reinvestigation and find no trial necessary and thus cancel the suspension. The case having proceeded so far should have gone to a Committee of Trial. (1880.)

¶ 665. PRESIDING ELDER'S DUTY ABOUT UNFORMULATED COMPLAINTS.

It is the duty of a presiding elder during an Annual Conference, if he knows of any report against a preacher in his district of such gravity as to require investigation, to mention it to the Conference, although no written charge has been presented. (1896.)

¶ 666. WHEN A PRESIDING ELDER CAN ARREST THE CHARACTER OF A PREACHER.

It is not contrary to law for his presiding elder to present to the Conference for its action the report of an Investigating Committee appointed in the interim of an Annual Conference, when that report declares no trial necessary, nor to hold up the passage of the character of the traveling preacher with the presentation to the Conference of such a report. (1906.)

¶ 667. DUTY OF AN OFFICER WITH CHARGES IN HIS HANDS.

A presiding elder, with written charges in his hands signed by a minister or member of our Church against a traveling preacher of his district, cannot judicially prejudice the case and decide that no trial is necessary, but must refer it to a committee; nevertheless he may, and ought to, advise against trials that appear to him needless and damaging. (1889.)

¶ 668. DELAYED CHARGES.

Charges of immorality against a traveling preacher may be made even though the accuser has allowed one or more sessions to pass before bringing the accusation. (1889.)

¶ 669. COMPLAINTS MAY BE REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE OF RECOMMENDATION.

The case of a traveling preacher against whom complaint is made during the session of the Annual Conference may be referred to a committee to report and recommend action thereon, before the accused has had the privilege of reply, and before the Conference has decided on the passage of his character. (1887.)

¶ 670. WHEN A PREACHER MAY WITHDRAW FROM THE MINISTRY.

The Annual Conference by affirmative vote may allow one of its members to withdraw even when rumors of immorality are against him. (1901.)

¶ 671. WITHDRAWAL FROM MINISTRY OR MEMBERSHIP.

A person under charges cannot withdraw from the membership or ministry of the Church pending trial for the vindication of the Church. (1901.)

¶ 672. VOLUNTARY ABANDONMENT OF WORK.

The disciplinary procedure in the case of a preacher who refuses to attend the work assigned him contained a proviso that "such cases shall not be denied trial by committee."

It was decided that this proviso was not intended to invest the accused with a right of choice as to the mode of procedure, but to prescribe the process for "such cases," as appears both in the terms used and the history of the case in which it had its origin. (1891.)

¶ 673. APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES OF INVESTIGATION AND TRIAL.

The statement in the Discipline and in the Manual of the Discipline, that a traveling preacher is amenable for his conduct to the Annual Conference of which he is a member, does not necessarily imply that the Conference, and not the Chair, shall appoint the Committee of Investigation, a view confirmed by long custom. (1891.)

¶ 674. APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE OF TRIAL.

The law stating that the chairman of a committee to try a traveling preacher shall be appointed by the president of the Conference does not exclude the other members of the committee from appointment by him; but if the Conference claim the right of appointment, the claim cannot be denied. (1891.)

¶ 675. NOTICE OF TRIAL.

Suspension of a preacher after investigation during the year is itself a strong and sufficient notice of trial. (1871.)

¶ 676. THE RELATION OF THE CHAIRMAN OF A COMMITTEE OF TRIAL TO THE PRESIDING BISHOP.

As the committee represents the Conference, the chairman represents the president of the Conference, who is responsible for orderly proceedings. The chairman should consult the bishop and be in accord and be controlled by his directions in conducting the trial. This is necessary to secure uniformity of administration. Only the bishop is responsible to the General Conference; and it may be expedient for him sometimes to preside in the Committee of Trial. (1871.)

¶ 677. COUNSEL OF A MEMBER OF AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE MUST BE A MEMBER OF THE BODY.

¶ 678. PREJUDICE DISQUALIFIES A COMMITTEEMAN, NOT A PROSECUTOR.

The existence of prejudice against the accused in a Church trial does not disqualify one who is a member from acting as a prosecutor, though it is a disqualification for membership on the trial committee. (1879.)

¶ 679. CHANGE OF LAW DURING TRIAL.

Should the General Conference make a material change in the law affecting an incomplete trial, the trial should be stayed. If necessary, proceedings should be conformed to the later requirement. (1879.)

¶ 680. WITHDRAWAL OF CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS.

A trial having been entered upon, charges or specifications may not then be withdrawn at the will of the accuser. (1879.)

¶ 681. EX PARTE EVIDENCE BEFORE COMMITTEES OF INVESTIGATION AND TRIAL.

Only when the person offering ex parte affidavits, certified letters, or letters whose signatures are proven by one or more persons other than the writer, establishes the fact that due effort has been made to have the witness cross-examined, are such affidavits and letters admissible evidence. Willful negligence, on the part of the one offering such evidence, to give to the other person concerned the opportunity to cross-examine the witness, is a bar to its admission. What weight, if any, is to be given to ex parte affidavits and certified letters is to be decided by the committee. (1914.)

¶ 682. A PRIVATE LETTER ONLY INCIDENTALLY RELATED MAY BE ADMITTED AS EVIDENCE.

A private letter, not before the Committee of Investigation, may be introduced as evidence before the Committee of Trial, even though it deal not explicitly with the charges and specifications. (1897.)

¶ 683. WITHDRAWAL FROM MINISTRY AND SURRENDER OF CREDENTIALS NO BAR TO TRIAL FOR ACTS COMMITTED BEFORE WITHDRAWAL. ACQUITTAL BY COMMITTEE OF TRIAL DOES NOT RESTORE SURRENDERED CREDENTIALS, NOR MEMBERSHIP IN ANNUAL CONFERENCE, OF ONE WITHDRAWING FROM THE MINISTRY BEFORE TRIAL. HYPOTHETICAL QUESTIONS CANNOT LEGALLY BE ANSWERED.

A committee appointed to investigate rumors of immorality against-a traveling preacher reported a trial necessary. The preacher surrendered his credentials, and withdrew from the ministry. At the ensuing session of the Annual Conference the bishop stated that the accused, after a Committee of Investigation had reported a trial necessary, had presented a bill of charges for immorality, and had suspended him, could not by withdrawing from the ministry escape a formal trial. A Committee of Trial heard the case, and decided that the accused was not guilty.

The bishop presiding had the following written questions presented for his decision :

1. Does the acquittal by the Committee of Trial terminate the suspension and restore the preacher who had withdrawn to membership in the Annual Conference?

2. Was the preacher a member of the Conference during his trial? If not a member, could he be expelled from the Conference, if found guilty? If a member during the trial, at what time, in law, did that connection close?

3. A series of hypothetical questions.

The bishop answered, and the College of Bishops approved:

1. Acquittal by a Committee of Trial does not in itself alone restore to membership in an Annual Conference a preacher who, with a formal charge of immorality against him presented by a Committee of Investigation, has withdrawn from the ministry of the Church.

2. During the trial the accused was answerable to the Church for his life and official administration up to the time of his withdrawal from the ministry of the Church.

3. By the law of our Church a bishop has no authority to give a legal decision of a hypothetical question. (1910.)

¶ 684. BISHOP TO INSPECT REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF TRIAL.

Before the report of a Committee of Trial is presented to an Annual Conference, it should be submitted to the bishop presiding for an inspection of its legality. (1886.)

¶ 685. ACTION OF A COMMITTEE OF TRIAL THE ACTION OF THE CONFERENCE.

Members of a Conference who are dissatisfied with the conclusion of a Committee of Trial cannot take the case before the Conference, nor can they appeal. The Committee of Trial represents the Conference, and the action of the Committee is the action of the Conference and of the Church. The accused may appeal, but the Church cannot appeal from its own committee. The report of the committee is final, save the right of appeal by the accused. (1867.)

¶ 686. THE CHURCH CANNOT APPEAL.

The Church cannot appeal from the decision of its own committee. (1877.)

¶ 687. MALADMINISTRATION NULLIFIES A TRIAL.

When a presiding elder has been pronounced guilty of maladministration "in all and singular" of the proceedings against a local preacher, the effect is to nullify those proceedings, and to leave the accused in the position he occupied before his character was arrested. (1861.)

¶ 688. EXPELLED ELDER'S UNION WITH ANOTHER CHURCH.

When an elder or member of an Annual Conference under sentence of expulsion unites with another Christian denomination, and thus rejects the jurisdiction of the Church under whose sentence he lies, and refuses submission to its penalty, he is not entitled to any benefit accruing from his former relation to it. (1888.)

¶ 689. A TRAVELING PREACHER MAY NOT PROSECUTE A LOCAL PREACHER.

A traveling preacher may not act as prosecutor in the trial of a local preacher or of a member of the Church. (1897.)

¶ 690. CHANGE OF PLACE OF TRIAL.

For sufficient cause a pastor may conduct the trial of a member at some other place than that at which his membership is held. (1879.)

¶ 691. DISQUALIFICATION BY ARREST OF CHARACTER.

Members of a Quarterly Conference against whom charges are pending cannot sit in Quarterly Conference, though the trial has not yet been had. They are under arrest of character. (1879.)

¶ 692. INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

On his trial the accused admitted that he was engaged in the sale of intoxicating liquors by the quantity and by the drink with the reasonable knowledge that it was bought to be used as a beverage, but his defense was that there was no law violated. From the decision of the Committee of Trial expelling him he appealed to the Quarterly Conference, which affirmed the decision of the committee. The accused desired that the case might come before the bishop presiding at the Annual Conference; and to give his wish effect, the Quarterly Conference, although deeming the verdict and judgment just, under the construction of the law rendered, appealed from the decision of the presiding elder to the bishop on the question of law: "Does the sale of intoxicating liquors, by the large or small quantities, to be used as a beverage, constitute an actionable offense under Methodist law, as found in the General Rules requiring the avoidance of evil of every kind, and the doing of no harm—these General Rules themselves being based upon the written word of God?" The plea of the absence of specific law was relied on by the accused in the case referred to. The preacher in charge decided that the case was actionable under the General Rules; and on appeal this ruling was sustained by the presiding elder.

Decided, That both were correct. (1874.)

¶ 693. DANCING.

It is contrary to the spirit of the Discipline and of the New Testament to teach modern dancing or to practice promiscuous dancing, and such a case comes under the rule of the Discipline forbidding "improper tempers, words, or actions." (1858.)

¶ 694. INFORMALITY IN THE TRIAL REMANDS THE CASE, BUT CANNOT REVERSE VERDICT.

A charge of immorality against a member of the Church was supported by two specifications. The accused was found guilty and was expelled. He appealed to the Quarterly Conference, and urged this plea: "The specification on which he was convicted belonged to a grade of offense less than immorality—viz., improper conduct." The presiding elder ruled that the charge belonged to one class of offenses and the first specification to another. The Quarterly Conference, without considering the testimony, reversed the decision of the Committee of Trial. The presiding bishop decided: Except on the merits of the case, a Quarterly Conference cannot reverse the decision of a Committee of Trial. For irregular or illegal proceedings the proper course is to remand the case for a new trial. A reversal of the decision ends the case. (1876.)

¶ 695. OPTIONAL WITH AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO RECEIVE THE SURRENDERED CREDENTIALS OF A TRAVELING PREACHER.

An Annual Conference to which a traveling preacher offers to surrender his credentials has the option to receive or reject them. (1907.)

¶ 696. DEPRIVATION OF CREDENTIALS.

A Conference has not the right to deprive a preacher of his credentials without a trial on a bill of charges, according to the forms of our law and the usages of our Church. (1859.)

¶ 697. CUSTODIAN OF SURRENDERED CREDENTIALS CANNOT RESTORE THEM.

A local elder under charges surrendered his credentials to the presiding elder, whereupon proceedings in the Quarterly Conference against him were stopped. Rumor exaggerated his offense, and he demanded that his credentials be returned to him, and that he be reinstated for a trial before the ensuing Quarterly Conference. The presiding elder, as the custodian of his parchment, declined to return them, and filed them with the Annual Conference. His action was legal. The applicant must first be licensed before the restoration, and the latter can be done only by an Annual Conference. (1879.)

¶ 698. RESTORATION OF AN EXPELLED PEACHER.

A preacher expelled from an Annual Conference and from the Church for immorality, and this verdict sustained, on appeal, by the General Conference, was admitted to membership by a preacher in charge, with the advice and consent of his leading official members, without confession or any expression of repentance of the crime for which he had been expelled. Two questions arose:

ertheless the law constitutes the preacher in charge the proper judge of the eligibility of the candidate for membership in the Church." (1867.)

"2. Can a member of an Annual Conference who has been expelled be admitted to the communion of the Church, in a congregation connected with said Conference, without giving satisfactory evidence of repentance of the crime for which he was expelled?" Answer: "An expelled member, who persistently denies his guilt, and who has submitted without contumacy and with meekness to the decision of the Church, after proper trial and a life corresponding to his asserted innocence, may be received without confession of the crime for which he was expelled." A majority of the bishops approved this decision. (1867.)

¶ 699. AN EXPELLED ELDER'S RESTORATION.

Credentials of an expelled elder cannot be restored until a previous restoration to membership in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline. (1888.)

¶ 700. DEPOSED MINISTERS TO BE RELICENSED.

A preacher, who had been deposed and deprived of his credentials, was restored by the Quarterly Conference to the ministerial office by a direct action, instead of the usual proceedings of recommendation from his society, examination before the Quarterly Conference, and granting license, as at first. His case was presented to the Annual Conference on application for the restoration of credentials. It was decided that the application could not be entertained. The deposed preacher must be recommended, and examined, and licensed, in regular form, in order to bring his case under the provisions of the law for the restoration of credentials. (1872.)

¶ 701. RESTORATION OF CREDENTIALS.

The recommendation for the restoration of the credentials of a preacher who has been deposed must be from the Quarterly Conference of the charge in which he lives. (1899.)

A traveling preacher withdrew from the ministry and membership of the Church, and surrendered his credentials. He was again admitted on trial, and subsequently the Annual Conference was requested to restore his credentials. The bishop decided, and the College approved, that his credentials could be restored by the Annual Conference, provided the requirements set forth in the chapter of the Discipline entitled, "The Deprivation and Restoration of Credentials," were met. (1911.)

¶ 703. DEPRIVATION OF LOCAL ELDER'S CREDENTIALS.

A Quarterly Conference has no right to deprive a local elder of his credentials, in the absence of a trial on charge and specifications, according to the due forms of law and the usages of the Church; and such action is void. (1861.)

¶ 704. WITHHOLDING MISSIONARY APPROPRIATIONS.

Missionary money was appropriated to a pastoral charge. The presiding elder directed the stewards to make a pro rata division between the pastor and himself. Because of the absence of the pastor on account of sickness in his family, a supply was appointed.

The following decisions were approved:

1. Only for the delinquency of the pastor can a presiding elder withhold from the pastor any part of the mission funds appropriated to the charge.

2. A pastor not deserting or willfully neglecting his charge, who employs a brother in good standing to labor during his absence, forfeits nothing under the Discipline.

3. The failure of a pastor, present or absent, to do his work, because of the extreme sickness of his wife or child, is a "necessary" failure in the disciplinary sense; and his resumption of his work at the earliest practical time, in the absence of other proof, is evidence of his intention.

4. A presiding elder can make a pro rata division of quarterage only among preachers placed by his decision or otherwise on the same basis.

5. A presiding elder is morally bound to refund money diverted by his act from its legitimate claimant. (1858.)

¶ 705. DISTRIBUTION OF MISSIONARY FUNDS BETWEEN PREACHER AND PRESIDING ELDER.

A Conference Board of Missions has authority to determine whether an appropriation made by it to a mission shall be divided between the presiding elder and the preacher in charge, or the whole appropriation shall be paid to the preacher in charge. (1894.)

¶ 706. LAY MEMBERS OF BOARD OF FINANCE.

It is not required that the lay members of the Board of Finance should be members of the Annual Conference, but there must be one from as well as for each district. (1871.)

¶ 707. BOARD OF FINANCE.

When a question between a preacher and his stewards is referred for settlement, by either party to the controversy, to the Board of Finance, the other party must have due notice. Both parties must, by due notice, have opportunity to make statements before the board can render a decision. (1871.)

¶ 708. PRO RATA DIVISION OF QUARTERAGE.

A disagreement between a presiding elder and a preacher in his district was referred for adjustment to the Board of Finance. The following questions were submitted to the presiding bishop:

1. By law the district stewards are required to apportion the claim of the presiding elder among the several charges, and the Board of Stewards must add this amount to the claim of their pastor. Can that board make any other than a pro rata division of the funds collected?

Ans. No.

2. If other than a pro rata division be made by the board, must the one receiving more than his proportion refund the excess to the other?

Ans. Yes.

3. In settling between the two a disagreement concerning receipts, can the board consider the manner in which each has performed his duty?

Ans. No; for this both are responsible only to the Annual Conference. (1876.)

¶ 709. PRODUCE OF THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

The produce of the Publishing House set apart for superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of preachers should, by the Board of Finance, be added to the Conference collection, and distributed among the claimants according to their best judgment of their several necessities. (1889.)

¶ 710. FINANCIAL PLAN.

An Annual Conference adopted a plan for raising the amount necessary to relieve its superannuated members, and the widows and orphans of preachers who had died in the work. The main item of the plan required every preacher to collect a sum on this account equal to five per cent of his salary receipts; and failing to do this, in the absence of excuse, to pay the amount out of his receipts.

A member, who had not taken up the collection, paid his five per cent to the Board of Finance under protest, on the ground that the plan is unconstitutional and void.

Decided, That as each Annual Conference is, by the law, authorized to adopt its own method of raising money to pay its claimants (which includes superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of preachers), the Conference is authorized to adopt and maintain its plan. (1874.)

¶ 711. POWER OF BOARD OVER TRUSTEES AND STEWARDS.

Neither trustees nor stewards have the right to apply money raised for the support of the pastor to the payment of other Church debts; and it is lawful for a Board of Finance, when appealed to in such a case, to decide that any funds so misapplied be repaid to the proper claimant. Such claim is not forbidden by the clause of Discipline which says of the board: "But in no case shall they allow any preacher to have a claim on the Church he has served, as of debt, after his pastoral connection has ceased." (1871.)

¶ 712. BOARD OF FINANCE.

An appropriation may be made by the Board of Finance to a claimant whose claim has arisen since the preceding session of the Conference. (1894.)

¶ 713. POWERS OF BOARD OF FINANCE.

The Board of Finance may reserve as much of the funds in its hands as may be necessary to pay during the year the funeral expenses of deceased claimants, and to relieve claimants who, by reason of sickness or other causes, may be brought into unforeseen need or distress, the Conference having the right to approve, recommit, or amend its report. (1893.)

¶ 714. DIVISION OF MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY COLLECTIONS.

When donors desire to give specific direction to their contributions on anniversary occasions, they cannot be denied the right. The disciplinary provision that the "proceeds" from the "anniversary meeting at each session of the Conference" "shall be equally divided between the General Board and the Annual Conference Mission Board," refers to the division of funds not thus specifically directed by the donors. (1891.)

¶ 715. APPROPRIATION OF MISSION FUNDS.

An Annual Conference Mission Board cannot appropriate any part of its funds to other than mission charges, known and recognized as missions on its minutes. (1890.)

¶ 716. CREDITS NOT ALLOWED TREASURERS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE BOARDS.

The Treasurer of the General Board of Missions, in his account with an Annual Conference, may not credit that Conference with an amount raised within its limits for the support of a mission for which no estimate was made by the General Board, and which is consequently not embraced in the assessment made on that Conference for the support of its missions. (1892.)

¶ 717. BOARD OF REFERENCE.

Less than three members cannot constitute a "Board of Reference" to act for two pastoral charges having claims on property. (1901.)

¶ 718. EQUITIES IN PARSONAGES.

A charge transferred from a district or circuit with a parsonage to which it has contributed, to another district or circuit without a parsonage, has a right to call for a "Board of Reference" to determine its equities, even though other charges involved in the readjustment of the district or circuit lines have set up no claim to any equities. (1914.)

¶ 719. EQUITIES IN PARSONAGE PROPERTY, WHEN GENERAL CONFERENCE DIVIDES CHARGE.

The section of the Discipline entitled, "Of the Division, Transfer, or Sale of Church Property," having reference to the equities in parsonage property in cases in which the division of a pastoral charge has been effected, applies alike whether the division is made by the General Conference or by other authority. (1897.)

¶ 720. DIVISION OF PASTORAL CHARGE.

When a pastoral charge has been divided, and a "Board of Reference" has been created to arbitrate the rights and equities in the parsonage property, the board cannot, in the absence of evidence, assume that one of the subdivisions has no rights in the property, and decline to perform the function for which it was created. (1901.)

¶ 721. WHAT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS BELONG TO THE CHURCH.

No educational institution can become the property of the Church till it is accepted by the Conference on the recommendation of the Board of Education. (1900.)

¶ 722. INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING UNDER CARE OF THE CONFERENCE.

An institution of learning is under the care of the Annual Conference when it has been formally adopted by the vote of the Conference, independently of the question of the legal title of the property. (1893.)

¶ 723. REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A report of the Board of Education may be amended by the Annual Conference to which it is made. (1902.)

¶ 724. WHEN SPECIAL DONATIONS FOR EDUCATION MAY BE CREDITED ON APPROPRIATION.

Special donations made by a member or congregation to the cause of education cannot be credited on the payment of the regular assessment of the Conference unless turned over to the Board of Education of the Conference to be used in payment of its appropriations. (1898.)

¶ 725. EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS.

The Annual Conference Board of Education should, in its report to the Conference, answer the question, "What are the educational statistics?" (1889.)

COURSE OF STUDY.

¶ 777. The College of Bishops shall prescribe courses of study for the following: (1) Candidates for license to preach; (2) those applying for recommendation for admission on trial by the Annual Conferences; (3) local preachers; (4) itinerant preachers; (5) Biblical and theological courses for candidates for admission on trial; and shall quadrennially review the same, making such changes as may be deemed advisable. The educational requirements for admission on trial into the traveling connection, so far as academic training is concerned, shall be equivalent to the requirement set by the Educational Commission for admission into the Freshman Class of a standard college: provided, however, that English, History, and Science may be accepted in lieu of the foreign language requirements; and provided, further, that this provision shall not apply to the German and Mexican preachers; and provided, further, that under special conditions clearly recognized as unusual, the Annual Conference may by a two-thirds vote admit a candidate who does not meet the academic requirements. Provided, that this law shall become effective with the next meeting of each Annual Conference.

¶ 778. All ministerial candidates are strongly urged before entering the traveling connection to secure, if possible, a thorough collegiate and theological training. A certificate of graduation from a secondary school of good standing may be accepted by the Examining Committee in lieu of the English branches prescribed in the course for candidates for admission. In the case of English-speaking Conferences, the course for undergraduates shall be taken with the Correspondence School, or at a Preachers' Institute having the Conference courses of study as part of its work, and in each case an official statement testifying to that fact shall be presented to the Conference Examining Committee; on presentation of such statement, the Examining Committee shall test the applicant's knowledge of the course of study and shall report on the same to the Annual Conference: provided, that a certificate from a standard college of our Church, or from other than Methodist colleges of equal grade, may be accepted in lieu of any or all collegiate subjects prescribed for Conference undergraduates; and a certificate from a theological seminary, or from the Biblical department of a standard college, that equivalent work has been done, may be accepted in lieu of the Biblical and theological subjects prescribed for candidates for admission or for Conference undergraduates. When practicable, the work of the committee may be done in connection with the Preachers' Institutes or other mid-year meetings, in which case the student shall be permitted to enroll immediately in the Correspondence School for the work of the succeeding year, subject to the formal passage of his character and advancement into the class of said succeeding year at the ensuing Annual Conference.

CHAPTER XXVII.

SECTION I.

¶ 794. THE ORDER FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

The elder shall read one or more of these sentences, during the reading of which the stewards shall take up the collection for the poor.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matt. v. 16.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. Matt. vi. 19, 20.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets. Matt. vii. 12.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Matt. vii. 21.

Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold,

Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. Luke xix. 8.

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Cor. ix. 6, 7.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. vi. 10.

Godliness with contentment is great gain; for we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 1 Tim. vi. 6, 7.

Charge them that are rich in this world that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate, laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. 1 Tim. vi. 17-19.

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. Heb. vi. 10.

To do good, and to communicate, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Heb. xiii. 16.

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 John iii. 17.

He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again. Prov. xix. 17.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. Ps. xli. 1.

Then shall the elder read this invitation:

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbors, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways, draw near with faith, and take this holy sacrament to your comfort, and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Then shall this general confession be made by the minister and all those who are minded to receive the holy communion, both he and they humbly kneeling, and saying:

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men, we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings: the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father: for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake forgive us all that is past, and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.¹

Then shall the elder say:

O Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of thy great mercy hast promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn to thee: have mercy upon us; pardon and deliver us from all our sins, confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and bring us to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the elder say:

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

¹At the close of each prayer throughout the Ritual the congregation is urged to join in the responsive "Amen."

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name, evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

Then shall the elder say:

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful souls and bodies may be made clean by his death, and washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Then the elder shall say the prayer of consecration, as followeth:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there, by his oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death until his coming again: hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee, and grant that we, receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body and blood: who in the same night that he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

Then shall the minister first receive the communion in both kinds himself, and then proceed to deliver the same to the other ministers in like manner, if any be present. Then shall he say the Lord's Prayer, the people still kneeling and repeating after him every petition:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Then a hymn may be sung, and the communicants shall be invited to the table. The minister shall deliver both kinds to the people into their hands. When he delivereth the bread, he shall say:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

And the minister that delivereth the cup shall say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

When all have communicated, the minister shall return to the Lord's table, and place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated elements, covering the same with a fair linen cloth.

The minister may then say as followeth:

O Lord and Heavenly Father, we thy humble servants desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sac-rice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee that all we who are partakers of this holy communion may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, through Jesus Christ our Lord: by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Then may be said or sung:

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ: O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer, Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Then the elder, if he see it expedient, may offer an extemporaneous prayer; and afterward shall let the people depart with this blessing:

May the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

If the elder be straitened for time, he may omit any part of the service except the prayer of consecration.

Let those who have scruples concerning the receiving of the communion kneeling, be permitted to receive it either standing or sitting; but no person shall be admitted to the Lord's Supper among us who is guilty of any practice for which we would exclude a member of our Church.

SECTION II.

¶ 795. THE MINISTRATION OF BAPTISM TO INFANTS.

The minister, coming to the font, which is to be filled with pure water, shall use the following, or some other suitable exhortation.

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as all men, though fallen in Adam, are born into this world in Christ the Redeemer, heirs of life eternal and subjects of the saving grace of the Holy Spirit; and that our Saviour Christ saith, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God; I beseech you to call upon God the Father through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will so grant unto this child, now to be baptized, the continual replenishing of his grace, that he may ever remain in the fellowship of God's holy Church, by faith that is in Jesus Christ.

Then shall the minister say:

Let us pray.

Almighty, ever-living God, we beseech thee for thine infinite mercies that thou wilt look upon this child, sanctify him ever with the Holy Ghost; that, abiding safe in the ark of Christ's holy Church, and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in love, he may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally he may come to the land of everlasting life, there to reign with thee, world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O merciful God, grant that the old Adam in this child may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in him. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is dedicated to thee by our office and ministry may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Almighty, ever-living God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, and gave commandment to his disciples that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; and grant that this child, now to be baptized, may receive the fullness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the people stand up: and the minister shall say:
Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Mark, in the tenth chapter, at the thirteenth verse.

They brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them; but when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Then the minister, addressing the parents, or others presenting the child, shall say:

In bringing this child unto holy baptism, you do accept it as your bounden duty to live before him the life that becometh the gospel, to teach him to renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all carnal desires of the flesh, so that he may not follow or be led by them; to know the Holy Scriptures that are able to make him wise unto salvation through faith that is in Christ Jesus, and obediently to keep God's holy will and commandments all the days of his life.¹

When he hath reached the age of discretion, he being willing thereto and showing evidence of living faith in Christ, it will become your duty to bring him before the congregation, that he may there ratify and make his own the act of dedication which you this day perform on his behalf.

Do you solemnly assume these obligations?

Ans. We do, God being our helper.

Then the minister shall take the child into his hands, if convenient, and say to the friends of the child:

¹The following may be used instead of the address above:

In causing this child to be brought by baptism into the Church of Christ, it is your duty to teach him to renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that he may not follow or be led by them; to believe all the articles of the Christian faith; and to obediently keep God's holy will and commandments all the days of his life.

Name this child.

And then, naming it after them, he shall sprinkle or pour water upon it (or, if desired, immerse it in water), saying:

N., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The minister may, at his discretion, lay hands on the subject, accompanying the act with a suitable invocation, and then, all kneeling, close with extemporaneous devotions and the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

SECTION III.

¶ 796. THE MINISTRATION OF BAPTISM TO CHILDREN AND YOUTH.

The people shall stand up, and the minister, coming to the font, which is to be filled with pure water, shall say:

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Matthew, in the twenty-eighth chapter, beginning at the sixteenth verse.

Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

Almighty, ever-living God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of this congregation, and grant that the persons now to be baptized may receive the fullness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the minister shall speak to the persons to be baptized on this wise:

Well beloved, who are come hither, desiring to receive holy baptism, you have heard how the congregation hath prayed that God would grant unto you now to be baptized the fullness of his grace, that you might ever remain in the number of his faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. And our God hath promised in his holy word to grant those things that we have prayed for, which promise he for his part will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore, for your part, do you also faithfully promise, in the presence of Almighty God and this congregation, that from this time forth, God helping you, you will put away from you every known sin in thought, word, and deed, and constantly endeavor to keep God's holy commandments?

Ans. God helping me, I do so promise.

Will you believe and diligently study the Bible as God's holy word and in all things strive to make it the rule of your life?

Ans. God helping me, I will.

Having been taught the Apostles' Creed, as given in our book of Discipline, as far as you do now understand, do you accept what this Creed teaches?

Ans. As far as I understand, I accept and believe it. Will you be baptized in this faith?

Ans. This is my desire.

Then shall the minister take each person to be baptized by the right hand; and placing him conveniently by the font, according to his discretion, shall ask the name; and then shall sprinkle or pour water upon him (or, if he shall desire it, shall immerse him in water), saying:

N., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The minister may, at his discretion, lay hands on the subject, accompanying the act with a suitable invocation.

SECTION IV.

¶ 797. THE MINISTRATION OF BAPTISM TO SUCH AS ARE OF RIPER YEARS.

The minister, coming to the font, which is to be filled with pure water, shall use the following, or some other suitable exhortation :

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as all men do inherit a nature so fallen that no man, of his own strength, can so live as to please God, and that our Saviour Christ saith, Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God ; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy he will grant to these persons, now to be baptized with water, that which by nature they cannot have ; that they may be baptized with the Holy Ghost, received into Christ's holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

Then shall the minister say :
Let us pray.

Almighty and immortal God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succor, the life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead : we call upon thee for these persons now to be baptized. Receive them, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall receive ; seek, and ye shall find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you : so give now unto us that ask ; let us that seek find ; open the gate unto us that knock ; that these persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the people stand up, and the minister shall say:

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Matthew, in the twenty-eighth chapter, beginning at the sixteenth verse.

Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Instead of the foregoing passage, John iii. 1-8 may be read:

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews; the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth; so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Then the minister shall speak to the persons to be baptized on this wise:

Well beloved, who are come hither, desiring to receive holy baptism, ye have heard how the congregation hath prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you, and bless you, to release you of your sins, to give you the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. And our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his holy word to grant all those things that we have prayed for; which promise he for his part will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore after this promise made by Christ, ye must also faithfully, for your part, promise, in the presence of this whole congregation, that ye will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy word, and obediently keep his commandments.

Then shall the minister demand of each of the persons to be baptized, severally:

Question. Dost thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow or be led by them?

Ans. I renounce them all.

Ques. Dost thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth? and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord? that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary? that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried? that the third day he rose again from the dead? that he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty? and that from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church¹; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting?

¹These words do not and cannot mean the so-called "Roman Catholic Church." The words were put into the Apostles' Creed long before there was any "Roman" Church as distinguished from other divisions of the one universal Church, that is, long before the original, one, world-wide Church, including the East and the West, the Greek and the Latin, was divided into Greek, Roman, Protestant, etc. They describe the one universal Church throughout the world,

Ans. All this I steadfastly believe.

Ques. Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

Ans. This is my desire.

Ques. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Ans. I will endeavor so to do, God being my helper.

Then shall the minister say :

O merciful God, grant that the old Adam in these persons may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that they, being here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues and everlastingly rewarded through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Almighty, ever-living God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of this congregation; and grant that the persons now to be baptized may receive the fullness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister take each person to be baptized by the right hand; and placing him conveniently by the font, according to his discretion, shall ask the name; and then shall sprinkle or pour water upon him (or, if he shall desire it, shall immerse him in water), saying:

N., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The minister may, at his discretion, lay hands on the subject, accompanying the act with a suitable invocation.

SECTION V.

¶ 798. THE FORM OF THE RECEPTION AND RECOGNITION OF CHILDREN AS MEMBERS.

After the minister previously shall have formed the children into a class (baptizing any whose baptism may have been delayed or neglected), and shall have instructed them in the things necessary for them to know as to the doctrines and rules of the Church, he shall cause them to be conveniently placed before the congregation, and, after inviting their parents and teachers to stand with them on either hand, he shall say:

Brethren of the household of faith, let our hearts be lifted up in thanksgiving to Almighty God, who by the Holy Spirit hath inclined these children to desire and to ask for membership in the Church of Jesus Christ. Having arrived at years of discretion, and now of their own accord appearing before this congregation to take upon themselves the vows and enter upon the privileges and duties of the Church, let us with one mind and heart most earnestly invoke in their behalf the blessings of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Then shall the minister say :

Kneeling, let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, Giver of every good and perfect gift, accept our hearty thanks for the children whom thou hast committed to our love and care. As thou didst bring them into this world, and from the beginning didst appoint them a place in thy kingdom by grace of the atonement of thy Son Jesus Christ; and after didst receive them by baptism into thy holy catholic Church, and endue thy servants, their parents, pastors, and teachers, with wisdom to train them in the way they should go; so now by thy Holy Spirit thou dost move them to seek this place of honor and service among thy saints. Wherefore, O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ever the Friend and Saviour of children, grant unto these the tender lambs of thy fold, that from this day forth they shall grow in grace and wisdom and in favor with God and man, to the end that, after lives of holy obedience and faithful service in thy Church below, they may be ministered an abundant entrance into thy kingdom above, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Then the minister shall say to the parents, standing :

Dear fathers and mothers, let this be to you a day of peculiar joy and thanksgiving, in that these who are of your flesh and blood have also entered into an holier spiritual kinship with you in Jesus Christ. While the Church henceforth will share with you the duty and privilege of bringing up these children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, it renews its solemn injunction to you as parents, by God's help, faithfully to continue both to teach and train them, by example and precept, in the way of the Lord. Will you accept this duty, in the fear and by the favor of God, and here and now, in the presence of Almighty God and this congregation, renew the vows made by you as fathers and mothers in the baptism of these children?

Answer. With God's help, I will.

Then shall the minister address the children who are candidates, and say :

Beloved children, our Lord Jesus, by his holy word, hath expressly given you a place in his kingdom and Church which must not be taken away. But as none should remain within the pale of the Church, or be admitted to its communion, without assuming its vows and obligations, it becomes my duty to inquire of you as to your purpose of mind and heart.

Do you, each of you, with your whole heart accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, to love and trust and obey him all the days of your life?

Ans. I do.

Is it your sincere desire, of your own free will and accord, to continue as members of the Church of Christ, in the communion of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South?

Ans. I do so desire.

Will you promise faithfully to keep its rules, to attend its services, to be loyal to its doctrines and government, and, as God shall prosper you, to support it by your means?

Ans. I do so promise.

Then shall the people stand up and, led by the minister, join in the responsive reading of the twenty-third Psalm, as followeth:

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over,

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Then the minister shall read the Epistle as followeth (2 Tim. i. 5, 6):

I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

Then the minister shall say:

Hear the words of the holy Gospel as written by St. Luke (ll. 40, 42, 46, 51, 52):

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. . . . And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man. .

Then shall the minister say to the candidates:

We rejoice to recognize you as members of the Church of Christ, and we bid you welcome to all its rights and privileges; and in token of our brotherly love, we give you the right hand of fellowship, and pray that you may be numbered with his people here and with his saints in glory everlasting. Amen.

The minister and congregation together shall close by saying:

The Lord bless thee and keep thee: the Lord make his face to shine upon thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Amen.

NOTE.—Each child-candidate should be given beforehand a printed copy of this ritual, which should be made plain to his understanding by pastor and parents.

SECTION VI.

¶ 799. THE FORM OF THE RECEPTION AND RECOGNITION OF MEMBERS.

The minister shall cause the candidates to be placed conveniently before the congregation, and after baptizing any who may not have been previously baptized, he shall say:

Brethren, the Church is of God, and will be preserved to the end of time, for the promotion of his worship and the due administration of his word and ordinances—the maintenance of Christian fellowship and discipline—the edification of believers, and the conversion of the world. All, of every age and station, stand in need of the means of grace which it alone supplies; and it invites all alike to become fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God. But as none who have arrived at years of discretion can remain within its pale, or be admitted to its communion, without assuming its obligations, it is my duty to demand of these persons present whether they are resolved to assume the same.

Then shall the minister address the candidates, as follows:

Dearly beloved, you profess to have a desire to flee from the wrath to come and to be saved from your sins, and to become a faithful servant in the kingdom of God; you seek the fellowship of the people of God, to assist you in working out your salvation; I therefore demand of you:

Do you solemnly, in the presence of God and this congregation, ratify and confirm the promise and vow of repentance, faith, and obedience, contained in the baptismal covenant?¹

Ans. I do, God being my helper.

Will you be subject to the discipline of the Church, attend upon its ordinances, and support its institutions?

Ans. I will endeavor so to do, by the help of God.

The minister shall then say to the candidates:

We rejoice to recognize you as members of the Church of Christ, and bid you welcome to all its privileges; and in token of our brotherly love, we give you the right hand of fellowship, and pray that you may be numbered with his people here, and with his saints in glory everlasting.

The minister shall then say to the congregation:

Brethren, I commend to your love and care these persons whom we this day recognize as members of the Church of Christ. Do all in your power to increase their faith, confirm their hope, and perfect them in love.

Then may follow a hymn suitable to the occasion (as 555, 556), and the minister shall say:

Let us pray.

Almighty God, we thank thee for founding thy Church, and promising that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. We bless thee for calling us to the fellowship of thy people, and for numbering us with the sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty. We especially praise thy name for enabling these thy servants to avouch the Lord to be their God. Help them to perform the promise and vow which they have made, to renounce the devil, the world, and the flesh; to believe the record which thou hast given of thy Son; and to walk in all thy commandments and ordinances blameless, to the end of their lives. May their communion with thy people be sanctified to their growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, being nourished and knit together, increasing with the increase of God. May thy people do them good, and may they prove a blessing to thy people. And grant, O Lord, that all who are here members of thy militant Church, through thy mercy, the merit of thy Son, and the grace of thy Spirit, may finally be made members of thy triumphant Church in heaven. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, Heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, for that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: increase this knowledge and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these persons, that they, being born again, may be made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

SECTION VII.

¶ 800. THE FORM OF THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

At the day and time appointed for the solemnization of matrimony, the persons to be married (having been qualified according to law) standing together, the man on the right hand and the woman on the left, the minister shall say:

Dearly beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony; which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that is between Christ and his Church: which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of St. Paul to be honorable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be enterprised, or taken in hand unadvisedly, but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, and in the fear of God.

Into which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. Therefore if any can show any just cause why they may not be lawfully joined together, let him speak, or else hereafter forever hold his peace.

And also speaking unto the persons that are to be married,

I require and charge you both (as ye shall answer at the dreadful day of judgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed), that if either of you know any impediment why ye may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, ye do now confess it; for be well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's word doth allow, are not joined together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

unto the man:

M., Wilt thou have this woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor, and keep her, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The man shall answer,

I will.

Then shall the minister say unto the woman:

N., Wilt thou have this man to thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, serve him, love, honor, and keep him, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The woman shall answer,

I will.

Then the minister may cause the man with his right hand to take the woman by her right hand, and to say after him as followeth:

I, M., take thee, N., to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and hereto I plight thee my troth.

Then shall they loose their hands, and the woman, with her right hand taking the man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the minister:

I, N., take thee, M., to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and hereto I give thee my troth.

When the parties so desire, the man shall give unto the woman a ring; and the minister taking the ring shall deliver it unto the man, to put it on the fourth finger of the woman's left hand; and the man, holding the ring there, and taught by the minister, shall say:

With this ring I thee wed, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

Let us pray,

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

O eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the author of everlasting life, send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy name; that they may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant between them made, and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister join their right hands together, and say:

Those whom God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

Forasmuch as M. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have pledged their faith either to other, and have declared the same by joining hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife together, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

And the minister shall add this blessing:

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with his favor look upon you; and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace, that ye may so live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

SECTION VIII.

¶ 801. THE ORDER OF THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

The minister, meeting the corpse and going before it, shall say :

I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. John xi. 25, 26.

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Cor. v. 1.

We brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away: blessed be the name of the Lord. 1 Tim. vi. 7; Job i. 21.

After they come into the church, or house, shall be read the following selections from Psalms xxxix. and xc.:

Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

And now, Lord, what wait I for? My hope is in thee.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears; for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me that I may recover strength, before I go hence and be no more.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep; in the morning they are like the grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down and withereth.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off and we fly away.

So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Return, O Lord, how long? And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Then shall follow the lesson, 1 Cor. xv. 20-58, or the following abridgment:

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For he hath put all things under his feet. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou foolish one, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die; and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but bare grain; it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain; but God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed its own body. All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. Behold, I show you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

2 Sam. xii. 16-23.

David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

And it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice; how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead; therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshiped; then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? Thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

Mark x. 13-16.

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

And he took them up in his arms, and put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Here may follow a suitable hymn, a sermon, or exhortation, and an extemporary prayer.

At the grave, when the corpse is laid in the earth, the minister shall say:

Man that is born of woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succor, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts: shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers, but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee.

Then the minister may say:

Forasmuch as the spirit of our deceased brother hath returned unto God who gave it, we therefore commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; looking for the general resurrection in the last day, and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ; at whose second coming in glorious majesty to judge the world, the earth and the sea shall give up their dead; and the corruptible bodies of those who sleep in him shall be changed, and made like unto his own glorious body, according to the mighty working whereby he is able to subdue all things unto himself.

Then shall be said:

I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors.

A suitable hymn may here be sung, and then shall the minister say:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Collect.

O merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life; in whom whosoever believeth shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth and believeth in him, shall not die eternally: we meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that when we shall depart this life we may rest in him; and at the general resurrection on the last day be found acceptable in thy sight, and receive that blessing which thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

SECTION IX.

¶ 802. THE FORM OF LAYING THE CORNER STONE OF A CHURCH.

At the time and place of laying the corner stone, let the minister cause a suitable hymn to be sung (e. g., 656, 657, 663). Then shall the minister say:

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, thou art infinite in all thy perfections, and marvelous in all thy works. Thou hast made the world and all things therein; and seeing that thou art Lord of heaven and earth, thou dwellest not in temples made with hands: thou art a Spirit, and art worshiped in spirit and in truth, in all places of thy dominion; yet we thank thee that thou dost allow us to build houses for thy service, wherein thy people may attend upon thee without distraction. We bless thy holy name for putting it into the hearts of thy people to build a house, at this place, for thy worship. We beseech thee to inspire us with zeal, that we may both have a mind to the work, and may successfully accomplish the same. May neither adversary nor evil occurrent hinder this work; but may the good hand of our God be upon us, that in due time we may bring forth the headstone with joy and praise. May this sanctuary, when completed, long remain a house of prayer for all people, where incense shall be offered unto thy name, and a pure offering, and thy word and ordinances shall be duly administered, accompanied by the influences of the Holy Ghost. Here may multitudes be born again, and be nurtured in knowledge and piety; so that they may be prepared, in the kingdom of thy grace, for a nobler worship in the kingdom of thy glory. We are unworthy, O Lord, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, through Jesus Christ our Lord: by whom and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory be unto thee, Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Then shall the minister read, or cause to be read, the following sentences:

Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our Father, forever and ever.

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.

Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

Now, therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee.

For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

His foundation is in the holy mountains.

The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

This is my rest forever: here will I dwell: for I have desired it.

I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

I will also clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

The stone which the builders refused is become the headstone of the corner.

This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Then shall the minister, standing by the stone, announce the articles to be deposited therein. These may be a copy of the Bible, the Hymn Book, the Discipline, Church periodicals, a document setting forth the name of the Church, with the names of the pastor, trustees, and building committee, and such other articles as may be desired. The stone shall then be laid by the minister, or some one appointed by him; placing his hand upon the stone, the minister shall say:

We lay this corner stone of a house to be built and set apart, from all worldly uses, for divine worship, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then may follow an address, the collection (if any), the Doxology, and Benediction.

SECTION X.

¶ 803. THE FORM OF THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

Let the service be conducted as on other occasions of public worship—only the hymns (e. g., 667, 662), prayers, lessons, and sermons should be adapted to the occasion. The lessons may be Genesis xxviii. 10-22, and Hebrews x. 19-25, or any other, at the discretion of the minister.

First Lesson. Gen. xxviii. 10-22.

And Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. And he dreamed, and behold, a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And behold, the Lord stood above it and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt be spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south; and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I knew it not. And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven. And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. And he called the name of that place Bethel; but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God; and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

Second Lesson. Heb. x. 19-25.

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a high-priest over the house of God: let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; and let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to do good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

The collection (if any) may follow the sermon. The officers of the Church shall then address the minister in the following language:

We present you this house, to be set apart, from all unhallowed or common uses, for the worship of Almighty God.

Then shall the minister request the congregation to stand up, while he pronounces the following Sentence of Dedication:

Sentence of Dedication.

Forasmuch as God has put it into the hearts of his people to build this house for his worship, and has blessed them in their undertaking, we solemnly dedicate it to his service, for the reading and expounding of his holy word, the administration of his ordinances, and for all other acts of religious worship. That he may graciously accept this labor of our hands, let us devoutly pray.

Then shall be said, all kneeling:

Almighty and everlasting God, the heaven, and the heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee, much less this house, which we have built, yet thou dost humble thyself to behold the inhabitants of the earth, and dost promise that in all places where thou dost record thy name thou wilt meet with thy people, and bless them. Let thy name be recorded in this place, and here let thine honor dwell. Preserve this house, which we set apart to thy service, from injury and desecration.

Accept the worship which shall be here offered to thy name. Let thy Holy Spirit accompany thy word and ordinances, which shall be here administered, so that they may prove means of grace to all who shall receive the same. May many sons and daughters be here born to the Lord Almighty. Let thy people be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house, and make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. Let their children be here fed with food convenient for them, and be brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Let living waters go forth from this sanctuary, carrying life and joy to all around. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children; and let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it. Now, therefore, arise, O Lord God, into thy resting-place, thou and the ark of thy strength; let thy ministers be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness. We beseech thee, O Lord, to overlook our unworthiness, forgive our sins, and make us a habitation of God through the Spirit. We offer all our offerings through the ever-blessed name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to whom, with thee, and the Holy Spirit, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

The service may then be concluded with the Doxology and Benediction.

SECTION XI.

¶804. THE FORM AND MANNER OF ORDAINING DEACONS.

When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, after a suitable sermon or exhortation, one of the elders shall present unto the Bishop all them that are to be ordained, and say :

I present unto you these persons present, to be ordained deacons.

Then their names being read aloud, the Bishop shall say unto the people :

Brethren, if there be any of you who knoweth any impediment or crime in any of these persons presented to be ordained deacons, for the which he ought not to be admitted to that office, let him come forth in the name of God, and show what the crime or impediment is.

If any crime or impediment be objected, the Bishop shall surcease from ordaining that person until such time as the party accused shall be found clear of that crime.

Then shall be read the following Collect :

The Collect.

Almighty God, who by thy divine providence hast appointed divers orders of ministers in thy Church, and didst inspire thy apostles to choose into the order of deacons thy first martyr, St. Stephen, with others: mercifully behold these thy servants, now called to the like office and administration: replenish them so with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that both by word and good example they may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name and the edification of thy Church, through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and forever. Amen.

Then the Bishop, or one of the elders appointed by him, shall read the Epistle.

The Epistle. 1 Tim. iii. 8-13.

Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre: holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Then shall the Bishop examine every one of those who are to be ordained, in the presence of the people, after this manner following:

Do you trust that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost to take upon you the office of the ministry in the Church of Christ, to serve God for the promoting of his glory and the edifying of his people?

Ans. I trust so.

The Bishop. Do you unfeignedly believe all the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?

Ans. I do believe them.

The Bishop. Will you diligently read or expound the same unto the people whom you shall be appointed to serve?

Ans. I will.

The Bishop. It appertaineth to the office of a deacon to assist the elder in divine service, and especially when he ministereth the holy communion, to help him in the distribution thereof, and to read and expound the Holy Scriptures; to instruct the youth; and in the absence of the elder to baptize.

And, furthermore, it is his office to search for the sick, poor, and impotent, that they may be visited and relieved.

Will you do this gladly and willingly?

Ans. I will so do, by the help of God.

The Bishop. Will you apply all your diligence to frame and fashion your own lives (and the lives of your families) according to the doctrine of Christ; and to make (both) yourselves (and them), as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples of the flock of Christ?

Ans. I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you reverently obey them to whom the charge and government over you is committed, following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions?

Ans. I will endeavor so to do, the Lord being my helper.

Then the Bishop, laying his hands severally upon the head of every one of them, shall say:

Take thou authority to execute the office of a deacon in the Church of God; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop deliver to every one of them the Holy Bible, saying:

Take thou authority to read the Holy Scriptures in the Church of God, and to preach the same.

The Gospel. Luke xii. 35-38.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning, and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are those servants whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching. Verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

Immediately before the Benediction shall be said these Collects following:

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who of thy great goodness hast vouchsafed to accept and take these thy servants into the office of deacons in thy Church: make them, we beseech thee, O Lord, to be modest, humble, and constant in their ministration, and to have a ready will to observe all spiritual discipline; that they having always the testimony of a good conscience, and continuing ever stable and strong in thy Son Christ, may so well behave themselves in this inferior office that they may be found worthy to be called unto the higher ministries in thy Church, through the same thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ: to whom be glory and honor, world without end. Amen.

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Benediction.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

SECTION XII.

¶ 805. THE FORM AND MANNER OF ORDAINING ELDERS.

When the day appointed by the Bishop is come there shall be a sermon or exhortation, declaring the duty and office of such as come to be admitted elders; how necessary that order is in the Church of Christ; and also how the people ought to esteem them in their office. After which one of the elders shall present unto the Bishop all them that are to be ordained, and say:

I present unto you these persons present, to be ordained elders.

Their names being read aloud, the Bishop shall say unto the people:

Brethren, these are they whom we purpose, God willing, this day to ordain elders. For after due examination, we find not to the contrary, but that they are lawfully called to this function and ministry, and that they are persons meet for the same. But if there be any of you who knoweth any impediment or crime in any of them, for the which he ought not to be received into this holy ministry, let him come forth in the name of God, and show what the crime or impediment is.

If any crime or impediment be objected, the Bishop shall surcease from ordaining that person, until such time as the party accused shall be found clear of that crime.

Then shall be said the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as followeth :

The Collect.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers orders of ministers in thy Church, mercifully behold these thy servants, now called to the office of elder, and replenish them so with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name and the edification of thy Church, through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. Eph. iv. 7-13.

Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore, he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens that he might fill all things.) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

The Gospel. St. John x. 1-16.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

And that done, the Bishop shall say unto them as hereafter followeth:

You have heard, brethren, as well in your private examination (as in the exhortation which was now made to you), and in the holy lessons taken out of the Gospel, and the writings of the apostles, of what dignity, and of how great importance, this office is, whereunto ye are called. And now again we exhort you, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you have in remembrance into how high a dignity, and to what weighty an office, ye are called: that is to say, to be messengers, watchmen, and stewards of the Lord; to teach and to premonish, to feed and provide for the Lord's family; to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for his children who are in the midst of this evil world, that they may be saved through Christ forever.

We have good hope that you have all weighed and pondered these things with yourselves long before this time; and that you have clearly determined, by God's grace, to give yourselves wholly to this office, whereunto it hath pleased God to call you: so that, as much as lieth in you, you will apply yourselves wholly to this one thing, and draw all your cares and studies this way, and that you will continually pray to God the Father, through the mediation of our only Saviour Jesus Christ, for the heavenly assistance of the Holy Ghost; that by daily reading and weighing of the Scriptures, ye may wax riper and stronger in your ministry; and that ye may so endeavor yourselves from time to time to sanctify the lives of you and yours, and to fashion them after the rule and doctrine of Christ, that ye may be wholesome and godly examples and patterns for the people to follow.

And now that this present congregation of Christ, here assembled, may also understand your minds and wills in these things, and that this your promise may the more move you to do your duties, ye shall answer plainly to these things, which we, in the name of God and of his Church, shall demand of you touching the same.

Do you think in your heart that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the order of elders?

Ans. I think so.

The Bishop. Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all doctrine required of necessity for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined, out of said Scriptures, to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach nothing, as required of necessity, to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Scriptures?

Ans. I am so persuaded, and have so determined, by God's grace.

The Bishop. Will you then give your faithful diligence, always so to minister the doctrine and sacraments, and the discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded?

Ans. I will so do, by the help of the Lord.

The Bishop. Will you be ready with all faithful diligence to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's word; and to use both public and private monitions and exhortations, as well to the sick as to the whole within your charge, as need shall require, and occasion shall be given?

Ans. I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you be diligent in prayers, and in reading of the Holy Scriptures, and in such studies as help to the knowledge of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh?

Ans. I will endeavor so to do, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you be diligent to frame and fashion yourselves, and your families, according to the doctrine of Christ; and to make both yourselves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples and patterns to the flock of Christ?

Ans. I shall apply myself thereto, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you maintain and set forward, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace, and love, among all Christian people, and especially among them that are or shall be committed to your charge?

Ans. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you reverently obey your chief ministers, unto whom is committed the charge and government over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions, submitting yourselves to their godly judgments?

Ans. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Then shall the Bishop, standing up, say:

Almighty God, who hath given you this will to do all things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that he may accomplish his work which he hath begun in you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After this the congregation shall be desired secretly in their prayers to make their humble supplications to God for all these things; for which prayers there shall be silence kept for a space.

After which shall be said by the Bishop (the persons to be ordained elders all kneeling), Veni, Creator, Spiritus; the Bishop beginning, and the elders and others that are present answering by verses as followeth:

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.
Thy blessèd unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soilèd face
With the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home,
Where thou art guide no ill can come.
Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee of both to be but one.
That through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

That done, the Bishop shall pray on this wise, and say:

Let us pray.

Almighty God and Heavenly Father, who, of thine infinite love and goodness toward us, hast given to us thy only and most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer, and the author of everlasting life, who, after he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, sent abroad into the world his apostles, prophets, evangelists, doctors, and pastors; by whose labor and ministry he gathered together a greater flock in all parts of the world, to set forth the eternal praise of thy holy name: for these so great benefits of thy eternal goodness, and for that thou hast vouchsafed to call these thy servants here present to the same office and ministry appointed for the salvation of mankind, we render unto thee most hearty thanks: we praise and worship thee; and we humbly beseech thee, by the same thy blessed Son, to grant unto all who either here or elsewhere call upon thy holy name, that we may continue to show ourselves thankful unto thee for these, and all other, thy benefits, and that we may daily increase and go forward in the knowledge and faith of thee and thy Son, by the Holy Spirit: so that as well by these thy ministers, as by them over whom they shall be appointed thy ministers, thy holy name may be forever glorified, and thy blessed kingdom enlarged, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

When this prayer is done, the Bishop and the elders present shall lay their hands severally upon the head of every one that receiveth the order of elders, the receivers humbly kneeling upon their knees, and the Bishop saying:

The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Ghost for the office and work of an elder in the Church of God now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands. And be thou a faithful dispenser of the word of God, and of his holy sacraments; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall deliver to every one of them kneeling, the Bible into his hands, saying:

Take thou authority to preach the word of God, and to administer the holy sacraments in the congregation.

Then shall the Bishop say:

Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send upon these thy servants thy heavenly blessing; that they may be clothed with righteousness, and that thy word spoken by their mouths may have such success that it may never be spoken in vain. Grant, also, that we may have grace to hear and receive what they shall deliver out of thy most holy word, or agreeable to the same, as the means of our salvation; that in all our words and deeds we may seek thy glory, and the increase of thy kingdom through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Benediction.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

If on the same day the order of deacons be given to some, and that of elders to others, the deacons shall be first presented, and then the elders. The Collects shall both be used; first that for deacons, then that for elders. The Epistle shall be Ephesians iv. 7-13, as before in this office. Immediately after which, they that are to be ordained deacons shall be examined and ordained as is above prescribed. Then one of them, having read the Gospel, which shall be St. John x. 1-16, as before in this office, they that are to be ordained elders shall likewise be examined and ordained, as in this office before appointed.

SECTION XIII.

¶ 806. THE FORM OF CONSECRATING A BISHOP.

The Collect.

Almighty God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy holy apostles many excellent gifts, and didst charge them to feed thy flock: give grace, we beseech thee, to all the ministers and pastors of thy Church, that they may diligently preach thy word, and duly administer the godly discipline thereof; and grant to the people, that they may obediently follow the same; that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be read by one of the elders

The Epistle. Acts xx. 17-35.

From Miletus Paul sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed, therefore, unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore, watch and remember that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have showed you all things, how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Then another shall read

The Gospel. St. John xxi. 15-17.

Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith unto him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

Or this. St. Matthew xxviii. 18-20.

Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

After the Gospel and sermon are ended, the elected person shall be presented by two elders unto the Bishop, saying:

We present unto you this holy man to be ordained a Bishop.

Then the Bishop shall move the congregation present to pray, saying thus to them:

Brethren, it is written in the Gospel of St. Luke, that our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in prayer, before he did choose and send forth his twelve apostles. It is written also in the Acts of the Apostles, that the disciples who were at Antioch did fast and pray, before they laid hands on Paul and Barnabas, and sent them forth. Let us, therefore, following the example of our Saviour Christ, and his apostles, first fall to prayer, before we admit and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Ghost hath called him.

Then shall be said this prayer following:

Almighty God, giver of all good things; who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers orders of ministers in thy Church: mercifully behold this thy servant, now called to the work and ministry of a Bishop; and replenish him so with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn him with innocency of life, that, both by word and deed, he may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name, and the edifying and well-governing of thy Church, through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall say to him that is to be ordained:

Brother, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture commands that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to government in the Church of Christ, which he hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of his own blood: before I admit you to this administration, I will examine you on certain articles, to the end that the congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

Are you persuaded that you are truly called to this ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ?

Ans. I am so persuaded.

The Bishop. Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all doctrine required of necessity for eternal salvation, through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined, out of the same Holy Scriptures, to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing as required of necessity to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?

Ans. I am so persuaded, and determined, by God's grace.

The Bishop. Will you then faithfully exercise yourself in the same Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same, so as you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gainsayers?

Ans. I will so do, by the help of God.

The Bishop. Are you ready with faithful diligence to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's word, and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to do the same?

Ans. I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Ans. I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop. Will you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men; and such as shall be unquiet, disobedient, and criminal, within your district, correct and punish, according to such authority as you have by God's word, and as shall be committed unto you?

Ans. I will so do, by the help of God.

The Bishop. Will you be faithful in ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon, others?

Ans. I will so be, by the help of God.

The Bishop. Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful, for Christ's sake, to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Ans. I will so show myself, by God's help.

Then the Bishop shall say:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that he, accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the last day, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall Veni, Creator, Spiritus, be said:

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.
Thy blessèd unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soilèd face
With the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home,
Where thou art guide no ill can come.
Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee of both to be but one.
That through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

That ended, the Bishop shall say:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Ans. Let our cry come unto thee.

The Bishop. Let us pray.

Almighty God and most merciful Father, who of thine infinite goodness hast given thine only and dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer, and the author of everlasting life; who, after that he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down his gifts abundantly upon men, making some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and doctors, to the edifying and making perfect his Church: grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant, such grace that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad thy gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee, and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help; so that as a wise and faithful servant, giving to thy family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

Then the Bishop and elders present shall lay their hands upon the head of the elected person, kneeling before them upon his knees, the Bishop saying:

The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Ghost, for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God which is given thee; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

Then the Bishop shall deliver him the Bible, saying:

Give heed unto reading, exhortation, and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men. Take heed unto thyself, and to thy doctrine; for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost. Be so merciful, that you may not be too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you may receive the never-fading crown of glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Immediately before the Benediction shall be said the following prayers:

Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send down upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit that he, preaching thy word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke with all patience and doctrine, but may also be to such as believe a wholesome example, in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness laid up by the Lord, the righteous Judge, who liveth and reigneth, one God with the Father and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Benediction.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

SECTION XIV.

¶ 807. THE APOSTLES' CREED.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

SOCIAL CREED OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA.*

¶ 808. Whereas the Church of God is divinely appointed to interpret Jesus Christ and his gospel to each successive generation, and to labor to the end that all things be brought into subjection to him; and

Whereas the problems of industrial readjustment and social redemption that are forced upon this generation constitute a challenge to the Church to assert the Lordship of Jesus Christ in the social as well as in the individual life, and to interpret the gospel of this age in social as well as in individual terms:

Therefore, we stand with our brethren represented in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America,

1. For equal rights and complete justice for all men in all stations of life.

2. For the protection of the family, by the single standard of purity, uniform divorce laws, proper regulation of marriage, and proper housing.

3. For the fullest possible development for every child, especially by the provision of proper education and recreation.

4. For the abolition of child labor.

5. For such regulation of the conditions of toil for women as shall safeguard the physical and moral health of the community.

6. For the abatement and prevention of poverty.

*Inserted in the Discipline by order of the General Conference.

7. For the protection of the individual and society from the social, economic, and moral waste of the liquor traffic.

8. For the conservation of health.

9. For the protection of the worker from dangerous machinery.

10. For the right of all men to the opportunity for self-maintenance, for safeguarding this right from encroachments of every kind, and for the protection of workers from the hardships of enforced employment.

11. For suitable provision for the old age of the workers, and for those incapacitated by injury.

12. For the right of employees and employers alike to organize for adequate means of conciliation and arbitration in industrial disputes.

13. For a release from employment one day in seven.

14. For the gradual and reasonable reduction of hours of labor to the lowest practicable point, and for that degree of leisure for all which is a condition of the highest human life.

15. For a living wage as a minimum in every industry, and for the highest wage that each industry can afford.

16. For a new emphasis upon the application of Christian principles to the acquisition and use of property, and for the most equitable division of the product of industry that can ultimately be devised.
